THE brilliant, breathless "get-away" of a star back brings the crowd to its feet by a common impulse.

Equally natural and spontaneous is the response of smokers to Chesterfield's satisfying goodness, its wholesome smoothness.

No one ever has to "acquire" a taste for Chesterfield.

Smokers take to its pleasing flavor instinctively.

... And here's why: Chesterfield takes the sure, undeviating course to the one goal that counts in a cigarette — fragrant mildness and a ripened richness, without a hint of harshness or irritation. In short

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE GAMES TODAY

While the clash between Tulane's glamorous Green Wave and the Panthers of Birmingham-Southern takes the spotlight in New Orleans today, there are a number of other interesting games set for Southern Conference teams.

Georgia's battle with the strong North Carolina Tarheels at Athens undoubtedly takes first attention. The Bulldogs, unbeaten and conqueror of Yale, will be meeting a likewise undefeated team of Carolina in a battle that will have much effect on the conference title race.

Alabama and Tennessee at Tuscaloosa also will claim considerable attention in their game. Other games in which conference teams participate:

Vanderbilt vs. Spring Hill; Sewanee vs. Ole Miss.; North Carolina State vs. Wake Forest; L. S. U. vs. Miss. A. & M.; Maryland vs. St. John; Kentucky vs. Washington and Lee; Georgia Tech vs. Auburn; Florida vs. Chicago; Duke vs. Navy; Clemson vs. Newberry; Virginia vs. V. M. I.; V. P. I. vs. William and Mary.

Of this card, Louisiana State and Mississippi A. & M., will bring plenty of interest at New Orleans as both teams play here later in the season while the situation is almost parallel in the Auburn-Georgia Tech game as the Green Wave also meets both of these teams.

When Brains Count!

In designing a good motor oil and motor fuel, brains count—just as in football. "Standard" Engineers in the largest petroleum research laboratory in the industry often go into a "huddle". That's one of the reasons why more motorists in this territory use "Standard" than any other brand.

SUPPORTING THE WAVE

By HARRY MARTINEZ

Sports Editor, New Orleans States

The success of football at any university depends a great deal upon the loyalty of its students, its alumni and its following built up in the community in which it exists. Without the whole hearted support from each source, a great deal of the spectacle is taken away from the game, regardless of how strong a team the university might have.

Tulane, after the wholesale loss of such outstanding men in the Southern Conference as Dick Baumbach, Ike Armstrong, Bill Banker, Ford Seeuws and Jack Pizzano, was thought to have lost her scoring power and the punch needed to go with great line. But the game with the Texas Aggies proved that the punch was there and that by the time the old Green Wave lines up for the kickoff with Georgia, Bernie Bierman's backs will be hitting on all four.

What is needed to make the Tulane-Georgia game in Tulane's magnificent stadium November 15, the football spectacle of the year, is a hundred percent support of her following. The stage is set for a game which might decide the championship of the South. Dr. Wilbur C. Smith, Tulane's athletic director, could not have scheduled a better game at a better time. Georgia established beyond all doubt that she has a great team by her sensational victory over Yale.

There will be football writers from all over the South in New Orleans for the Tulane-Georgia game. Wouldn't it be a great thing for these writers to broadcast to the world Tulane's stadium was crowded to capacity? You can put New Orleans on the football map and make the big conference teams want to come here to play by supporting a game which any big Southern city would be willing to take at any price.

A Word For The Coaches

By Charles L. Dufour
Those who have been hanging around football stadia for some years know the old gridiron maxim: "No team ever lost a game and no coach ever won one."

That's just another way of saying that when a team wins it does so in spite of its coach and when it loses it's the coach's fault.

Bernie Bierman and his capable corps of assistants need no apologists. They have done remarkable work at Tulane; the Greenies have been winning; and the alumni are happy.

But it wouldn't take much misfortune to make all the fair weather friends in the Wave camp fall off the band wagon and howl for Bernie's scalp.

A football coach is an unfortunate fellow in many respects. He seldom knows on losing Sat-alumni, mostly sub-surface, but often there just the same, for the coaches.

As long as things go well, the hostility doesn't creep out. When things go poorly, the man hunt begins.

This is a gratuitous plea for the Tulane coaches to be spared the unthinking criticism of the 50 yard line morons, who don't want anything but victories, victories, victories.

Tulane has three tough games left on its schedule—Georgia Tech, Georgia and L. S. U. To our mind the Greenies are going to win 'em all, for we think Tulane is a great football team.

But if they don't win 'em all it's not a calamity, and no one should be hung and quartered if disaster does come the Wave's way.

However, whatever we can say about it, won't alter the situation. Even Napoleon was recalled by an angry alumni.

perts put him next to it.

This condition is the worst that exists in football today—the hostility of the Hail, Panthers!

Tulane meets a game foe today and one that has made a great record. So let's give Jenks Gillem and the Birmingham-Southern team a big hand!

In three games played to date, the Panthers have had only two first downs tolled against them. They have scored 106 points to none for their opponents.

The scores have been:

Panthers 7;
Auburn 0
Panthers 49;
Marion 0
Panthers 50;

This record deserves commendation and Tulane may well fight today.

Jenks Gillem, the Southern coach, played his football at Sewanee back in the middle ages of American football. He was a great punter and a great all-around gridder and he has inculcated his knowledge well into the Panther machine.

Carey Robinson, athletic director at Birmingham - Southern, played his football at Auburn and his name will live long in the Village of the Plains.

Pedro Black, Norman Pilgreen, Harold James and other Panther stars will bear watching this afternoon.
