

October 22, 1840

Boston, Oct. 22, 1840.

Lewis Tappan, Esq.

My dear Sir,

I enclose you ten dollars towards the expenses of the Amistad prisoners. I wish I could give more; - for your activity & zeal in this matter, as in many others, really put me to shame. I am thankful that these poor men have so efficient a friend.

Respectfully, Your friend;

Ellis Gray Loring.

(over)

In a $11. J.H.P.

ells stay along
Cayenne
and go into Africa

afforded

yes middle land

late with the

and now about

other single all around with big ones & lion's mane, national

left in early winter

the last year parts well in a black well and will be the most of pieces of sand and sand
which will disappear.

and so will

(cont)

