

New Orleans, Jan. 30, 1856.

Succession of John D. Fink

To Dr. William Bertram Dr.

1853. Nov.	To professional services rendered & medicines furnished in a case of enteritis and lithiasis	$450.00
Dec.	To professional services rendered his slave boy aged about ten years, who was suffering from an inflammation of the hand and paronychia, surgical operations performed and medicines furnished	350.00
1854. Feb.	To professional services rendered to a slave woman suffering with a bilious and nervous fever, and medicines furnished	150.00
		<hr/>
		$ 500.00