Official Souvenir Football Program of Tulane University, Published for Each Home Game.

National Advertising Representative, Football Publications, 370 Lexington, New York City.

After playing its opening game away from home for the first time in the history of Tulane football, the Green Wave with its new coach, Claude "Little Monk" Simons, Jr., faces the tough Auburn Tigers.

* * *

Tulane and Auburn meet for the 23rd time today. The Wave holds the upper hand with nine triumphs and seven defeats. There have been six ties, four of them scoreless.

* * *

Auburn plays an eleven game schedule this fall and does not play a home game until the last day of the season when the Tigers entertain Clemson.

* * *

Tulane and Auburn first played in 1902 and the game ended, 0-0. Other scoreless ties were played in 1936, 1937 and 1938.

* * *

Members of the Southeastern Conference, Tulane and Auburn, can use freshmen in today's tussle. The rule which allowed freshmen to play in the SEC was passed two weeks ago.

* * *

Tulane led the nation's intercollegiate parade last year in running back opponents' kick-offs. The Greenies ran 19 kick-offs back for 610 yards, an average of 32.11 a return.

* * *

The estimated 45,000 that saw Tulane and Southern Cal last Saturday at Los Angeles was the largest turnout in the country on the opening Saturday of the season.

* * *

All of the 31 Tulane players who made the Southern Cal trip participated in the game.

* * *

Jess Neely brings his Rice Owls here next Saturday to oppose the Greenies.

THE MAN ON A STRAP

Were sorry you were crowded but these days you know there are more people than ever before who depend on the street cars and buses to take them where they want to go.

Staggered working hours will help a lot to spread rush hour travel. Other changes, too, may be necessary as more people turn to public transportation.

Transit is a war industry . . . to keep it rolling is everyone's concern.

Here's how you can help:

Have the exact fare ready.

Move away from the entrance of street cars or buses to avoid congestion or delay.

Don't overcrowd vehicles — wait for the next one.

Avoid rush hours whenever possible. Try to arrange shopping, recreation and social calls at other than peak periods.

ALABAMA-Mississippi State—Two conference giants tangle, a vote for the Tide.

Arkansas-T. C. U.—The Frogs came from behind to beat U. C. L. A., and are too strong for the Razorbacks.

ARMY-Lafayette — The Cadets should have little trouble here.

CALIFORNIA-Oregon State—The Coast favorite gets a shaky nod over the Rose Bowl Champs.

CORNELL-Colgate—The Big Red is too strong for Andy Kerr's boys.

DARTMOUTH-Miami (Ohio) — An easy win for the Indians of Hanover.

DUKE-Davidson—Not as strong as in the past, but good enough to win this one.

FORDHAM-Tennessee — Fordham is always good and the Vols are not as strong as in the past. The Rams to Ramble.

GEORGIA-Furnam—After being held to two touchdowns a game by its first two opponents, Sinkwich and company will run wild.

Ga. Tech-NOTRE DAME—The Rambling Wreck pulled a surprise last week, but the Irish will be back with fire in their eyes after a disappointing opener.

Ohio State-INDIANA — Bill Hilderbrand and a strong Hoosier team will be too much for the Buckeyes.

L. S. U.-Rice — The Bengals are going strong and the Owls are not as strong as last year. The Owls are in for a rough afternoon.

Camp Lee-MARYLAND — A vote for the master of the T—Clark Shaughnessy.

JACKSONVILLE NAV. CADETS-Miami —The Cadets are too strong to lose to Miami.

MICHIGAN-Mich. State — The usually strong Wolverines are strong again and should win with ease.

Minn.-IOWA CADETS — Picking anyone over the Gophers seems odd. It's a case of the teacher outsmarting the student. A shaky vote for Bernie Bierman's Cadets over his former team.

Northwestern-TEXAS — The Longhorns are rolling along and will win in a wild scoring affair.

PENN-Harvard—The Quakers are set for another Ivy league championship and Harvard can't stop them.

SHORT PUNTS

Tulane's Green Wave meets teams from three conferences in addition to five Southeastern Conference opponents and a Service team this fall.

Southern Cal, of the Pacific Conference, was No. 1. Next Saturday, the Rice Owls of the Southwest Conference come to the Wave stadium.

This series between the Wave and Owls has been a spirited one. Tulane upset the dope to win in 1940, lost in a reversal last season at Houston, 9 to 10.

Coached by Jess Neely, the former Clemson coach who made the going rough for Tulane in a three game series, the Wave won two of them, is at the helm in his second year with the Owls.

Coach "Little Monk" will be opposing Jess for the first time Saturday.

* * *

The Greenies close their inter-conference competition for the season here on October 24 with North Carolina's Tar Heels of the Southern Conference.

In the past years Coach "Bear" Wolf has led the Tar Heels in this series with Tulane. This year "Bear" is the coach of the Georgia Pre-flight team of Athens, Ga., which plays here on November 14. His team now boasts several Greenies who opposed his Carolinians including Ernie Blandin, Johnny Sims and Gordon English.

Jim Tatum, a Wolf assistant at Chapel Hill, now heads the Carolina coaching staff.
