TODAY'S GAME

This is G-Day for Tulane's Green Wave ... G for Georgia and perhaps Gee Whiz for the action anticipated.

It is the day for a fresh season, the debut of "Bear" Wolf the Bold as Tulane head coach, the entrance of a trim new team. Also, however, it is time for the first collision with Georgia in a decade and the formidable presence of the Men of Athens could shadow out the sun for the Greenies.

If the Wave is to win, it probably will have to do it fast. More precisely, Tulane may need all its speed to overbalance a lack of depth and knockdown power. Fronting the attack it has such swifties as Lester Kennedy (47), Ray Weidenbacher (45), and Max McGee (35). Pete Clement (17) and Fred Dempsey (12) handle the "T" tiller at quarterback, with W. C. McElhannon (85) the most active of their pass receivers.

But how about the defense, which is physically able and spirited but none too deep?

Georgia should give an answer promptly.

In Zeke Bratkowski (12), Coach Wally Butts' Bulldogs have probably the most feared thrower in the country. He is an All-American candidate on the hoof, as is his friend at end, Harry Babcock (56). Connie Manisera (22), Charley Madison (39), Fred Bilyeu (42) and chums give resounding authority to the ground-grinding.

Like Tulane, Georgia's principal problem is its line—although you might not notice it on first glance at either wall. The Bulldog ends are among the best in the Southeastern Conference. Center Derwent Langley (44) and Guard and Alternate Captain Frank Salerno (79) anchor the questionable middle.

After sitting in on the Georgia-Vanderbilt tussle last week, Tulane coaches knew that such stalwarts of their own as Captain and Tackle Jimmy Johnston (72), Guards Al Robelot (62) and Alternate

© TULANE UNIVERSITY 1952

The Tulane campus this summer was turned into a summer day camp for boys, with a full program of activities on tap each Wednesday for the 50 campers. Here Camp Director Einar Pederson calls the roll. On the following pages the Campix photographer catches more campers at play.

Catcher Walter Blessey thwarts Winn Stanton's attempted steal home. Umpire Petter Lindstedt, camp counselor, doesn't even bother to call this obvious out.

Tommy Eves has hopes of making New York Yankee fans forget Joe DiMaggio as Catcher Leif Pederson calls for a strike. Gary Ault and Lyn Brasette wait their turn at bat.

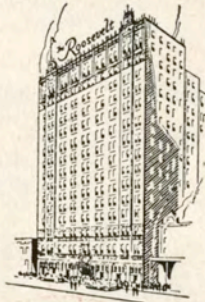

Here a quintet of small fry Tulanians try the old swimming hole style of diving (above) and an informal race across the pool (below).

Camp Counsellor James Mann starts a quartet off on an orthodox swimming race.

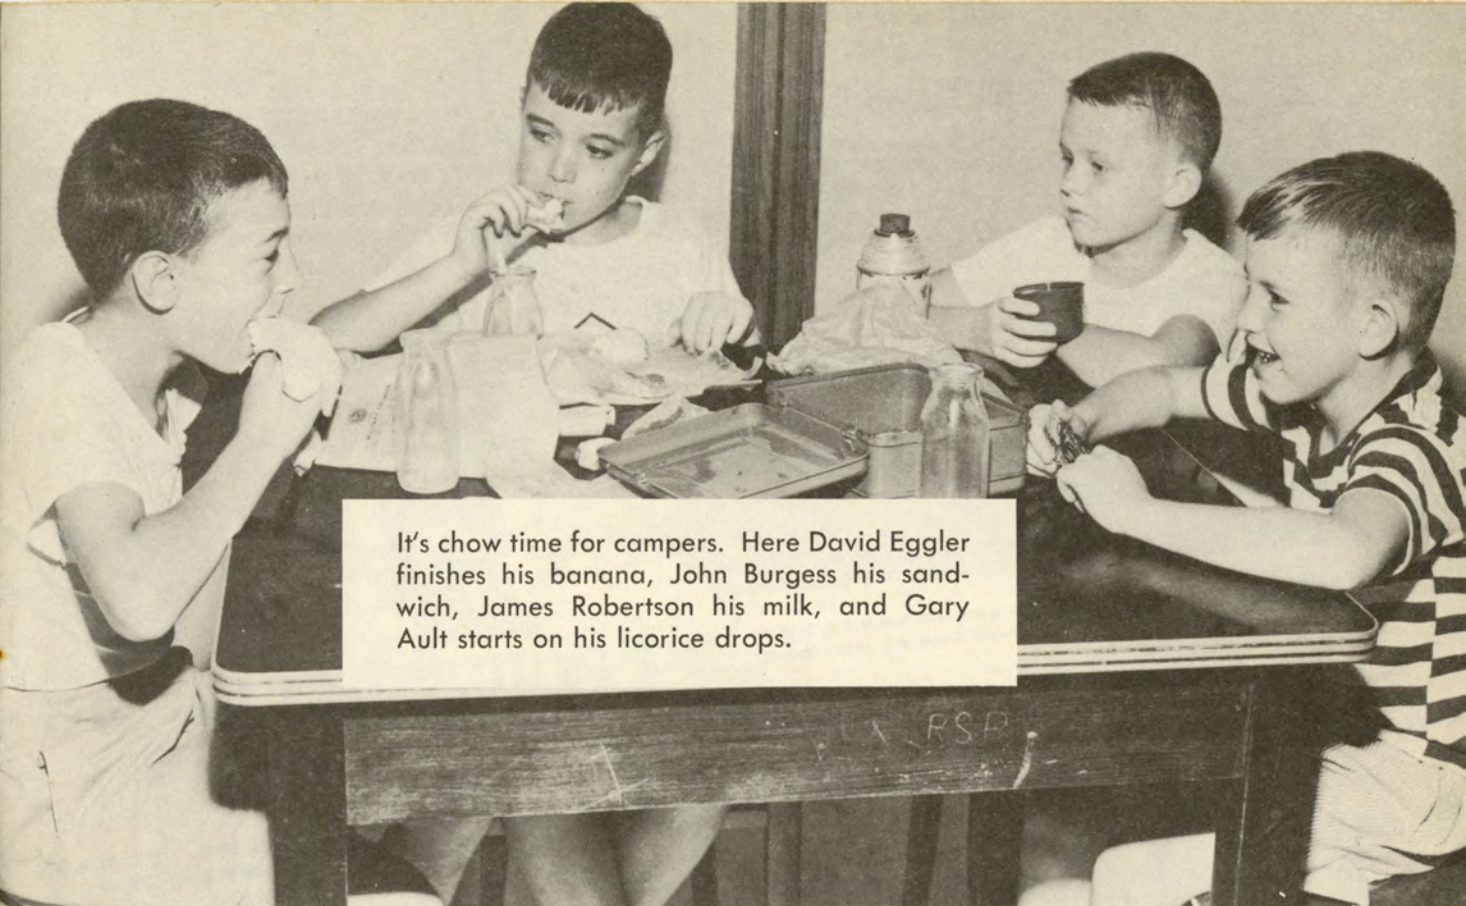

Not all sports were indoor sports at the camp. Here Edward St. Martin jumps one of Billy Kurz' men while Colden Jones and Mrs. Elizabeth D. Chipley of the Tulane student center camp kibitz.

An educational movie holds the attention of the campers in the auditorium of Alcee Fortier Hall. The campers were sons of Tulane faculty and staff members and Tulane students.

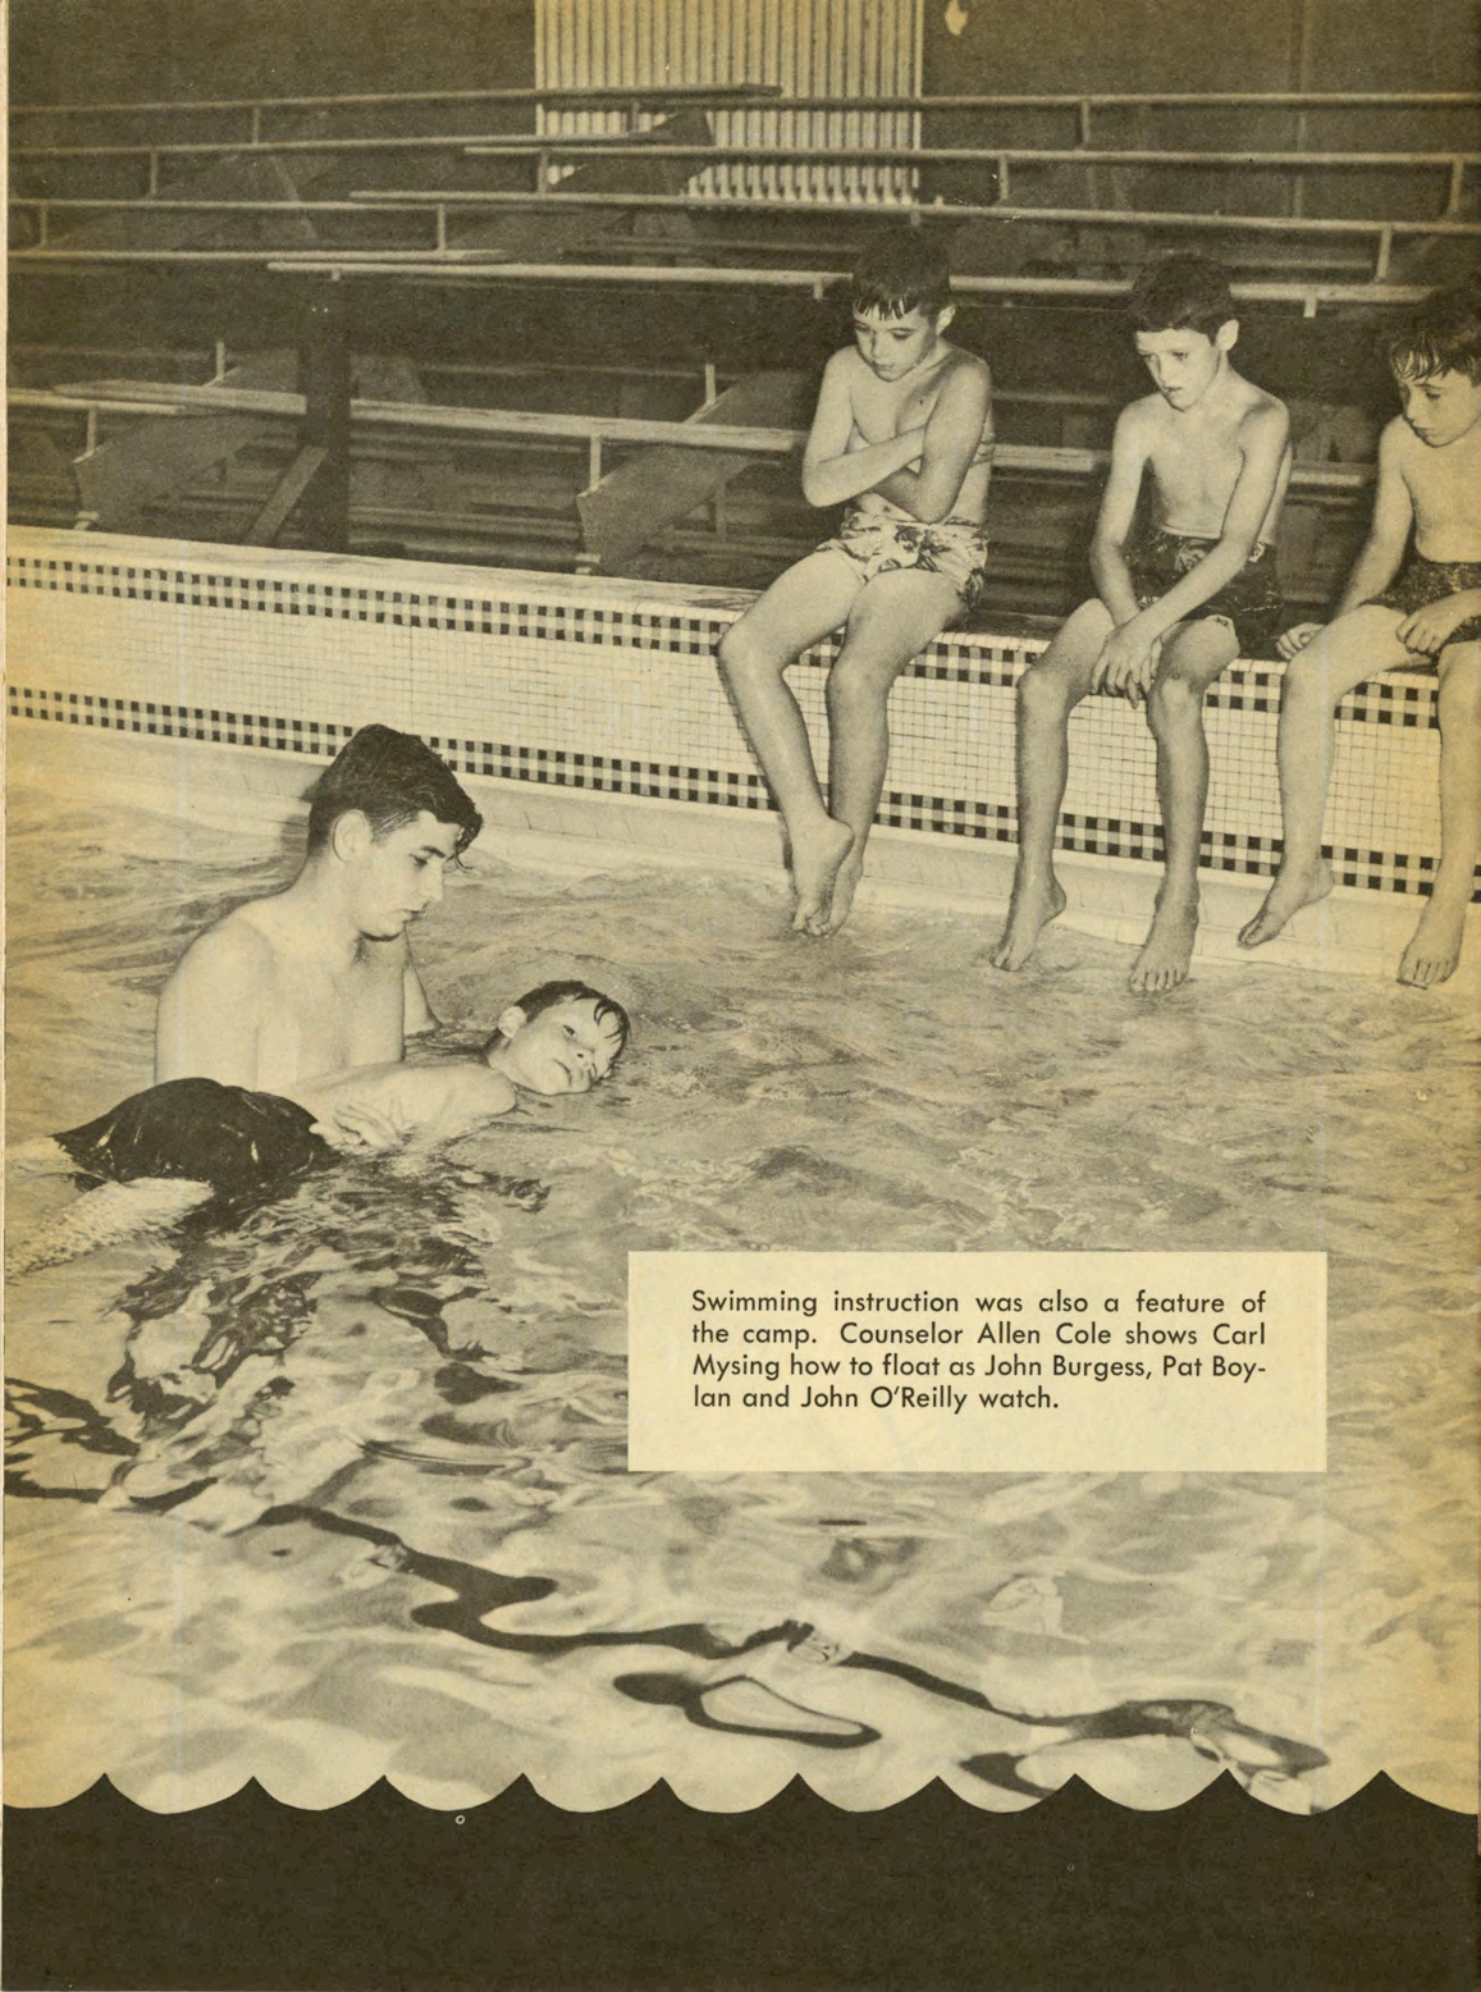

It's chow time for campers. Here David Egger finishes his banana, John Burgess his sandwich, James Robertson his milk, and Gary Ault starts on his licorice drops.

Time out for TV. By the look of the boys' expression, it's a good bet that there's a cowboy telecast on the screen.

Swimming instruction was also a feature of the camp. Counselor Allen Cole shows Carl Mysing how to float as John Burgess, Pat Boylan and John O'Reilly watch.

Captain Bobby Nuss (63) would be in for a heavy Saturday. Much will depend on the linebackers, the pass defenders—and the men seeing extensive varsity action for the first time.

The winner of today's game will go ahead in the series, which currently is tied at seven wins and one tie. Georgia won that last meeting in 1942 by a thumping 40-0. Today the scoreboard's moving figures to be a little more varied. Unaccustomed to the Conference cellar, where it finished last year for the first time in history, Tulane has definite plan to vacate.

This is a big one for the Greenies, but nine more are yet to come. Next Saturday it's Santa Clara, the Pony Boys of the Pacific Coast, visiting New Orleans for the first time since winning the Sugar Bowl Classics of 1936-37. Later Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Vanderbilt, Louisiana College and L.S.U. will be the respected visitors.

All Tulane home games begin at 2:15 p. m. (CST), with no pauses for less than spectacular football scheduled. Not necessarily a team of destiny, the Greenies have quiet confidence in being able to meet the difficult future creditably.

TULANE SONGS

ALMA MATER

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully;
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadest them to dreams and action splendid!
The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We shall ever be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou will be where e'er thy children are!

Chorus

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee.
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue.
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us.
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our heart's devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ROLL ON, TULANE

Here's a song for the Olive and the Blue.
Here's a cheer for the team that's tried and true.
Here a pledge of loyalty to thee,
Oh, Tulane Varsity.
Here's to the Greenbacks that never will say die,
And here's to the hearts that are true
To the men of Tulane, who are fighting for her name,
For the Olive and the Blue.

Chorus

Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field.
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we give a cheer.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we have no fear.
So ev'ry man in ev'ry play,
And then we'll win that game today.
Hurrah for Old Tulane.
