In the City I Command.

Words by ARCHER M. HUNTINGTON.

LOW VOICE.

Music by G. FERRATA, Op. 21, No. 4.

Piano.

Copyright, 1906, by J. Fischer & Bro.
British Copyright Secured.
In the dark and in the day, Through each silent secret way,

Runs the thrill of his presence, far and near, In the city I command.

SSub basso..................
In the city I command, Death hath will.

Day by day and hour by hour He is plotting for the power, silent, still. Till one day shall he be crowned In the city I command.

stentatissimo lunga