

Report that I, D. Andres Almonester y Roxas, Constable and Royal Ensign of this City of New Orleans as Deputy (Commissioner) by the Illustrious Municipal Council for the supervision of Public Provisions in the present month, make of the amount of money produced by the, taxes on beeves purveyed in Butchers' Markets, stalls, tables, and the renting of rooms. To wit:

| No. 10 | Pesos | Reales |
|---|-------|--------|
| First. One hundred forty-eight pesos four reales for three hundred ninety-six beeves at three reales each. | 148. | 4 |
| Item. Nineteen pesos six reales for seventy-nine stalls for the sale of said livestock at two reales each. | 19. | 6 |
| Item. Seventy-one pesos for five hundred seventy-eight tables for the sale of (smaller) livestock at one real each. | 71. | |
| Item. One hundred ninety-five pesos for the rent of twenty-six rooms at seven and one-half pesos per month each. | 195. | |
| | 434. | 2 |

Minor Expenses

| | | |
|---|------|---|
| One peso paid to the Porter Antonio Caperdonio for paper, ink, brooms, and other essentials in the Granary. | 1. | |
| | 433. | 2 |

The total comes to four hundred thirty-four pesos two reales; deducting one peso that is the expense incurred in the Granary, there remain on hand to the credit of the Superintendent of Estates D. Juan Castanedo four hundred thirty-three pesos two reales, as is shown by it (the Report), and in order that it may serve as a credit voucher for the said Superintendent I give the present (statement) in the City of New Orleans on the thirty-first of October, seventeen hundred ninety-five.

(Signed) Andres Almonester
y Roxas