Collection Development Policy for
Tulane University Digital Library

OBJECTIVES: Tulane University Digital Library provides access to the University's collections for teaching, learning, and research at Tulane University and worldwide. TUDL enables partnerships with other national and international digital initiatives that benefit Tulane, Louisiana, and the global research community.

- TUDL provides open access to digital content in compliance with U.S. copyright law and applicable donor agreements.

- TUDL adheres to standard non-proprietary formats.

- TUDL provides long-term access to scholars for purposes of continuity of citation, while complying with any legal restrictions that may affect provision of digital material.
