

I received from the Magistrate D. Juan de Castanedo, Superintendent of Estates of this City, ninety-one pesos and five and one third reales as the salary for eleven months that I have worked since the first of January until the present date, both included, at the rate of one hundred pesos per year that are assigned to me as magistrate, by order of the Cabildo, from its funds and the sale of its properties, and in order that it be vouched for wherever it may be required I give the present receipt, which I sign in the same City of New Orleans on the thirtieth of November of eighteen hundred three.

(Signed) Pedro Denis de La Ronde