

175

Report of the Corporal (Chief) and ten nightwatchmen employed for the Service of this City of New Orleans in the current month, with the salary of twenty pesos for the Corporation and fifteen for each Watchman. To wit:

	Days Worked	Pesos
Corporal Blas Puche	30	20
(Plus names of ten Watchmen, clearly leg- ible, with salary due)
		<hr/> 170

The total of this Report amounts to one hundred seventy pesos in silver. New Orleans, 30 June, 1796.

(Signed) Blas Puche

The one hundred seventy pesos set forth in the foregoing report have been paid by me, D. Juan de Castanedo, Superintendent of Estates of this City, in cash, and by my own hand to the individuals named in it and in the name of all (of them). Corporal Blas Puche signs their receipt, with the authentication of the Constable and Royal Ensign appointed in the present month, D. Andres Almonester y Roxas. New Orleans, thirtieth of June, seventeen hundred ninety-six.

Blas Puche

Juan de Castanedo

Authenticated (certified)

Andres Almonester
y Roxas