L. S. U. ALMA MATER

(Sing as the Band Plays)

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias
Shade inspiring halls,

There stands our dear old Alma Mater
Who to us recalls:

Fond memories that waken in our hearts
A tender glow,

And makes us happy for the love that we
Have learned to know.

All praise to thee our Alma Mater,
Moulder of mankind,

May greater glory love unending
Be forever thine.

Our worth in life will be thy worth
We pray to keep it true,

And may thy spirit live in us forever
L. S. U.

TULANE ALMA MATER

(Sing as the Band Plays)

I

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

II

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou ledest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

III

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS

Olive, Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us!
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts' devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ABOUT ALL OF US—

(In which a feminine fan takes typewriter in hand and portrays today's game from the West Side stands.)

Dear Brother:

I'm so glad you'll be here for the Tulane-L. S. U. game. You really couldn't afford to miss it, because everyone who can ride, walk, swim or fly will be here, even if they have to trade in their gold-standard teeth on some new Woodin money in order to witness what will be the "Battle of Almost-Half-a-Century — 1893-1933." Omitting the no-game and tie-game years, Tulane has won fourteen games and L. S. U. has chalked up thirteen. Close competition, isn't it? Since Tulane won the first game I'm depending upon the team to make it a "fifteen for Tulane" this year as a celebration for the Old Grads, a vindication of last year's Infirmary Squad and an indication of what next year's Southeastern champions will look like.

Since declaring a moratorium on fumbles the team has reached a point of self-confidence which has permitted them to call in the loan of the opponent's ball, on which interest was rapidly mounting as it "bobbled" down the field. When a team ceases to lose its own ball and starts taking the ball over from the opposition—that, old dear, is a pretty fair indication of footballic stability. The team is really clicking now.

Can't you just feel the thrill of it, already! The crowds pouring in through the gates, the masculine contingent marching eagerly along (while trying to act like an ad for Murads) and the feminine delegation almost waltzing along in their excitement (hoping their handknitted costume is sufficiently becoming to do honor to the occasion); the smiling kids with their metric-system-quiz, "Pro-gram, mister, pro-gram?"; finding your seat is next to that of an ex-star who has brought his son along (and beams with pride as the young heir exclaims along about the third quarter, "Gee, Dad, Roberts sure can run, can't he?—but I bet you were faster than that!); Mrs. Dinwiddie as chief sponsor for the Olive and Blue (whose thrilling voice can always be heard singing the Alma Mater when it is played between the halves) and beside her, the charming wife of Professor Menuet, popular "prof" who is otherwise known as "War Horse"; the man who grins happily as he tells his neighbor, "That was my son that made that play"; Dean Bechtel, teeth viciously clamping down upon a long cigar, and eyes sparkling, as a green-clad player breaks through and smears a play; the lady who wishes they would put backs on the benches (and how on earth could you jump on the bench ahead of you, to see the most exciting touchdown, if it had a back?); Dr. Douglas Anderson, wearing his recent honors so modestly; the wild shout which greets the team's arrival on the field, and a rousing Hullabaloo that gathers speed until it hurtles into space and splits into a thousand echoes!; the L. S. U. cadets, with their enormous band, looking like a blue lake (with very turbulent waters) in the East Side stand, and the animated mass of youngsters behind the goal posts who will soon be clamoring for a touchdown; and hidden somewhere in the crowd, avoiding the glare of the spotlight, you'll find the honored and beloved Dr. Dinwiddie, probably discussing with "Doc Smith" the three F's—faculty, football and fishing—but you won't have to search long for "Monk" Simons (not while he wears those green plus-fours as he rushes around taking care of "his boys") and wouldn't you like to see his face when "Little Monk" boots a high one down to the one-yard line!; the Tulane-Newcomb cheering section, green-capped and white-capped and white-gloved, ready to provide the visitors with moving pictures (a la card) as the band makes "T" on the field while spectators patronize the Coca-Cola man, for whose wares they are grateful as they take a gasping time-out from trying to make successive first-downs by sheer force of will. In the meantime the boys will have held their last minute "bless-you-my-children" session with coaches "Big Ted" and "Little Les", and as they take their position on the field the silence deepens until the shrill "tweet" of the referee's signal sounds like a factory whistle. The kicker's arm goes up as he starts to run in hesitating little hops that end in a dull "zomp" as the ball zooms into the air and starts a leisurely altitude flight down the field. Then you settle down to your share of the day's efforts and proceed to do any or all of the following things:

Tell the quarterback what play to run. (If he takes your unheard advice and the play is a ground-gainer you rate 100% as a field general. If not, you have three alibis:—the pass from center was bad—the ball carrier delayed his start too long—or he started before he had complete control of the ball.)

Tell the linemen to "snap into it, and get in there!" (And then bless them out if they take you literally and get an off-side penalty on the next play.)

Yell lustily to the ball carrier to cut back to his right—and get mad if he runs into a couple of tacklers who shifted with him.

Remind the referee that the opposition deserves a penalty for two incomplete passes.

Tell the head linesman which man was off-side.

Ask the field judge what happened to his watch.

Inform all of the officials as to whether or not a first-down has been made. (Of course they're almost on top of the ball, but you can measure so much better from the top row at the other end of the field.)

Of course you'll be pretty busy doing all those things in your effort to help the Wave wash across that last white marker, but the East Side stand won't agree with a word you say, for they'll be trying to make the Tiger wade to shore. It will be another one of those annual affairs where

The ball is snapped back—the crowd holds its breath—

(For the Wave and the War Skule are playing)

The line makes a hole, the back rushes through—

(For a touchdown spectators are praying.)

Interference is great, blocking is fine,

Upset tacklers lie pitching and tossing;

He's crossing the goal line! "Aren't you glad!"

(It depends on whose goal line he's crossing.)

At any rate, win or lose, by the time the game is over you will have seen a bunch of boys playing together toward a common goal (with perhaps a point after) and as they gain ground you'll cheer them on, yet if they falter you'll buck them up just the same for their youth and spirit, their sacrifice of individual glory for the good of the team. So come on over and we'll both tackle the job of guarding the goal line from the center to the ends, yielding no quarter, and going half-and-half for a full measure of joy in a Tulane victory! Sis.

(Editor's Note: We must let you in on the secret. We are indebted to Miss Muriel Bentley for this breezy little feature.)

The Tulane Football Team of 1908 had one of the most enviable records that any Tulane team of all times has ever had. Victories over Texas, Mississippi A. & M., Baylor, and Central of Kentucky gave them the best record of any team in the South.

Again Chevrolet leads! The 1933 Chevrolet Master Six has equalled the fine record made by the other Chevrolet leaders. It has even done better, because Chevrolet today is the first in sales by the largest margin ever known in the low-priced car field. Chevrolet offers luxurious body interiors, free wheeling, and synchro-mesh gear shifting. These are just a few of the new features which make the ownership of a Chevrolet a pleasure and an economy. Above all, every car that we sell is backed up by the Menefee Service. Owners are glad to bring their cars to our shop, because of the promptness and efficiency of our service, and the care we give the cars.

MENEFEE MOTOR Co., Inc.

● This Irvine (Scooter) Warburton, 147-pounder of the University of Southern California backfield, stands out as one of the great backs of American football.

● True, Warburton is playing with a great team. The big Trojans afford fine blocking and interference. Nevertheless, The Scooter must have the stuff to pull games out of the fire.

● Coach Howard Jones admits that the Trojans could not have beaten California but for the play of Warburton. The little cotton-topped welter-weight ran 59 yards on one play with a half-dozen Bear tacklers trying to lay a hand on him. He ran 43 yards to a touchdown against Stanford with little help. He broke up the close Washington State game by phenomenal dashes of 75 and 80 yards to touchdowns. It was his run on a fake that carried the ball to St. Mary's five-yard stripe. He was the wheelhorse in an attack which carried the ball to the Oregon State 15-yard line when he was removed in order to put more weight into the backfield in an attempt to buck it over. The attack was halted, however, with Warburton out.

● Warburton's sensational long runs parallels the work of Preacher Roberts, the great running Wave halfback.

● Just as The Scooter pulled out several victories for the Trojans, so has The Preacher started the Wave to one triumph after another. Roberts' 75-yard run scored the touchdown to beat the Red Raiders of Colgate. He broke the ice a week later against Mississippi State with a 76-yard touchdown run and a week later he dashed 55 and 78 yards in the first three minutes to roll up two touchdowns against Kentucky.

● This has been a year of long runs and shifty, fast backs. Bucky Bryan ran 101 yards on a return of a kickoff to beat Georgia Tech for Tulane. Bryan ran a punt back 66 yards for a touchdown to cement what was then a close game for the Wave.

● Cy Grant and Homer Key of Georgia have done most of the scoring for the Bulldogs on long runs. Casey Kimbrell of Auburn did the offensive damage in the two major victories of the Plainsmen, those over Tulane and Georgia, with long jaunts.

● Cornelius of Duke has kept the Blue Devils up in the front row with his fine broken field running.

● Fatheree and Mixon of Louisiana State have been stepping off the long distance runs to help their team.

● Beattie Feathers of Tennessee has stepped his way into high all-American consideration with his fifty, sixty and seventy-yard dashes.

● The spectators have no kick coming. There is nothing more sensational in football than a great run for a touchdown. It is to football what a home run is to baseball.

• • •

● Tulane and Louisiana State renew a rivalry dating back to 1893 today. The Wave has won fourteen games, the Tiger thirteen, and three have resulted in ties.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO FLY THE MAIL AT NIGHT

● A. M. WILKINS has flown the night air mail over 150,000 miles for TWA. It takes healthy nerves to hang up a record like that!

● WILKINS joins a fellow pilot, W. Niedernhofer, at Newark Airport, for a chat and a smoke. "Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves," Wilkins says.

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand. They are milder, richer in flavor. They never tire your taste or get on your nerves.

STEADY SMOKERS TURN TO CAMELS

A. M. WILKINS, air-mail ace, says: "It's a steady grind, all right, living up to our tradition that the mail must go through! That's why I smoke Camels. And I smoke plenty! Camels never ruffle or jangle my nerves, and I like their mild, rich flavor."

Camels never tire the taste—never get on the nerves. Your taste and your nerves will confirm this. Start smoking Camels today and prove it for yourself.
