

Co 901

Boston May 14th 1867

The President of Harvard University,

Dear Sir,

Such Colonel

Haswell C. Clark, one of the alumni of the University, received an appointment upon my personal staff as Volunteer Aid de Camp in December 1861, and accompanied me to New Orleans where he did good service during that Campaign. In November 1863 he received an appointment as Captain a U. S. C. and served during the Campaigns before Richmond in 1863 and 1864. For gallant and meritorious services Capt. Clark had two bars as Major and Lieut. Colonel.

over

This promotion was richly deserved for faithful, gallant and meritorious services

The University may well be proud of his pupil, and rank Col. Clark among those who in the past has done and who in the future will do credit both to his Alma Mater and the Commonwealth

I have the honor to be Very truly yours

Br. S. Butler