WHAT HO!

Ladees and Gentulmen! On next Saturday afternoon on the ramparts of historic Montgomery the gallant Auburn Plainsmen will go Gertrude Ederle one—they'll try to swim the Green Wave.

The Wave, collectively a tidal wash from the Gulf region, but individually 35 or 36 young men dressed in green jersies with headgear to match, will be all churned up to storm proportions.

The tidal Wave will be transported to Montgomery by rail Thursday night and will be kept bottled until Saturday afternoon early when the arch enemy of football levee construction, Bernie Bierman, will open the flood gates.

Now ain't that metaphor? Mixed-

Well, we could go on and tell you that on the following Saturday, the Green Wave will lock horns with the Georgia Bulldogs but we are afraid you would shoot before you saw the white of the enemy eyes.

Just imagine a Wave and Bulldog locking horns.

Anyway, the eyes of the South will be on Montgomery next Saturday afternoon where two fine football teams will be battling with everything they posses and with the greatest crowd in the football history of the Old Alabama capital whooping it up.

It may be pointed out that Auburn played Florida last Saturday without two of the three leading Plainsmen backs getting into the game. The two missing were Hatfield and Brown. Hitchcock, the other ace, was in the game only at intervals but he led two touchdown marches.

Moreover, in comparison, let it be remembered that Auburn gained as much ground against Georgia Tech as Tulane accumulate... against the same Tornado.

So, before the talk of the Georgia game being the "key" battle, the Greenies must not overlook Auburn.

And they can't overlook those Louisiana State Tigers.

Or Sewanee Tigers.

Or Washington State Cougars.

Mates, it is a deep, dark forest—a jungle, that the Wave must beware. . . Pardon us but were we talking about a Wave?

Upper left, Dick Bankston, big tackle, who has come forward this season as one of the mainstays of the big Green line. Lower right, Doyle Magee, another Greenie, who may be expected to go well today—or any day.

WITH THE SPORTS WRITERS

"Dalrymple Has Only One Fault"

"Jerry Dalrymple, Tulane's All-American end, has only one fault. It is not his lack of speed in getting down the field under punts. Neither is it poor technique in blocking or catching forward passes.

"The simple truth is that Jerry snores something terrible, and except for a couple of annoyed young co-eds, his one weakness might never have been revealed.

"These young ladies occupied a lower on Tulane's special train, returning to New Orleans from Nashville last week. They were disturbed by a rasping sound from the upper berth. They pounded on it with their shoes, but the snoring continued.

"Next morning they investigated and intended bawling out the snorer who had so rudely disturbed their sleep. When they discovered he was none other than Mr. Dalrymple they quite readily forgave him."

—Jimmy Burns, The Atlanta Georgian.

DILLON GRAHAM SAYS'

"Tulane University, with three conference victories, is well on the way to a third successive Southern Conference football championship.

"The Green Wave from New Orleans, gathering momentum each week, swept over Georgia Tech 33 to 0, Saturday, as the other cofavorites, Tennessee and Georgia, were winning close games from North Carolina and Vanderbilt."

—Dillon Graham, Southern Sports Editor, The Associated Press.

BLINKEY HORN-

"If Georgia isn't pondering over the turbulent task ahead when it battles the Greenbacks the Bulldogs are making a serious blunder. I'm sure these Athens skippers are right perplexed about Tulane.

"Night before the Georgia—Vandy warfare, I buzzed with Harry Mehre, the Bulldog boss.

"After we get over Vanderbilt, we'll take New York University in 'our stride' and then go after those fellows at Tulane," said Mehre. 'We won't bear down so much for N. Y. U., but will for Tulane'."

> —Blinkey Horn, Sports Editor, The Nashville Tennessean.

NOVEMBER 14, 1931

I'll go where you want me to go, dear love, I'll be what you want me to be,

I'll do what you want me to do, dear love, I'll see what you want me to see;

But listen, dear love, get this in your bean, And don't forget to remember,

I'll be in old Athens, and nowhere else but On the fourteenth of this November.

I don't care what's scheduled to happen elsewhere

Or whether there's sunshine or rain,

Or snow storm or hurricane, I will be where Old Georgia is meeting Tulane;

In vain you may urge me to go somewhere else, To some other setting or scene,

But Papa's old eyes will be glued to the spot Where the Bulldogs are battling the Green.

Storm Warning Out for Green Wave---Burns

By JIMMY BURNS

Associate Sports Editor Atlanta Georgian

It is an old fashioned custom for sport writers to climax each football season by picking an all-star eleven from the players they have seen in action. It is a hard task, and after seeing Tulane rout Georgia Tech the afternoon of October 24, I am confident the selection of all-stars could be simplified by merely picking Coach Bernie Beirman's first team.

Of course, that is impossible, but when the final check is made I am sure you will find several of those Greenies adorning all-star teams. No mythical eleven would be complete without Jerry Dalrymple at one end position, nor minus Don Zimmerman at a halfback post. They are two of the greatest football players I have seen in twelve seasons of reporting football games.

Dalrymple is a wizard. He is as sterling a performer in football, as Bobby Jones was in competitive golf. I have heard numerous, and conflicting explanations of how he figures out plays in advance, but I have never heard any one dispute the rather obvious fact that he is one of the greatest ends in the country.

It would have warmed the hearts of Tulane fans to have overheard the conversation in Coach Bill Alexander's drawing room, on the return trip to Atlanta after the Tech-Tulane game. Jack Cannon, former Notre Dame star, was lavish in his praise of the Green line. He compared it favorably with some of Notre Dame's famous rush sections.

Captain Robinson, Tech end coach, openly declared Dalrymple was the greatest flankmen he ever saw; "Chick" Shiver, Georgia coach who scouted Tulane for the Bulldogs, expressed his opinion of the Greenies, with the simple declaration he feared they would be too strong for Georgia.

Then Coach Alex climaxed the discussion with the frank admission he believes Tulane is stronger than in 1930. The Atlanta sport writers, who covered the game agreed with the Tech coach.

Another tribute to Tulane is the fact storm warnings are flying at Athens. They herald the approach of the mighty Green Wave, and more than 30,000 are expected to be in Sanford Stadium the afternoon of November 14 to see if Georgia can withstand the mighty surges of that powerful football team.

Naturally I hope for a Georgia victory, but I fear the worst. Yet there is always the consolation of knowing there is no shame, nor humiliation, in losing to a team as powerful, fast, and resourceful as the one that Coach Bernie Bierman now has blazing its fame across the National gridiron horizon.

HOTELS of the Dinkler Chain

From the tradition of the Old South, glows the flame of fellowship and hospitality that takes worldly praise and an envious place in the hearts of all who visit this section-

The upbuilding of superlative hotel accommodations is a natural consequence, having taken its ideals from the famous Wayside Inn. and the comfortable hostelry of the Colonial Days-

Even in this field of Southern Leadership, Dinkler Hotels mark four places of outstanding predominance. They are established with the aim of convenience to travelers, and are located in the leading commercial, industrial and railway centers of the South

And in Atlanta, Birmingham, Nashville and Montgomery can be found the outstanding features which experienced travelers recognize as being distinctly Dinkler organization. Private bath and radio in all rooms, convenientgarage connections, excellent cuisine in dining rooms and coffee shoppes at each

Make Dinkler Hotels your home.

ALMA MATER

Sing these words as Tulane's Alma Mater is played

I

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

П

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!

Today thy Children look to thee for bread!

Thou leadest them to dreams and actions splendid!

The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

111

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!

The vista of its glory gleameth far!

We ever shall be part of thee, great Mother!

There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee! Pledge we now our fealty true Where the trees are ever greenest, Where the skies are purest blue! Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us! As we proudly sing to thee! Take from us our hearts' devotion! Thine we are, and thine shall be!

"Hot air" roasting preserves its distinctive aroma and brings out its fresh, full flavor. Ask your grocer for the yellow tin.
