IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN

Lay aside your baseball bats, store that flannel in moth balls, swap those low quarter shoes for high tops—it's football time again!

Yes sir, you may read about the World Series and the number of home runs by Joe DiMaggio and the records set during the past baseball season. But when the fan starts spectating from now on, it'll be in a football stadium somewhere.

For once more it's pigskin time and that means that stadia throughout the Nation will be jammed with partisan crowds, vociferously urging their favorites on—in victory or defeat.

Flashing heels, the smack of leather against leather, the boom of a well kicked ball, toe-tapping music and high-stepping drum-majors. All that goes into a football season—and more.

Here in Tulane Stadium this spectacle opens with a gigantic splash, the usual occurence when a Crimson Tide of Alabama meets a Green Wave from Tulane. It's the first home showing in a seven-reel series that pits the Wave each Saturday against foes from the Southeast, the Southwest and the Southern Conference.

And nothing could be more suitable than to launch this 1948 Tulane season with one of the nation's finest—the Crimson Tide. Champions of the power mode of football, groomed to the finest in the intricacies of the Notre Dame box by that red-haired veteran, Red Drew, the red-clad warriors from Tuscaloosa present a formidable opponent for the Green.

Gone is Harry Gilmer, Mr. Pass of the South. Gone, too, are such old-timers as All-American Vaughn Mancha, Lowell Tew, Norwood Hodges, John Wozniak, Hugh Morrow, Tom Whitley and the others whose four wartime years wrote successive chapters of success into the annals of Alabama gridiron history.

But in their stead come more and perhaps greater Tidesmen. Today you may watch Ed Salem and Ed White and Red Noonan and Billy Cadenhead in the backfield. And in the line, tag Dick Flowers and Rebel Steiner and Jim Cain and Ray Richeson and the rest of what may be a greater 'Bama team than its predecessor.

New also will be the Green Wave of Tulane, a team Coach Henry Frnka has classed as "perhaps too light for this league," But what they may lack in weight, Frnka believes, may be added in that synonym for the 20th century—speed.

Veterans of many a Green Wave battle will be back—Seniors like Emile O'Brien and Don Fortier, juniors such as speedsters Eddie Price, Jim Keeton, who will likely handle much of Tulane's "T" formation deception, rugged Stanley Kottemann, his side kick Bob Franz, strong man Bill Svoboda and rangy Max Druen among others.

Watch the new faces that'll be in that lineup, too. George Maddox, Harold Headrick, Dan Rogas, Dick Sheffield, Hank Watkins, Bill Riggs, Bobby Jones, George Kinek, John Sikora, and many, many others. Some you heard only slightly last year but this year the football hopes of Tulane ride on their individual prowesses.

One of the oldest series in Tulane history, the records shows the Wave with only five victories out of 21 games. One ended in a tie.

At the Game ...

IT'S

Porters

EVERY TIME!

More and more distinguished New Orleans men are buying their clothes at Porter's! Why — simply because Porter's selects the latest styles for distinguished men.

Porter's

Carondelet Corner Gravier

THIS IS ALABAMA

Alabama has used the so-called "Notre Dame" offensive longer than any other major college since the South Bend school switched to the "T" under Frank Leahy. Frank Thomas installed the familiar Notre Dame shift when he succeeded Wallace Wade here in 1931, but Thomas had his own variations and Red Drew—although sticking to the basic formations—is using other modifications. The Crimson Tide still uses the balanced line and after the huddle the backs line up in the "T", then shift to the right or left into the Notre Dame box. But, the box is often misshapen, what with men-in-motion, flankers and other Alabama variations from the original.

RUNNING GAME-

Alabama's halfbacks handle a large share of the ground attack, with the fullbacks usually going for short yardage inside tackle and guard and the right and left halfback being used on off-tackle and end sweeps. An occasional quarterback sneak is employed for short yardage and the end-around may be seen once or twice a game. Because of the presence of the colorful Harry Gilmer on the squad the past four seasons Alabama was popularly known as a "passing" team. But statistics prove otherwise. Last season the Tide tried 494 running plays against but 102 passes.

PASSING GAME-

And with Gilmer gone, 'Bama will probably be more of a ground attack team this season. Eddie Salem, promising sophomore, is being groomed to take Gilmer's place, but only time will tell if he can fill the bill. The halfback handles all of the passing for Alabama and if Salem, or any of the other tailback candidates come through, the Tide should be tough when it takes to the air with the top four 1947 ends—Rebel Steiner, Jim Cain, Ed White and Bob Hood—returning.

PUNTING GAME-

Monk Mosley and Harry Gilmer handled all of the Tide's punting last season and both have graduated. For the first time in recent years a back, other than a tailback, may be called on to do the kicking, Quarterbacks Jack Brown and Clarence Avinger and fullbacks "Red" Noonan and Tom Calvin were the top punters in Spring practice and Brown is the best to handle the job this fall.

EXTRA POINT AND KICKOFFS-

Ed Salem is also being groomed to take over Hugh Morrow's place-kicking duties and will probably handle the kickoffs as well. Although just a fair punter, Eddie gets distance and accuracy when kicking from placement. His size 12 pedal extremities have a big order to fill, however, since Morrow converted 127 out of 160 extra-point attempts and booted three field goals during his four-year stand at quarterback.

SAFETY MEN-

The left halfback, or tailback in the Alabama system, usually handles the safety duties. When a punt is almost certain, a double-safety, with both halfbacks, back, is often employed.

TULANE SONGS

ALMA MATER

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater! Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully; The incense of thy spirit hath ascended And filled America from sea to sea!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater! Today thy children look to thee for bread! Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!

The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater! The vista of its glory gleameth far! We shall ever be part of thee, great Mother! There thou will be where e'er thy children are!

Chorus

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee. Pledge we now our fealty true. Where the trees are ever greenest, Where the skies are purest blue. Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us. As we proudly sing to thee! Take from us our heart's devotion! Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ROLL ON, TULANE

Here's a song for the Olive and the Blue.
Here's a cheer for the team that's tried and true.
Here a pledge of loyalty to thee,
Oh, Tulane Varsity.
Here's to the Greenbacks that never will say die,
And here's to the hearts that are true
To the men of Tulane, who are fighting for her name,
For the Olive and the Blue.

Chorus

Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field.
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we give a cheer.
Hail Green Wave,
For you we have no fear.
So ev'ry man in ev'ry play,
And then we'll win that game today.
Hurrah for Old Tulane.

TULANE FIGHT SONG

Green Wave, Green Wave, Hats off to thee, Fight, fight, fight for our victory Shouts to the skies The Green Wave war cry. The bravest we'll defy. Hold that line for Olive and Blue We will cheer for you. So fight, fight, Old Green Wave Right on to victory.

PIGSKIN ROUNDUP

Georgia Tech vs. Vanderbilt—Rough sailing for the Commodores in a Tech tornado. Quarterbacks Dodd, Southard, et al.

Mississippi State vs. Tennessee—A battle of gargantuan monsters. With misgivings, a nod to the student (McKeen) over his tutor (Neyland).

Ole Miss vs. Florida—Johnny Vaught joins the rank of "T" exponents and meets his first test. Up and coming Florida hasn't come far enough.

Minnesota vs. Washington — The Gophers won't have to dig very deep to get this one.

Yale vs. Brown-The elite Eli.

Michigan vs. Michigan State — Same old Michigan but under a new rein. No change in system. No change in outcome. Michigan.

Notre Dame vs. Purdue — Barry Fitzgerald will be happy.

Columbia vs. Rutgers-And so will "Ike".

GEORGIA vs. Chattanooga—Loud moanings from Athens indicate the Bulldogs will be rough. This won't even be a warmup.

Wisconsin vs. Indiana — Clyde Smith steps into the vacated shoes of Bo McMillin. He'll probably be able to get both feet in one shoe. Wisconsin.

Army vs. Villanova-Salute the cadets.

Duke vs. North Carolina State—From the land of many smokes, only a Devil could ensue.

North Carolina vs. Texas—A Tar Heel would be to slow to corral this herd. Texas.

OFF THE ARM — Kentucky easily over Xavier; Illinois to sweep Kansas State; Iowa to lick Marquette; Northwestern to stop U.C. L.A.; Ohio State over Missouri; Navy to sink before California; Stanford to bump Oregon; Southern California to top Oregon State; Boston College over Wake Forest; Southern Methodist to walk over Pittsburgh; Arkansas to bruise East Texas State; Tulsa to trip Baylor; Texas A. and M. over Texas Tech; T.C.U. over Oklahoma A. and M.; Nebraska to humble Iowa State; Oklahoma to beat Santa Clara.
