RENEWED FEUD

The Auburn Tigers and the Tulane Green Wave meet today in a Southeastern Conference football battle which, if it follows its predecessors, will produce more than its quota of hard play and scoring thrills.

Today's engagement marks the 28th meeting of Auburn and Tulane gridiron representatives in a series which had its inception back in 1902.

Since that time, the Green Wave has managed to maintain a slim margin in the victory column. At this point, Tulane has run up 11 conquests to 10 for the Auburnites while an unusual large number, six, have been fought to a deadlock. And four of these games were scoreless which will serve as an indication of the spirited play the two teams save for this traditional battle.

Auburn, coached by Carl Voyles, this season again has one of the top offensive performers on the football scene. He is Sophomore Travis Tidwell, who last season led the nation in combined rushing and passing gains, which is no small feat. Tidwell, however, will not appear in the starting lineup for the Tigers nor will he play most of the game.

Hurt last spring playing baseball for the Tigers, Tidwell's ankle has never quite healed. So his play will be in particularly opportune spots for the Auburn cause and, of necessity, will be brief since he still wears braces. Despite this handicap, it has been the passing of Tidwell which has netted the Auburn eleven the success it has already met in reaching paydirt. It was thus when the Plainsmen defeated Florida and when they scored the first touchdown of the season against the potent Georgia Tech team.

Offensively Tulane came into its own in the third period of last week's battle with Ole Miss. The Green Wave's spread formations, accurate passing and its deceptive reverses netted a pair of quick touchdowns against the favored Rebels. The Wavemen will attempt to capitalize on these same assets when they meet the Tigers today.

Jim Keeton and Bennie Ellender will be plotting the thrusts toward the Auburn goal line while Don Fortier, Johnny Cam-pora, Eddie Price and Ray Prats will attempt to execute the maneuvers designed to pay off in touchdowns.

STREET CAR or TROLLEY COACH

Come on Team of Football Fans! It's time for a little skull practice. This isn't a trick play diagramed. It's just a bit of coachin' in how to get to the stadium the easy way . . . by Street Car or Trolley Coach.

No gear-shifting game of stop and start driving for the street car or bus rider. No parking problems either—and no need for that mad dash before the game's over to make a quick getaway. In street cars and coaches you ride relaxed, free from the wear and tear of driving through heavy traffic.

When your "goal to go" is the Tulane Stadium, don't buck the line of snail-pace drivers . . . Go By Street Car or Trolley Coach. The South Claiborne car, the Freret and the Broadway Trolley Coaches take you to the stadium and home again in comfort.

It's Delicious

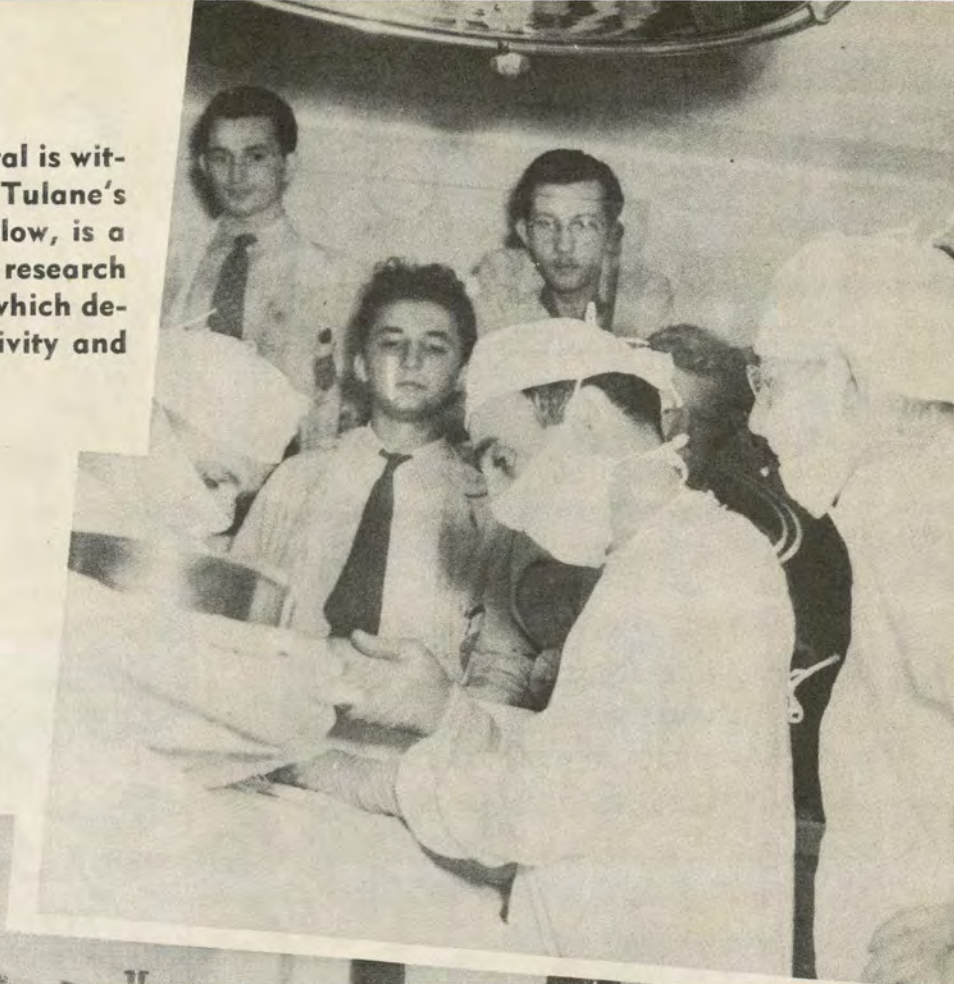

It's Nutritious

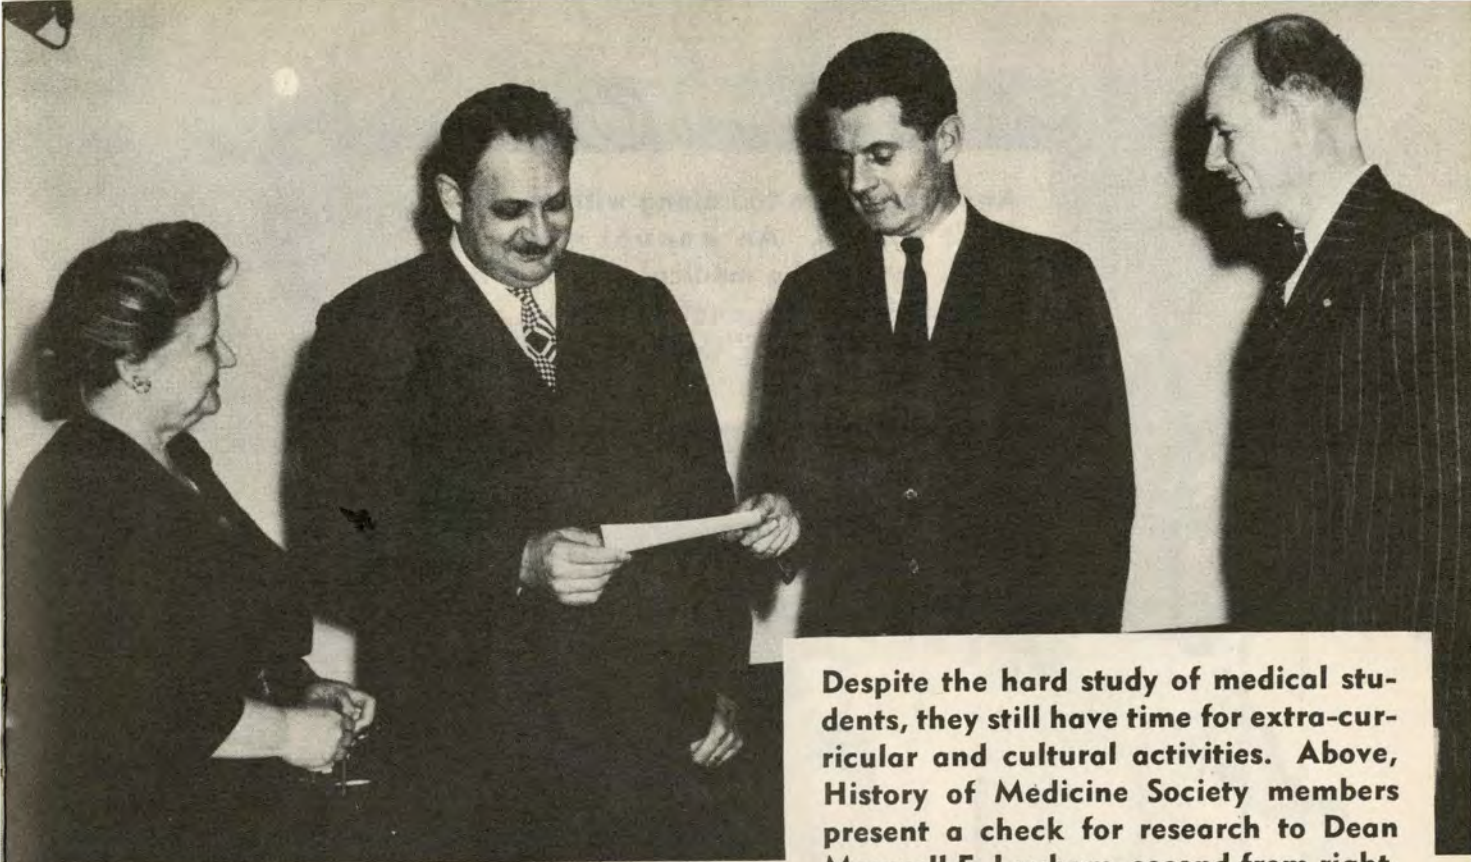

With a classmember as "patient" traction methods and application of splints are demonstrated to a group of students, above. A study in blood samples is discussed in the nutritional and metabolic clinic, below.

An operation at Charity Hospital is witnessed from the balcony by Tulane's doctors-in-training, above. Below, is a Geiger counter used in atomic research at the Tulane medical school, which detects the presence of radioactivity and measures its intensity.

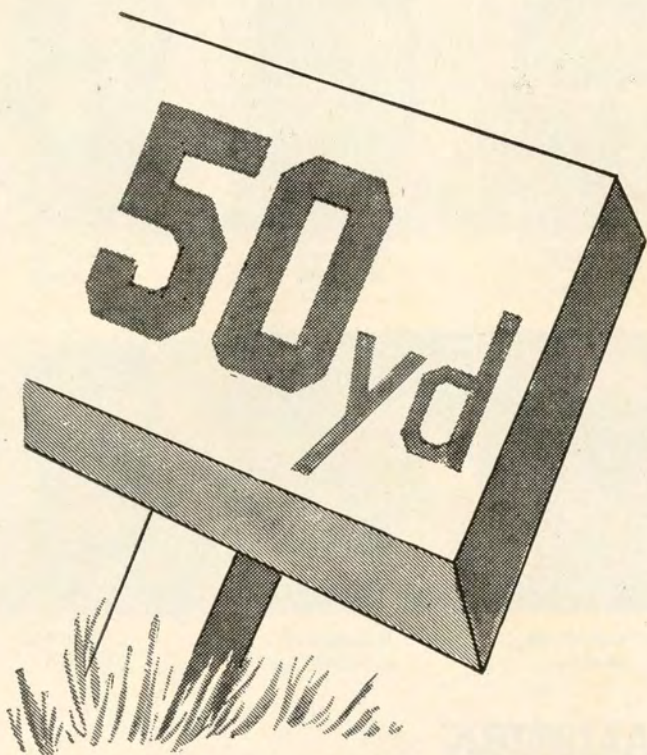

Despite the hard study of medical students, they still have time for extra-curricular and cultural activities. Above, History of Medicine Society members present a check for research to Dean Maxwell E. Lapham, second from right. Below, the traditional sprig of ivy is planted in Ivy Day ceremonies which first were held in 1909.

And there's fun too along with the difficult courses. An annual event of much note in the medical school is the end of freshman anatomy when with much hi-jinks the "Cadaver Dance" is held.

PIGSKIN ROUNDUP

Rice vs Texas—Herein passmasters Bobby Layne and Virgil Eikenberg will attempt to run each other out of the ball park. In a battle as wide open as the Texas plains, Texas.

California vs Southern California—Two unbeaten teams in what should be a titanic tussle. Since 'all good things must come to an end', as the saying goes, this is the end of the line for Waldorf's wonders. Southern Cal.

Michigan vs Minnesota—The Gophers went into a hole last week. They'll be even farther under the heap this time out. Michigan.

S.M.U. vs U.C.L.A.—An alphabetical battle of major proportions. Since 'S' comes before 'U', S.M.U.

Georgia vs Alabama—Rauch to make the Tidemen scream "ouch." Georgia.

L.S.U. vs Vanderbilt—An offense-minded Tiger to point out the disadvantages of the defensive Vandy viewpoint. L.S.U.

Illinois vs Purdue—The Illini proved their prowess against Minnesota. They'll continue to dish out the same sort of stewings. From the gridmenu, Illinois.

Wake Forest vs Duke—The unbeaten Deacons to provide another field day for Tom Fet-zer at the expense of the Blue Devils. Wake Forest.

Notre Dame vs Iowa—The Hawkeyes will get an eyeful. But it won't be exactly pleasant. Notre Dame.

Kentucky vs Michigan State—The boys from the Blue Grass have twice upset the dope. This time they 'should' win—Kentucky.

Army vs Columbia—Rip Rowan and Co. to lash the Lions. Army.

North Carolina vs Florida—A disappointing Tar Heel crew should nonetheless overcome the 'Gators. North Carolina.

T.C.U. vs Oklahoma—The Horned Frogs to outdo the Sooners. By a frog's length, T.C.U.

Pennsylvania vs Navy—Navy finally won one. But they won't win another this time. The rootin', tootin' Quakers to outblast the Navy big guns. Penn.

Close-Calls—Ohio State over Pittsburgh; Washington over Stanford; Georgia Tech over Citadel; Ole Miss over Arkansas; Texas A. & M. over Baylor; Penn State over West Virginia.

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully;
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadeest them to dreams and actions splendid!
The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We shall ever be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou will be where e'er thy children are!

Chorus

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee.
Pledge we now our fealty true.
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue.
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us.
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our hearts' devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ROLL ON, TULANE

Here's a song for the Olive and the Blue.
Here's a cheer for the team that's tried and true.
Here a pledge of loyalty to thee,
Oh, Tulane Varsity.
Here's to the Greenbacks that never will say die,
And here's to the hearts that are true
To the men of Tulane, who are fighting for her name,
For the Olive and the Blue.

Chorus

Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field.
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we give a cheer.
Hail Green Wave,
For you we have no fear.
So ev'ry man in ev'ry play,
And then we'll win that game today.
Hurrah for Old Tulane.

TULANE FIGHT SONG

Green Wave, Green Wave,
Hats off to thee,
Fight, fight, fight for our victory
Shout to the skies
The Green Wave war cry.
The bravest we'll defy.
Hold that line for Olive and Blue
We will cheer for you.
So fight, fight, Old Green Wave
Right on to victory.
