TULANE UNIVERSITY of LOUISIANA
NEW ORLEANS

FOREWORD

We, the editors of the 1930 Jambalaya, have earnestly worked to present to you, the students of Tulane, a record of events of the past year which, now and later as the years go by, will be of most interest to you—your classmates, your champion football team, your class rivalries, and scenes around the campus.

We hope that our efforts toward this end will be acceptable to you.

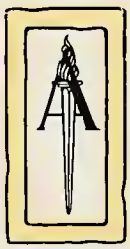
Theme Explanation



S the subject for the decorative theme in our book we have used those incidents from the history of our state which we regard as most fitting for the division pages. ¶ ¶ First, we have the Indian in his native land undisturbed by the White Man, and then the coming of De Soto, the first person, other than an Indian, to view the Father of Waters. La Salle next is seen calmly coming down the Mississippi, serene in the knowledge that all he sees will be new lands to conquer. So should the senior go out into the world armed with the knowledge that his learning will enable him to succeed. Then Bienville founding New Orleans typifies the Junior laying the foundation of his career. The wild Indians with their tomahawks express the feeling of the untamed Sophomores. As the transfer of Louisiana from France to the United States is one of the greatest events in the History of Louisiana, so is the transition from Preparatory School to the Freshman Class in College one of the greatest events in the life of a student. ¶ ¶ Athletics, General Andrew Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans; To the Ladies, Evangeline; Fraternities, La Fitte; Organizations, Ku Klux Klan; and Features, Voodoo Dancers.

A man who quietly and conscientiously goes about his work in the knowledge that he will do his best to meet whatever obstacles present themselves, who can instill a spirit into others to fight with all their energy for love of him, and who accepts victory without too great enthusiasm, is one we all admire.

To such a man we feel privileged to dedicate this, the thirty-fifth volume of the

The President's Statement

STUDENTS and faculty returning to Newcomb at the opening of the session found the departments housed in Dixon Hall in full operation in their new home. The Library Wing not only is an attractive place for readers and students, but offers every facility for the comfort and convenience of the student.

The School of Music has, for the first time, quarters of its own designed for the needs of this department. The new auditorium in Dixon Hall has proved a convenient gathering place not only for concerts and lectures of Newcomb, but for campus night programs and other student activities. The administration is working on plans for the beautification of the Newcomb campus and for a better plan of roadways and walks on that campus, with reference not only to the present needs, but to the future development of the college plant.

The framework of the new Medical Clinic Building is approaching completion and indicates that this will be one of the most impressive and commodious buildings of the whole Tulane group. A committee of the faculty and Board of Administrators is now selecting equipment for this building which will make it beyond question one of the outstanding clinic buildings of the country.

While athletics do not constitute the chief aim of the University, it gives great pleasure to all of those interested in Tulane to know that our football team achieved the distinction of being declared champions of the Southern Conference.

It is also gratifying to note that the Southern Conference has again placed the annual tennis tournament at Tulane University.

The thing we most hope for is that some man with a big heart and a big purse will give a modern gymnasium for the benefit of the health and welfare of the hundreds of young men now attending the University.

Newcomb College

PIERCE BUTLER, B.A., M.A., Ph.D.
Dean

Newcomb College was founded by Mrs. Josephine Louise Newcomb, in October, 1886. It was her desire to establish in this college a memorial to her daughter, Harriot Sophie Newcomb. In her will, which is dated May 12, 1898, she left to the administrators of the Tulane Educational Fund, for the benefit of Newcomb College, the residue of her estate after the payment of certain specified legacies. Mrs. Newcomb's feeling for the people of New Orleans and her desire to advance the cause of education of young women in Louisiana were the reasons that moved her to make this foundation. It was her specific desire that there should be maintained a simple form of daily religious exercises in a chapel or assembly room, but she specifically provided, "I desire that worship and instruction shall not be of a sectarian or denominational character."

There are at present eight buildings of fine construction upon the campus and several smaller buildings. We have recently completed and occupied a new dormitory, the Warren Newcomb House, fronting upon Audubon Place. This will probably form one unit in a plan of dormitories to be bui't. During the year 1928-29 we completed Dixon Hall, on the quadrangle fronting the Art Building, named in honor of President Emeritus Brandt V. B. Dixon. Dixon Hall, which was first used for the Commencement Exercises in 1929, provides an Auditorium seating about one thousand, with a fine and well equipped stage; studio and practice rooms for the School of Music; and an entire wing for accommodations for the Library. The stack rooms here will provide for about sixty thousand volumes and may be expanded.

The purpose of the college is to foster the intellectual life in any way that may seem most helpful and promising for the maintenance of a high standard of culture, and it endeavors to equip young women for effective and intelligent service to society. The regular courses offered lead to the degree of B.A. or B.S., or for students in Art and Music, B.Design and B.Music.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

EDWARD A. BECHTEL, PH.D.
Dean

The College of Arts and Sciences is one of the oldest colleges of Tulane University, and with the exception of Newcomb College, has the largest enrollment. Courses are offered leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Education. The curriculum in each case is planned so as to give a general education in fundamental subjects, and at the same time to afford specialization in some one group of studies, with a view to the development of general culture and training.

Special courses are planned for those seeking admission to the College of Law, the College of Medicine and the College of Pharmacy. Among the elective courses affording professional training is included the Department of Journalism. A new course has this year been introduced in Physical Education, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Education. The aim of this new course is to train men who can serve in the high schools as athletic coaches and at the same time teach certain academic subjects.

The College of Law

RUFUS CARROLLTON HARRIS, A.B., LL.B., Jur.D.
Dean

The Tulane College of Law was established in 1847 as the Law Department of the University of Louisiana. It has afforded legal training to thousands during the period of its existence.

The purpose of the College of Law is to provide opportunities and facilities for training equal to the best afforded elsewhere. It purports to inculcate a sound knowledge of both substantive and adjective law. However, the school recognizes a duty beyond equipping and training of men to become practitioners. Many of the University students find its courses valuable training for citizenship and business careers.

The curriculum of the College of Law is unusually attractive in that it is arranged to provide for the special training of those who intend to practice in Louisiana, and at the same time it is arranged to afford training to those who may wish to practice in any of the other states.

The College of Law owns a large and well selected library, which is recognized as one of the most complete in the Southern states. It is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, and has been given the Class A rating by the American Bar Association, and its degree is registered by the New York College Board of Regents. These are the standardizing agencies for law schools.

The publication of the Tulane Law Review by the College of Law affords a medium for the expression of the best thought available on the Jurisprudence of Louisiana.

THE COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

DOUGLAS SMITH ANDERSON, B.A., M.A.
Dean

The College of Engineering offers broad courses of professional training in the fundamental principles underlying the various branches of Engineering and Architecture. The formulation of these courses is the outgrowth of the best thought of educators and the engineering profession and of our own experience during the last two decades.

The technical studies in the College of Engineering are contained in four divisions, called schools. The schools are divided into departments. A department includes subjects, or groups of subjects, which are similar in nature. The schools are:

MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING
CIVIL ENGINEERING
CHEMICAL ENGINEERING
ARCHITECTURE

No candidate for a degree is allowed to restrict himself to the narrow training which might be imparted by any one school. Work in the technical departments of one of the above schools is made the backbone or principal part of a four years' course and supplemental work is required in other schools in the college.

THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

CHARLES CASSEDY BASS, M.D., D.Sc.
Dean

New Orleans has been the leading medical center of the entire South and Southwest for almost one hundred years. Wherever new ideas in medical progress have appeared, the medical profession of New Orleans has either reflected that progress promptly or has taken a leading part in its elucidation. Some of the scientific researches and contributions of the medical profession of New Orleans have commanded attention and high esteem in every civilized country in the world. Students and doctors from every state in the Union, and from many foreign countries, come to New Orleans for medical training. To meet the ever increasing needs in this direction, Tulane is now erecting a new Clinic Building, adjoining our great Charity Hospital, which will provide the most complete and most extensive facilities for the best care of patients combined with the best opportunities for a thorough study of disease by the staff and students of the School of Medicine.

Provision is also made in the new "Hutchinson Memorial" for the headquarters of the organized medical profession of the City and State, represented by the Orleans Parish Medical Society and the Louisiana State Medical Society. Sufficient space is provided in the building for a library that will fall within the group of the largest five in the United States and be a genuine storehouse of medical knowledge.

THE COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

MORTON ARNOLD ALDRICH, A.B., PH.D.
Dean

The purpose of this college has been, since its establishment in 1914, to offer substantial professional training preparatory to a business career. The instruction offered is planned for students sufficiently able and mature to do work of university grade, and no student is received unless prepared to do work of this character. It is essential, also, to the permanent success of the college that its students approach their work in an earnest professional spirit.

In order to make the course available for business men and women, classes are also held at night from 8 to 9:45 o'clock. These classes meet in Gibson Hall, Tulane University, each course being held one night a week. By thus devoting only one night a week to attending a course, a student may take any of the night courses offered.

THE SCHOOL OF PHARMACY

CHARLES CASSEDY BASS, M.D., D.Sc.
Dean

In order to increase the amount of training in the cultural and general scientific subjects given to pharmacy students and in keeping with a policy of raising standards to the equal of the best schools of the country, the Tulane School of Pharmacy inaugurated this year a four-year curriculum and will discontinue the three-year course with the graduation of the 1931 class. All students who entered in 1929-30, were registered as students in Colleges of Arts and Sciences, where they must spend two academic years, before taking up the last two years of the course, the first of which will start in 1931-32, and will consist of purely pharmacy subjects.

This School holds membership in the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy, organized to promote the interests of pharmaceutical education.

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

HENRY DASPIT, M.D., F.A.C.P.

The Graduate School of Medicine is the Post-graduate Department of the College of Medicine of the Tulane University of Louisiana. From October to June, there may be found large numbers of medical graduates from this and other countries gathered here to take advantage of the review courses in order to keep abreast with the advances in the medical sciences or to equip themselves for the major specialties.

All instruction, didactic and clinical, is directed and carried on by men who are matured in the varied branches of medicine and surgery. During the forenoon, instruction is given in the Clinics and Wards of the Charity Hospital, Touro Infirmary and the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital. Afternoons and evenings are spent in the Hutchinson Memorial Buildings, where all branches of medicine are covered in the laboratory and lecture room.

Department of Middle American Research

FRANS BLOM, Director

The Department of Middle American Research was founded in 1924 for the purpose of advanced research into the history, archæology, botany, natural resources and products of Mexico, the Central American Republics, and the West Indies, and to gather and disseminate information in regard to these countries.

Four expeditions have been sent into the field. Three of these have been primarily archæological or ethnological, and one agronomical, but each has gathered as much general data as possible.

The Museum of the Department contains many valuable and interesting collections, having material on Middle America and related Anthropology, as well as on the Southeastern United States.

The Library ranks among the leading research libraries of the country. It holds not only anthropological and archæoligical books and rare manuscripts, but also volumes on travel, geography, botany, biology and cartography of Central America.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

JOHN MACLAREN MCBRYDE, Ph.D., Litt.D.
Dean

To men and women holding the Bachelor's degree from Tulane University and from institutions of equal grade the Graduate School offers courses leading to advanced degrees in the fields of the liberal arts, the sciences, and engineering. In addition to these, advanced courses in medicine leading to the degrees of Master of Science and Doctor of Philosophy are given in the College of Medicine by members of the Medical Faculties who have been elected to membership in the Faculty of the Graduate School. Opportunities are afforded for clinical work in the hospitals of the city under the guidance of well-known specialists. Thus the Graduate School presents carefully planned courses designed for teachers desiring to gain a broader and deeper knowledge of their chosen fields and for graduates in engineering and medicine wishing to specialize in some particular lines of work.

COURSES FOR TEACHERS

JAMES ADAIR LYON, A.M., D.Sc.
Chairman

For many years Tulane University has operated a number of courses to meet the need of those whose hours of employment will not permit attendance upon regular classes. The classes are scheduled in the afternoon hours and on Saturdays, thus making it possible for teachers, especially if they so desire, to add to their equipment in many subjects.

These courses are of full college grade, conducted by regular members of the faculty, and in the case of students who have satisfactorily fulfilled the entrance requirements, credits obtained may be applied towards a degree.

Paul Tulane and General Randall Lee Gibson

Paul Tulane

HOW many times have Tulane students gazed abstractly at this large oil painting which hangs at the main entrance of Gibson Hall without considering that it represents an act directly responsible for Tulane University as it exists today? The painting is symbolic of Paul Tulane making his great donation of all his New Orleans property to promote the higher education of "the white persons in the city of New Orleans." General Randall Lee Gibson, then United States senator from Louisiana and later first president of the board of administration, is seated with Mr. Tulane. A. G. Heaton, the artist, painted the picture at Washington in 1887. He has clearly portrayed in the faces of the two men the human interest and benevolence of the one and the keen judgment and foresight of the other. Thus in a fitting manner was the greatest event in Louisiana's educational history commemorated.

Paul Tulane was born in Cherry Valley near Princeton, N. J., of French Hugenot parentage, on May 10, 1801. He was the only son among five who did not receive a college education, but this was because of his "strong bent toward business." He entered the employ of a merchant at fifteen and was so engaged for two years. Then, with a French cousin of the same name, a probate judge of Tours, he traveled in the South and visited at the homes of Andrew Jackson and Henry Clay. On innumerable occasions he displayed his uncanny business sense. Gradually he became wealthy. His philanthropic nature, especially toward education, was one of his most distinguishing characteristics and his gifts were irrespective of creed.

In 1882 Mr. Tulane donated all his New Orleans real estate for the establishment of this university. "The university at New Orleans is my child," he said not long before his death. His lifelong ambition had been to aid the young people of Louisiana educationally, and though he died at Princeton, N. J., on March 27, 1887, at the age of 85, he lived long enough to see this wish at least in part fulfilled.

The hundredth anniversary of this institution as a university and its fiftieth anniversary as Tulane University of Louisiana will be celebrated in 1934. Perhaps if he were present Paul Tulane, whose spirit has guided the university to its place as the South's leading educational center, would feel that his life had not been lived in vain.

Commodore Ernest Lee Jahncke

Commodore Ernest Lee Jahncke, B.E., '99, vice-president of the Tulane Board of Administrators, is New Orleans' first cabinet officer in nearly half a century. On March 12, 1929, he was appointed First Assistant Secretary of the Navy by President Hoover and this appointment was later approved by the Senate.

The Commodore was born in New Orleans in 1880 and was educated in the public schools and at Tulane University. He is the son of the late Frederick and Margaret Lee Jahncke.

He married Miss Cora Van Voorhis Stanton, granddaughter of Edwin M. Stanton, President Lincoln's Secretary of War, and of Mary Ashley Townsend, Louisiana writer.

A lieutenant-commander in the naval reserve, Commodore Jahncke is also a member of the United States Olympic Games Committee. He has been a consistent worker for the upbuilding of his community and his acquaintance with maritime affairs qualified him for the federal position.

Tulane is justly proud of her alumnus who has done so much to bring honor to Louisiana.

General Athletics

Without a doubt the year 1929 will go down in Tulane's athletic calendar as one of the most successful ever witnessed by Tulane supporters. The wearers of the "T" in every line of activity, while not all winning championship honors, came through with shining colors.

Furthermost in the minds of followers of the Olive and Blue athletes will be the memories of Tulane's first Southern Conference champion gridders. Four other conference championships came to Tulane during the year. "Bevo" Sutter won the tennis singles title and he and "Dookey" Bayon captured the doubles championship to make a clean sweep of conference net laurels. The tournament was held on Tulane's courts.

Jerome Haas won the middleweight boxing championship at the conference tournament held at the University of Virginia during the spring. A football shuttle relay team composed of Bill Banker, Elmer Massey, Hugh Whatley and John Whatley came down in front in an exhibition race at the conference track meet.

The basketball team enjoyed a successful season and the baseball team broke even on its schedule. The track team, although losing every meet, led by "Fatty" Oelkers, with a record-breaking heave in the shot-put, finished eighth in the conference meet with eleven points.

Intra-mural athletics under the capable guidance of Coach "Monk" Simons reached the highest peak of class rivalry and enthusiasm. More than seventy-five candidates came out for intra-mural football, while an equal amount played games among themselves on the basketball court. Cross-country runs was another attraction which found many candidates trying for positions. The spirit and enthusiasm of intra-mural events grows each year, and has come to be a chief source of supply of material to our varsity teams.

The Tulane track was remodeled with many new additions, the placing of a concrete border around the edges of the quarter-mile cinder path and a general rematting of the track itself should make it one of the best in the South.

Coaching Staff

Coach Bernie Bierman and a fine corps of assistants were mainly responsible for Tulane's great success on the gridiron during the past season. Ted Cox developed a fine line, Lester Lautenschlaeger was backfield coach, Ted Bank directed the Freshman team and Pete Maihles had charge of the scrubs. "Monk" Simons was back at his old post as trainer.

Tulane, Southern Champions, 1929

These eleven men formed the starting line-up in most of the games of Tulane's most successful season. Coach Bierman developed a great grid machine in which all eleven stars subordinated their own chances to shine to the welfare of the team as a whole. That was the 1929 team!

Banker, Armstrong, Baumbach and Seeuws formed a splendid backfield which functioned behind one of the mightiest lines in Southern football history. Call the roll, from left end to right, it was a great forward wall — Holland, McCance, Bodenger, Roberts, McCormick, Rucker and Dalrymple. Hats off to the line and a mighty cheer for the backfield! All hail the Southern Champions of 1929!

The Football Season

The most successful team in Tulane's footfall history carried the Olive and Blue to its first Southern Conference championship. It was a brilliant record which that team of 1929 made. Under the guidance of a truly splendid coach with a capable staff of assistants, the Tulane team went through a season of nine games without a defeat to an undisputed claim for the highest honor in Dixie football.

It was a truly great team—that team of '29. Starting the season acclaimed by the experts as the dark horse of the conference, it won somewhat unimpressively and a bit disappointingly from Louisiana Normal, 40 to 7.

The Texas A. and M. battle the following Saturday was the one in which the real team of 1929 was born. After leading at the half, 7 to 2, Tulane allowed the Texans to cross her goal line in the third quarter to assume the upper hand, 8 to 7. It was a beautiful pass by Ike Armstrong to Harry Glover in the final quarter which brought the Greenies victory. The Aggies scored another safety in the final period, but it was Tulane's game, 13 to 10.

The Mississippi Aggies came next on the schedule. A highly-touted team which had given Georgia Tech bad dreams the Saturday before, the Aggies succumbed before Tulane's onslaught by a 34 to 0 score.

Southwestern was the breather before the anxiously awaited Georgia Tech battle and Tulane romped away with ease, 60 to 0.

Revenge was sweet for Tulane on October 25. Georgia Tech, the roaring Tornado which had carried away the conference title two years hand running, met its real master and Tulane crashed over a 20 to 14 victory. That score does not show how close the game really was. Tulane scored three touchdowns in the first half, and the Yellow Jackets did not put over their two scores until the second half when Coach Bierman took out his regulars to save them for Georgia and sent in the reserves. Bill Banker and Ike Armstrong careened to a great day while the line gave a grand defensive exhibition. Dick Baumbach played a well-nigh faultless game at quarter.

The team suffered a slight let-down against Georgia. An intercepted pass in the last minute of play in the first half when Tulane led 14 to 9 gave the Bulldogs a one-point margin, but the Wave with some great line plunging by Bill Banker and Ford Seeuws marched eighty yards for another touchdown in the third quarter and Tulane carried away the laurels, 21 to 15.

Auburn proved a field day for Tulane. The Plainsmen fell by a 52 to 0 score. All of the reserves got into the game. It was about the most decisive defeat handed one conference team by another during the season.

Sewanee, the valiant little Tiger from the mountain, threw a scare into Tulane by holding the Wave scoreless for the first half, but the Greenies put over three touchdowns in the last two periods to win, 18 to 0.

The Green Wave closed its season with a great 21 to 0 triumph over its ancient rival, the L. S. U. Tiger. Tulane played spectacular football in this game. The first touchdown came on a beautiful pass from Banker to Armstrong in the first quarter. In the second period Jerry Dalrymple snatched another pass from Armstrong and scampered more than half the length of the field for another, and "Preacher" Roberts, whose great play that day resulted in his election to the captaincy of the 1930 team, pulled down an L. S. U. toss to dash for the final score.

It was a truly magnificent team which seemed never really taxed to its full capabilities. It might have scored more touchdowns if it had needed to, but it always had something left for the next game.

Coach Bierman faces his hardest schedule in 1930. Added to the headliners which appeared on the Greenies' chart of '29 is Northwestern, one of the strongest teams in the Big Ten. The L. S. U. games snuffed out the grid careers of an entire backfield—Dick Baumbach, quarterback; Ike Armstrong and Captain Bill Banker, halfbacks, and Ford Seeuws and Jack Pizzano, fullbacks. Charlie Rucker, great lineman and captain in '28, also played his last game, along with "Lizzie" Ford and John Whatley, reserves.

Nearly an entire first string line will return, but much of the success of 1930 will depend on the showing of last year's reserve backs—Lowell Dawson, Hugh Whatley, Elmer Massey, Harry Glover, George Haik and a capable but green batch of recruits coming up from the first-year ranks.

Francis X. Armstrong
Halfback

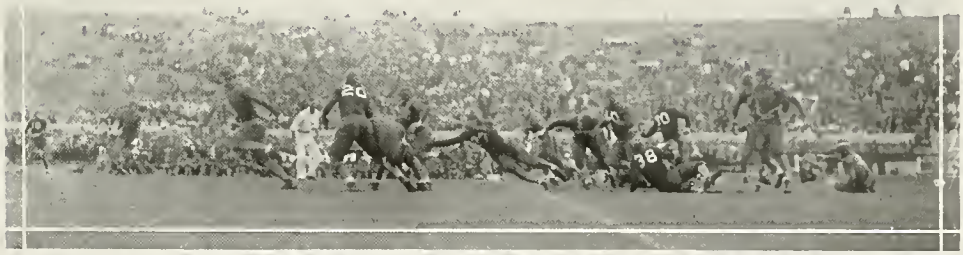
This little halfback and 1929's alternate captain made a name for himself as one of the greatest broken-field runners in the country. Ike's great playing was largely responsible for Tulane's victories over Texas A. and M., Georgia Tech, Georgia and L. S. U.

Richard O. Baumbach
Quarterback

Dick was the team's field general. He ran the eleven without a flaw in its splendid victory over Georgia Tech and threw the pass for one of the touchdowns. Baumbach played his last game opposite the L. S. U. Tigers after leading the Greenies against them for three years without defeat.

T. Ford Seeuws
Fullback

"Susie" developed into one of the best line plungers in the South in 1929 and his blocking was all that could be asked and then some. His great bucking against Georgia materially paved the way for the Green Wave's victory. Summering in Wisconsin seems to agree with football players.



Loyd T. Roberts
Center

"Preacher" intercepted more forward passes than any player in the conference last fall, snatching one toss out of the air to score against the Tigers. He was one of the best centers Tulane ever had and was almost unanimous choice for All-Southern. "Preacher" will captain the Wave in 1930.

Gerald R. Dalrymple
End

Jerry was one of the outstanding Sophomores on the Southern gridiron. This big boy smeared so many plays around his terminal that he was selected on the "official" All-Southern with Banker and Roberts. He scored Tulane's second touchdown against L. S. U.

John Pizzano
Fullback

The "Phantom of the Opera" has had the reputation since 1926 of being one of the best defensive backs in the South. He ripped the Texas A. and M. line to shreds, paving the way for the Wave's winning touchdown. Jack will be missed in '30.

Charles M. Rucker
Tackle

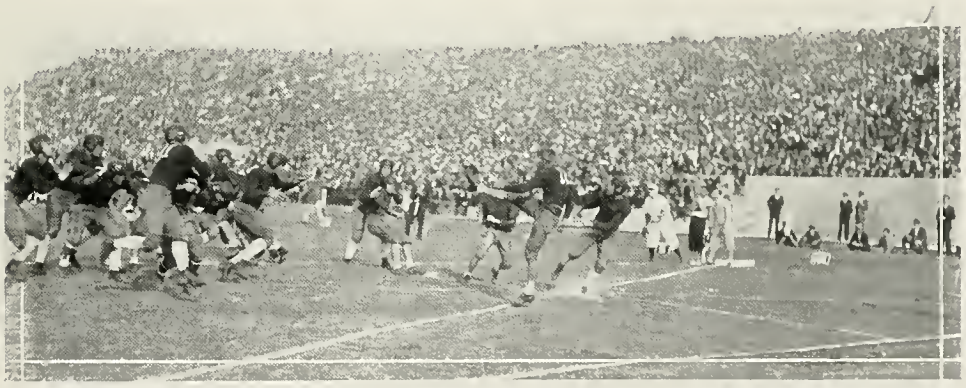
They called him an All-Southern tackle, and why not? Charlie, captain of the 1928 eleven, closed three years of glory against L. S. U. He played the game of his life against Georgia. Even a broken nose couldn't keep him out.

R. Jack Holland
End

The net yardage gained by backs who tried to circle this boy's end would have to be expressed in minus quantities. Jack played in the Georgia game despite a high fever and was hailed as one of the greatest terminals in Dixie.

Elmer M. McCance
Tackle

"Dynamite" was one of the real stars of the team. He squared the account with Vance Maree, star of the Golden Tornado, and found a place on the New York Journal's All-American. He will be back to shine again next fall.



Morris Bodenger
Guard

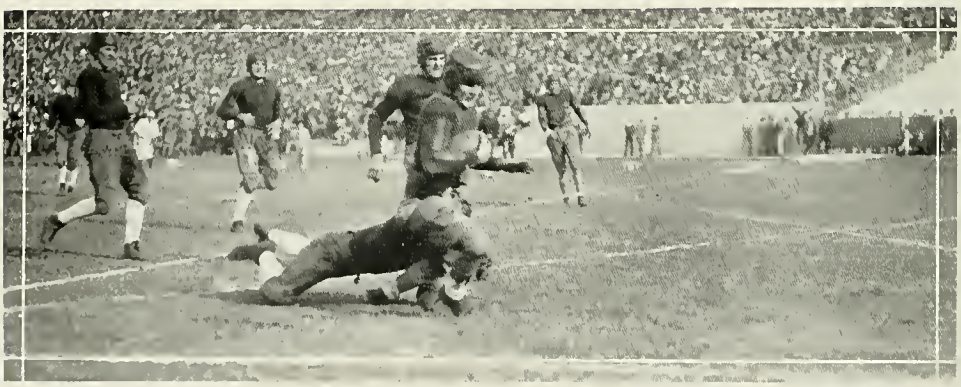
This mighty shade of the great "Irish" Levy performed in grand style last fall. Morris was universally recognized as one of the finest running guards in the country and we look forward to his making all-Southern next season. He was elected alternate captain of the 1930 eleven.

Myrtus A. Mangum
Guard

Myrtus played a fine game in the line last season, his second on the team. He ruined many an opposing play directed at the middle of Tulane's forward wall and still has another year to play.

John F. McCormick
Guard

"Red" came up from the Freshman team unheralded, but cinched a regular job for himself on the varsity. He was 175 pounds of concentrated arsenic in the middle of the Greenie line.



Eldon C. Upton
Center

"Tick" is the boy who didn't play regularly only because he had an all-Southern center to compete against. "Preacher's" sub didn't get so much chance to star, but when he did get in his play captured the praise of many.

Calvert G. deColigny
Tackle

They call him "Foots" because he wears the biggest shoes on the squad. This big boy did some nice work substituting for Rucker and McCance in his first year on the team. Watch him next fall!

Hugh W. Whatley
Halfback

Popularly known as the "Rabbit," Hugh lived up to the reputation of that animal and often showed his fleet heels to opposing ends. He has another year to play and ought to have a fine season.

John S. Whatley
Halfback

The elder member of the Whatley family closed his grid career in the Turkey Day battle. During his three years on the team he was one of the fastest men ever to wear a green jersey.

A. Elmer Massey
Fullback

The "King" did some nice line plunging and several times broke through for substantial gains. He has another year to play and should do most of the full-backing this fall.

Harry C. Glover
Halfback

"Wop" and Ike were the Wave's midget backs. Harry took a pass from Armstrong to score the winning touchdown against Texas A. and M. He enjoyed a fine season in his Sophomore year and more will be heard from him later.

Herbert D. Ford
End

"Lizzie" has made letters in three major sports—football, basketball and track. In the game against L. S. U. he finished three years of play on the gridiron as a capable wing man.

Lowell P. Dawson
Quarterback

"Red" will be favorite to succeed Dick Baumbach as regular field general this fall. He showed plenty of class in last season's battles and probably saved the day for Tulane by calling a safety in the Texas A. and M. game.

Charles L. Young
End

Charlie is a brother of "Speck" Young, captain of the Mississippi A. & M. team which defeated Tulane in 1924, but he helped to wallop the Aggies when they played here last October.

Richard E. Bankston
Tackle

Bankston was another Sophomore to make the squad. Dick teamed with "Foots" deColigny as understudy to Rucker and McCance. He has a promising future with two more years to play.

George M. Haik
Halfback

This Sophomore flashed fine form in the games he got into. He is another boy who ought to make 'em step in 1930.

Doyle C. Magee
Fullback

Doyle was another promising Sophomore to win a place on the squad during the past season. He is a good blocking back with two more years to play.

William F. Penney
Guard

Here are three of the hard plugging reserves who worked their way on to the squad in their Sophomore year. Spirit such as these boys showed to work in the face of odds is what helped the team along to the title. During the next two seasons they ought to see a great deal more action.

Vernon C. Haynes
End

William J. Drawe
Guard

Robert R. Rainold
Manager

The "Baron" had the good fortune to be the manager of the first Tulane football team to win the conference championship. He made a good job of his duties and we understand that he is an authority on the team's table manners while on trips.

BASKETBALL

Coach Bierman led the Greenies to a very successful season on the basketball court in 1929. Starting the year off with a 25 to 22 defeat at the hands of Alabama, Captain Dave Drezinski and his cohorts came back the next night to win and captured seven in a row before they succumbed, 40 to 25, in the second game of the series with Auburn.

That winning streak, outside of Alabama, saw Ole Miss and the Mississippi Aggies lose two each and Kentucky and Auburn drop a single contest apiece before the Wave Cagers.

Following the Auburn series the Greenies broke even in four games with their ancient rivals from Baton Rouge—the L. S. U. Tigers.

The team went to the Conference Tournament in Atlanta conceded a chance to make an excellent bid for the championship, but illness handicapped Coach Bierman's boys and they fell in the first round, 29 to 15, before the Kentucky Wildcats, a team they had soundly trounced earlier in the season.

Coach Bierman

Captain Dave Drezinski and "Preacher" Roberts were the big stars for the season. Eight men were awarded letters. They were Captain Drezinski, Roberts, Mangum, Ford, Savoy, Walshe, James and Eskridge.

The election for captain resulted in a deadlock and two leaders were chosen for 1930. They are Herbert Ford, guard, and Preston Savoy, forward.

With six lettermen slated to report, prospects for a winning team in 1930 were high, but a severe blow was dealt the Greenies' chance when Co-Captain Preston Savoy announced that he would be unable to play for the first half of the schedule, due to the press of scholastic duties.

After several practice games the Greenies embarked on a state tour just prior to the Christmas holidays. They met and defeated Southwestern, Louisiana College and Louisiana Normal on successive nights.

The team opened its conference season badly, losing two games to Alabama. Next it split a two-game series each with Mississippi College and the Mississippi Aggies. Ole Miss was beaten twice and the team seemed to assume the proportions of a real championship contender against the Oxford boys.

Games yet to be played include a two-game series with Spring Hill, another with Auburn and four contests with the L. S. U. Tigers.

Tulane has won three and lost three within the conference and a clean sweep of the L. S. U. and Auburn games would send her standing in the conference soaring.

As this goes to press the news comes that Preston Savoy has reported for practice. Out of Mangum, Walshe, James and Savoy, Coach Bierman ought to develop a forward combination which will function well in the conference tournament.

Co-Captain "Lizzie" Ford and "Red" Dawson, a sophomore, have been going well at the guard positions, while Roberts has been displaying his usual good form at center. Haynes and Glover, two other sophomores, are a pair of prospects who have been coming along nicely.

BASEBALL

Tulane's 1929 baseball team had a unique record. It gained an even break with every team on its schedule.

The Olive and Blue diamond representatives played a 4-4 tie with the Mississippi Aggies, split two-game series with Alabama and Auburn and captured two out of four from L. S. U.

Rain resulted in the cancellation of several games originally scheduled and accounted for the team's abbreviated record.

The season was opened quite successfully with a 10-6 victory over Auburn, but the Plainsmen reversed the decision the following afternoon to the tune of 17 to 0. Tom George pitched fine ball in the first game, but led by Crawford, hard-hitting outfielder, the visitors knocked several Tulane pitchers out of the box in the second affair.

Alabama came next and the Crimsons took the first of a two-game series, 9 to 3, but in the second game Bernard McCloskey, pitching superb ball, let the opposition down with one hit to shut them out, 3 to 0.

Darkness put an end to the first game of a two-game series with the Mississippi Aggies when the count was tied at 4-4 and a deluge stopped the second.

The L. S. U. Tigers came to New Orleans for two games and took the first, 8-6, but Tulane captured the second, George pitching a shut-out, 3-0.

BASEBALL

The two teams split another series in Baton Rouge. Tulane won the first, 7 to 6, but ended the season in defeat by dropping the second, 5 to 3.

Tom George's great pitching earned him the captaincy of the 1930 team, while Bernard McCloskey hurled a fine one-hit shut-out over Alabama.

Captain Lee O'Pry at second base, Paul Crouere at short and Dick Baumbach and Johnny Menville in the outer gardens, all played good ball. These four will be missed on this spring's team, along with Hatcher, Marquer, Marx and McCloskey.

Ted Bank, new freshman football coach, has replaced "Peggy" Flournoy as diamond mentor for this year. He has only four lettermen as a nucleus for his team. They are Captain George and Lundy, pitchers; Guidry, catcher, and Burvant, outfielder. Luchsinger, McGehee, James, Roberts, Kehoe and Pizzano, along with several promising Sophomores, will be depended upon to fill the vacant places.

TRACK

THE TRACK SEASON

FRITZ OAKES

A more spirited than successful track team wore Tulane colors through the spring season of 1929. Fritz Oakes' handful of old reliables and a little rugged new material dropped every meet, but got "A" in effort and fifth place in the Southern Intercollegiates. There were stars, too, to light up the dark sky that drizzled rain through the whole of two important meets. The dim torch passed to the 1930 Greenie track team and was handed over with a firm hand.

John Oelkers well earned the laurels of captain-elect by consistent first place performance in the shot-put and good work with the discus. "Omar" had been trying for a long time to crack the Southern 16-pound weight record and sure enough he heaved the shot 46 feet, 9¼ inches to lead the S. I. C. field at Birmingham and take the record home. Hugh and John Whatley performed more than creditably in the dashes; "Lizzie" Ford starred in the high and low hurdles; Montgomery was an untiring miler; Scott, in the pole vault, and Wisdom, in the half mile, experienced eccentric success.

In the opener with Alabama at Tuscaloosa, Tulane took a 72-51 licking. The Crimson's Bradley showed his heels to the Whatleys in the dashes to collect a ten-point starter for his team, while Smith added another five with a first in the broad jump and the rest of the aggregation totaled enough firsts and seconds to roll up a mighty 72 points. Oelkers won the shot and Ford stepped to firsts in both high and low hurdles. Norton Wisdom surprised everyone by copping the half and incidentally made his best time of the season, 2:02. Wolfe ran to a speedy first in the mile.

A few brave onlookers huddled unsheltered in the old stadium, while the Mississippi Aggies splashed to a 27-21 victory over the Tulane swimmer-trackmen. Tulane's courtesy allowed the Starkville Farmers a choice of events to suit Jupiter Pluvius and unfortunately the Aggie coach picked on things that were obviously Tulane failings or there is little doubt that Oake's team would have took firsts in the quarter and two-mile races. Oelkers won the shot and discus and Montgomery trudged a noble mile over the rain-sopped track to come in ahead. A. and M. had enough mediocre athletes to collect a large total from second places.

HUGH WHATLEY

Three exceptionally fast Auburnites—Bell, Beard and Virgin—leaped hurdles and ran dashes beyond Tulane ability and the Plainsmen team chalked up 61 markers against, which Tulane could only offer 51. Oelkers and McCance accounted for eight points in the shot-put and "Fatty" took another first in the discus. The mile was won by Montgomery in creditable first place time. Scott vaulted 11 feet, 9 inches to top place in the pole vault.

The Olive and Blue faded before the Tiger in the annual meet at Baton Rouge while rain poured from the capital sky. With the exception of Montgomery, Ford and Scott, the whole Tulane team dwindled, even veteran Oelkers. L. S. U. piled up 76 points, Tulane 36. Percy Brown outran the Whatleys and Guy Nesom outheaved Oelkers. There were also plenty of other militarists to help the Old War Skule along. Ford was great in the hurdles and Scott vaulted in best form. Montgomery offered a first in the mile, but beyond these L. S. U. had her way.

"Fatty" Oelkers

Tulane took fifth place in the annual S. I. C. track and field meet at Birmingham. Oelkers smashed the shot-put record for one honor and Tulane's football-relay team showed the South a fast backfield. The team was composed of Hugh and John Whatley, Elmer Massey and Bill Banker. Other good individual performances were made by Scott in the pole vault, Massey in the 100-yard dash and Ford in the hurdles.

Intra-mural track proved itself a great success last spring and served to bring out all kinds of material for Coach Oakes to look over with a far-seeing eye. Dick Foster, of the Tulane Athletic Council, offered a big silver cup for school-wide high-point man. The trophy was won by Hugh Whatley with 26 points. It will be offered again.

On the same day of the Aggie meet the Freshmen track team held its annual telegraphic meet with the Aggie Yearlings and got beat 73½-32½. de Coligny, big Greenie frosh, collected 15 points to tie with the opponents' Leigh as high-point man. "Foots" has an imposing athletic record behind him and the proficiency he exhibited in high and low hurdles and weights last spring shows him to be a sure choice on the 1930 team.

Chalaron, Arnold, Stolley, Matthews, Allenburger

Cheer Leaders

Cheering, that seemingly essential accessory of football games, reached an unusually high point at Tulane this year. Bruno Stolley and Gladys Matthews were varsity leader and Newcomb leader, respectively, with F. J. Chalaron, Clinton Arnold and Allenburger as assistants.

Stolley and Miss Matthews accompanied the team to Georgia and played an important part in the Wave's defeat of the Bulldogs. All four of the cheer leaders were present at the game with Louisiana State and again played an important part, but this time they were useful as amusement for the crowd because there was no necessity for cheering.

A new method of seating in the stands was adopted this year, members of the Freshman Class being scattered throughout the stands instead of sitting in a body. Another effort at organization of the cheerers resulted in the formation of a Rooters' Club which ended a successful season with several hundred members.

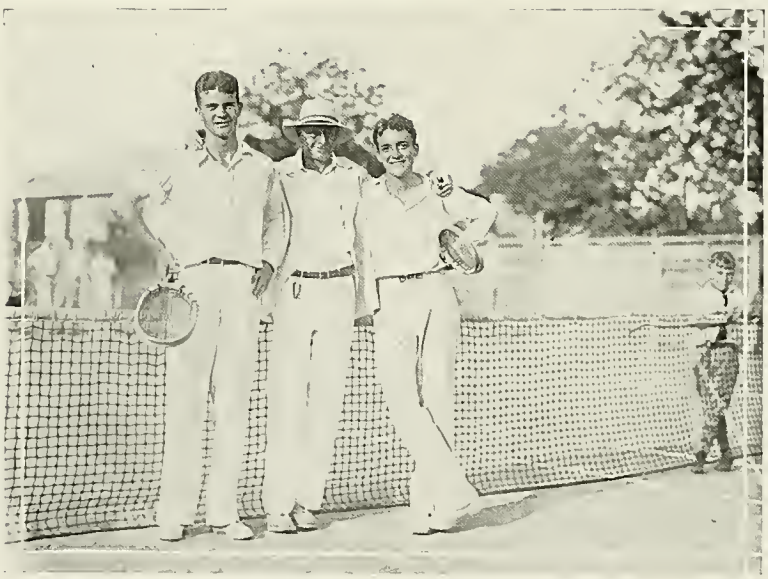
TENNIS

Tulane's most potent sports ambassador of the school year 1928-1929 was the tennis team. Guided by the accurate head of Mercer Beasley, the Green court squad swept through a hard schedule with but one nick and its brightest stars closed up the season by sifting through the South's best and leaving every Southern intercollegiate honor right on our own courts.

One by one teams fell before the brilliant lobs and smashes from Tulane rackets. Grinnell sent a game aggregation all the way from Iowa and all it drew was a tie in one match. Tulane won five. Cliff Sutter put a 6-4- 6-0 K.O. on Coggershall, the Iowans' captain and star. "Dooky" Bayon, Philip Bayon and Bob Wehrmann all won their singles matches. Bayon and Sutter easily took one doubles match, while Parker and O'Kelley deadlocked in theirs.

The Greenie netmen invaded Atlanta and came home with Georgia Tech's scalp. Drake fell next. Tuscaloosa was the scene of a big killing, of which the University of Alabama tennis team was victim. After "Dooky" Bayon had skinned through a first set with Little, the Alabama ace, 7-5, he got down to business and walloped the Crimson star with ease. Sutter whaled another 'Bama star, Oschmann, in straight sets. Phil Bayon and Bob Wehrmann won the other singles and a Sutter-Dinwiddie and Bayon-Bayon combination took the doubles matches.

Captain Bayon



Bayon, Coach Beasley, Sutter

TENNIS

It happens that Tulane has no stars yet rated by the National Lawn Tennis Association and Texas University has two—Berkeley Bell and Bruce Barnes. Bell rates eleventh on the N. L. T. A. list and Barnes somewhat further down the line. Sutter withered before Bell's drives and Bayon fell prey to Barnes, though he was a tough mouthful. There were other good Texans to take care of Phil Bayon and George Dinwiddie in both singles and doubles. Barnes and Bell just did manage to win over Sutter and Bayon in what was about the best doubles match seen on Tulane courts in years.

Tulane jumped back into the winning again with a decisive victory over Southwestern at Lafayette. Morning rains slowed the courts and lessened the effectiveness of the drives of Bob Wehrmann and Herbert Parker too much to make the day a clean sweep.

For the second successive year Tulane was host to the Southern Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament. Some ten or a dozen Southern institutions sent teams to reach for crowns. The mighty Donald Cram of Vanderbilt, singles titleholder, bowed in the semi-finals as did Feuer of Florida, his opponent in the finals of last year. Sutter and Bayon made extra sure that Tulane would have the singles honor for the year. They met in a hot game in the finals and Cliff took the laurel wreath. This same pair smashed and drove through all doubles competition and won that crown too. Tulane now reigns supreme on Southern courts.

Mercer Beasley, who pointed the way to Tulane supremacy, has contracted to be with the Greenie net team for two more years at least. Nearly every star of last year is back and it looks like repeated glory.

COACH BANK, MCCLOSKEY, THERIOT, PIZZANO, MERIWETHER, HAAS, GESSNER, Manager.

BOXING

CAPTAIN PIZZANO

Boxing entered Tulane's athletic portals on a wave of popularity in 1929. Two meets were held with L. S. U., the Greenies winning both, and the team of five men captured third place for the Olive and Blue at the conference tournament in Charlottesville, Va.

Jerome "Red" Haas came back from "Old Virginny" with the title of Intercollegiate Middleweight Champion of the South. The Tulane boxer battled his way through the preliminary rounds to a victory in the finals.

Darwin Fenner and Bill Meriwether reached the semi-finals in the welter-weight and light-weight classes, respectively. Captain Jack Pizzano was eliminated in the quarter finals of the light-heavyweight tourney on a close decision, while "Buster" Theriot lost out in the light-weight class.

"RED" HAAS

The 1930 team, coached by Ted Bank, opened the season just as the JAMBALAYA went to press by winning five out of seven matches from Clemson. The personnel of the team is: Captain Jack Pizzano, heavyweight and S. A. A. U. middle-weight champion; Jack Holland, light-heavyweight; "Red" Haas,' middleweight; Roy Theriot, welterweight; "Buster" Theriot, lightweight; Henry Menge, featherweight; "Pee Wee" Thompson, bantamweight.

WRESTLING

Tulane did not put a team in the intercollegiate wrestling field in 1929, but Myrtus Mangum captured the S. A. A. U. heavyweight title.

GOLF

Golf at Tulane during 1929 was at the lowest ebb it has been for some time. There were no dual meets, but George Bush ably represented Tulane in the Southern Conference tournament, reaching the semi-finals. There are several good golfers who will be eligible for the team this year and these with Bush should give Tulane a fine team for 1930.

FENCING

Nineteen hundred and twenty-nine saw fencing for the first time at Tulane. The team was coached by Dr. Keith Kahn, a fencer well above the average. Several of the Tulane team entered the S. A. A. U. matches and succeeded in capturing second and third places in the Junior foils and third in the Seniors.

Although only one dual match was held, that with Alabama, and although the Crimson fencers were victorious, the individual matches were very close. The Greenies displayed promising material and with a little experience plus a more thorough grounding in form will prove a dangerous foe for all future opponents. Captain Lienhard and Leon Hubert are exceptionally good with the foils and with more experienced teammates than last season they ought to make a fine showing this year.

HOCKEY TEAM

Newcomb Athletics

The Athletic Department of Newcomb College is gradually enlarging its program of sports to cover a wider range of inter-mural activities. The year's schedule of events shows this tendency with the Progressive Tennis Tea opening the season and Newcomb ball, volley ball and Newcomb basketball following close upon each other until mid-term. During this time, too, supervised instruction in bowling, ping-pong, fencing, archery, horseshoe is given. The hikes which occur frequently throughout the year tend to promote friendliness and fellowship among the students.

RACING

The second term opens with the fast game of hockey, then Spalding basketball, voted by the entire student body as the most popular sport and in March is gym night, an exhibition held under the auspices of the Department of Physical Education under the management of Miss Lucy Richardson, and in which the four classes participate. The gaiety of the occasion is increased by class stunts and clowns who amuse the spectators. Baseball is the next major event, and running parallel with it are the tournaments of the various minor sports. The swimming meet in May is always a spectacular and interesting event and this major sport, under the careful training of Miss Malone, is brought to a stirring finale. The track meet in the spring is a gala occasion, as it is not only an exhibition of physical prowess, but also a general gathering of the Seniors from all the high schools in New Orleans who are invited to visit the college on that day. There is a varsity-alumnae tennis tournament, a faculty-varsity baseball game, always an amusing event, and finally Trophy Day, the closing of the athletic season.

FACULTY VS. VARSITY

Whenever possible, the department endeavors to combine the athletic with the social side of each sport. The tennis tea in the beginning of the year is held as a splendid means of promoting friendliness among new and old students on the campus. In the Archery-Croquet-Horseshoe Coffee the same plan is evident.

On Trophy Day all awards are based upon the point system which was introduced at Newcomb in 1922 by Miss Florence Smith, acting head of the department. The system is arranged in such a manner that a person may obtain points for participating in all sports, and even if she is unable to make any team, her efforts are rewarded. The idea is that each person shall be recognized in proportion to her effort. A member of a squad and the first and second teams in all sports receives 35, 40 and 45 points, respectively. Points in minor sports vary between 10 and 25 points. The various individual awards within the system are: An official Newcomb "N" for a score of 700 points, a sweater for 1,300 points and a blanket for 2,000 points. A silver "N" is awarded to any Senior who has made 1,600 points or over, providing she is ineligible to receive a blanket. Also a regular Senior who has made 1,200 points may receive a sweater on recommendation of the Newcomb Athletic Council and the Faculty Athletic Council. For winners in the tournaments of the minor sports, individual bronze medals are given. A cup is awarded to the class scoring the highest number of points in the annual Field Day, aside from the individual Field Day cup and ribbons. As an outgrowth of the point system the wearers of the Newcomb letter formed in 1925 the "N" Club, which has as its purpose the promotion of athletics at the college.

With an ever-increasing interest in athletics at Newcomb and with constant additions and revisions being made regarding the equipment, the Newcomb Athletic Department has a true and worthy motto in "a sport for every girl; every girl in a sport."

PEROT SAYS:

I shall not sigh that we are not immortal,
That in so brief a time our lives are sped,
All loveliness we've known shall live eternal,
And these things shall not die though we be dead:
Friendship and kindliness, loving and giving,
First blush of tulip on the spring green lawn
And trees and lights of night and seas of living,
Bright everchanging color and the dawn.
And still shall wind-swept rain drench other faces,
There will be singing though we sing no more,
In strange, unseen, undreamed of, far-off places
Still shall the green waves lisp against the shore.
There will be Life and Laughter, Stars and Sun,
And Beauty shall not die. Oh Lovely One!

We believe in the tenets of abiding truth which is the guiding star of our Order. We believe in the helping hand which is the bar which binds us in our calling. We believe in the unity of service to one another which lends to the weary a word of cheer, to the poor a portion of our share, to the weak a need of pity, to the stricken a voice of comfort, to the old a memory of youth, and to the wayfarer a help along to the journey's end.

Our emblem will always be an inspiration to duty, remembering it stands for excellence in all things, purity of purpose and honesty of method and effort, with the blessing of an Alma Mater upon each who bears our badge of honor. May our lives lie among the stars which light the way to the great mystery, and may we so live that when we reach the end of the road we may find the veil, which parted leads to the heights of everlasting peace.

Sic ad Astra!

The Tulane Law Review is a professional publication edited by the Law School, and is of particular interest to the legal profession. It covers the entire field of law, but particular attention is given to the civil law and to comparative law. It is of especial interest because it is the only publication of its sort in this country, which devotes a department to the civil law.

The Board of Advisors is made up of seniors and juniors of the College of Law, chosen because of their rank as honor students in their respective classes. Into the hands of this Board is placed the exclusive jurisdiction of Moot Court Work. The year 1929-1930 marks the second year of a very active and worthy life.

The Tulane Moot Court Competition operates thus: the entire law student body is divided into what are known as Law Clubs. The clubs are: Martin, White, Livingston and Benjamin. Each club is composed of junior and senior students; and arguments between clubs are conducted as between juniors against juniors and seniors against seniors.

Points earned by the contestant teams go to the credit of the clubs represented. The two clubs having the highest total scores—which said total scores are obtained by adding one-half of the juniors' points made during the preceding year to the senior points of the current year—elect those of its senior members who are to participate in final senior rounds to be held in the spring. The winning team of this final argument will have their names engraved on a permanent marble plaque placed in the law library.

As this volume goes to press, it is learned that the White and Martin clubs will participate against each other in the final senior round of the Moot Court Competition.

The Moot Court Competition is optional for the students of the two upper classes but is compulsory with the first-year class.

Prominent downtown lawyers act as judges in junior and senior cases and the upper classmen and faculty members sit as judges on freshmen cases.

TULANE'S HALL OF FAME

Bruno Stolley and Morris Bodenger

Because as cheer leader Bruno led the crowds in voicing their applause of Tulane's teams. Because his classmates elected him to the highest honor of the Engineering School, their student body president. And finally because through his own enthusiasm he has imbued others with the old spirit of Tulane.

Morris, because he served as secretary-treasurer of the Student Council. Because his splendid playing on the 1929 football team won him the place of alternate-captain. And finally because he knows how to take success, always ready to greet everyone with a cheery smile and a word of fun.

"Lizzie" Ford

Because, during the four years he spent at Tulane, "Lizzie" was a tireless worker for her good. Because he is president of the Arts and Sciences Student Body. Because he has made letters for three years in football, basketball and track. And finally because in his Senior year he has the distinction of being captain of both the basketball and track teams.

Josephine Fry

Because as a leader from her Freshman year Jo has won the hearts of the entire school and faculty. Because she is intelligent, sympathetic and capable of seeing both sides of any question. And finally because she stands at our head as president of the Newcomb Student Body.

TULANE'S HALL OF FAME

"Bill" Banker

Because he has carved for himself such a niche in Tulane's Hall of Fame that he shall never be forgotten. Because as captain of the 1929 football team he led the Wave to the Southern Conference championship. Because his great playing for three years won for him a place on the all-conference team and a place on all-American. And finally because in all his playing his sportsmanship was admired and admitted by all, whether they played with him or against him.

Flora Hardie

Because Flora fills her difficult position as Student Council president by meting out justice tempered by good judgment and intelligence. Because her popularity comes as a logical outcome to her natural charm and grace.

Dr. D. S. Elliott

Because all those who have ever been in his classes like and admire him. Because he hides a true feeling of warmth and friendship for each student behind an appearance of severity. Because in the years he has been at Tulane he has greatly improved the Physics Department. And finally because for his service in student affairs he has been elected to Kappa Delta Phi.

Charles E. Webb

Because he is the possessor of many keys and political acumen far above the average. Because he has filled the combined offices of president of the Medical Student Body and of the Tulane Student Council in an admirable manner. And finally because he carried on in the absence of a director of student activities.

TULANE'S HALL OF FAME

Ike Armstrong

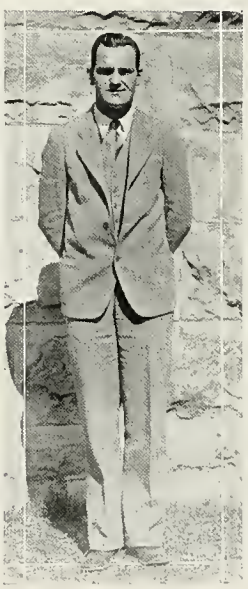
Because he is one of the pluckiest halfbacks Tulane has ever had and one of the best in the South. Because he has more grit than most men twice his size. Because his playing last season greatly contributed to our team's victories. Because he is an able trackman. And finally because he has a multitude of friends who will be sorry to see him leave Tulane.

Katherine Hardesty

Because as the progressive leader of the Senior Class, Katherine shoulders her responsibilities as gracefully as she does her cap and gown. Because her initiative, humor and forcefulness have contributed in no small way to the success which has been attendant upon all her undertakings.

William T. Harter

Because as editor-in-chief of the Hullabaloo he has kept up the high standard of that paper. Because he recognizes student needs and brings them before the faculty and the student body. Because he has a keen sense of humor. Because he is a student above the average. And finally because he is one of the most popular men in the university.



Earl F. Evans

"Cal," as he is familiarly known, because he has found time while attending to the duties imposed upon him as a student of medicine to play through three seasons of football with an enviable record. Because this year as assistant coach of Tulane's Freshman squad he contributed his share in their successful season. And finally because he leaves behind him on graduation day a multitude of warm friends.

TULANE'S HALL OF FAME

Dan Moore

Because he has worked conscientiously and untiringly for the university. Because he is Senior Class president of the College of Arts and Sciences. Because he is speaker of Glendy Burke and president of the Dramatic Club. Because he took an active part in other organizations too numerous to name. And finally because whenever there is anything to be done, Dan is always on hand to do his best for his school.

Bernard McCloskey

Because he is well liked by all his fellow students. Because he is a pitcher of no mean ability. Because he is one of the best boxers of his weight. And finally because he did a fine job as editor-in-chief of the JAMBALAYA in '29 and succeeded in getting the book out earlier than ever before.

"Bobby" Rainold

Because he has the distinction of being the manager of the first football team to win the Southern Conference championship for Tulane. Because he has served as chairman of the activities committee of Pan-Hellenic. And finally because he always carries that big smile around that makes him "Bobby" to all his friends.

Tulane's Beau Brummels Capture S. I. C. Sartorial Championship

If this best-dressed man contest becomes an annual event at Tulane, it is bound to cause ill feelings among the other colleges of the Southern Conference and some day, who can tell, it may come to this.

The S. I. C. inaugurated a new conference to decide the championship among the best-dressed colleges of the Southern Promenade. The Grantland Rices of the tweed and broadcloth industry elected the Olive and Blue team undisputed rights to the championship by virtue of their victory over their old rivals, L. S. U. Tennessee, who was the runner-up, was automatically put out of the race when they were held by a TIE with Kentucky.

An account of the game, which gave Tulane the title, clipped from a sport bulletin read like this:

(By Special Live Wire)

New Orleans, Thanksgiving Day—Thirty thousand spectators thronged the stadium as the Greenie Sartorial outfit lined up against the L. S. U. well-dressed men. It was the Wave's last game of the season and it meant the championship if they could put it under their derbies. Tulane's fashion plates employed the Kuppenheimer, Sears-Roebuck and Finchley shifts, while L. S. U. used the Society Brand, Fashion Park and Hart, Schaffner & Marx plays in their repertoire of tricks.

Tulane after much difficulty succeeded in engaging Adolphe Menjou as head coach, while L. S. U. signed up Lew Cody as their mentor. Both coaches were equally confident and a RIPPING game was in sight.

At 2 P.M. the whistle blew and twenty-two custom-tailored men swagged out on the green. Tulane made first down on her pointed lapel formation. L. S. U. was using an unbalanced formation, with five buttons on the vest and three on each sleeve. On a signal for a sack suit Tulane tore off five yards of imported woolens. L. S. U. called for rainbow colored suspenders and braced up. The next play L. S. U. was penalized when Cuff-Links was found running loose around the end of Shirt-Sleeves. The Wave, on three attempts to look Ritzy in blue serge suits, lost the crease in their pants. This was, however, recovered when Hot-iron was sent into the game. The ball went to the Tigers on Tulane's pencil striped line.

Coach Adolphe sent in a Tulane substitute in a form-fitting dinner jacket. The Tiger's mentor, Lew Cody, retaliated by throwing in three tuxedos with white vest and pique shirts. On the next play L. S. U. was penalized for slugging when Manhattan Shirt's stud busted and hit an Olive and Blue model in the eye. L. S. U. then reeled off twelve yards by putting on three pairs of plus-fours. The Tulane captain asked for time out and called for mirrors from the sidelines, and after tiddying up the Greenies looked much better.

The Tulane stands went into an uproar when Coach Menjou sent in Stetson, his head man and a triple threat. Stetson was wearing a tall silk hat, a pea jacket and white buckskin shoes. This sub puzzled the Tigers for a minute. They could not tell whether he was going to the opera, joining the navy or playing tennis. The Tigers were demoralized, but stiff collars and red cravats made them stand out in a blaze.

An Evening in Night Court

Silas Samuel Snoopnose, cub reporter for the Tulane News Bulletin, was told by the city editor to cover night court in New Orleans just after the police had raided all the notorious gambling houses and opium dens near the Audubon Park "Tango Belt." Strange to say, all twenty-two of these social, aid and pleasure clubs pleaded guilty as charged. However, every one of them offered reasons why the court should show leniency in each case. Here are some of the reasons as jotted down hurriedly by Cub Snoopnose (special correspondent of the JAMBALAYA).

Case No. 1

PHOOEY KINDA SIMPS: "Sure, yer honner, we're guilty of vagrancy, suspicious characters and no visible means of support. Dat's straight. But we ain't always been bums. An' we got ambitions. Our plan is to hock the silver basketball cup the umpire gave us and then we'll have enough to live on until the D. P. W. takes us on as White Wings."

Case No. 2

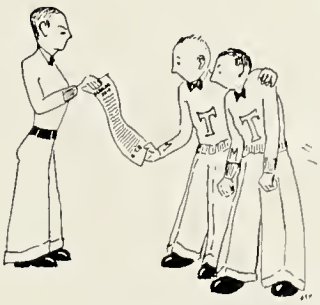
PRIVATELY KEPT ANIMALS: "Reckon they ain't no use argying with you, jedge. 'Spect we did look pretty ornery when we come in from the wide open spaces, but now we got a swell dump on the Great White Way and if you let us go this time, we promise never to yell at the little girruls who pass by our front porch. When we get some chairs we'll even sit inside and besides now we have a John L. Sullivan to protect our honor.

Case No. 3

KISS ANOTHER: "Suh, how could we remain respectable when you think who our neighbors are? Besides, the rowdiness you heard was just the tea-girls feeling a little bit more at home since we took down "Welcome" and put "Step In" above the door. And because we gave several black and white affairs, even though we are Southerners, is no reason to keep us here all night, suh!"

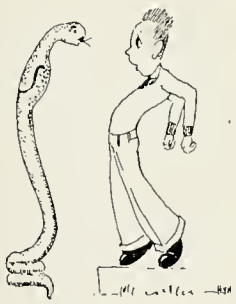
Case No. 4

SELLIT CHEAP: "We admit Tammany Hall would only be a back alley without us. Sure, we are politicians. We WOODen never get no offices otherwise. Don't blame us all, though; blame Bill, the "Boss." When he gets out we're gonna turn respectable again an' clean up politics. Then we can put on another membership drive an' find somebody to stay in our house of iniquity."



Case No. 5

ANOTHER TERRIBLE ORGANIZATION: "We've managed to keep out of jail for years, and now just look what happened. This time it looks pretty bad. Although we have a lot of lawyer members, none of 'em are any good, and we haven't enough money to bribe the jury. However, maybe Clara Bow's co-partner can do it for us. But take a look at our scholarship and you'll be bound to show us leniency."

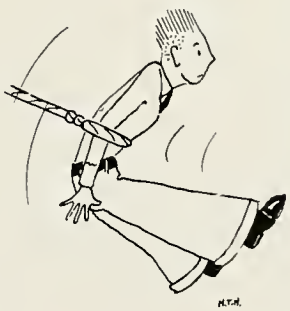


Case No. 6

SEMPER NIHIL: "We never pretended to be much, your honor. And we've actually become so degraded that we don't have to get drunk to see snakes. But if we are lucky enough to lure more rich country bumpkins away from the cracker barrels in Logtown, we'll promise to stop taking nickels out of the collection plate in Sunday school."

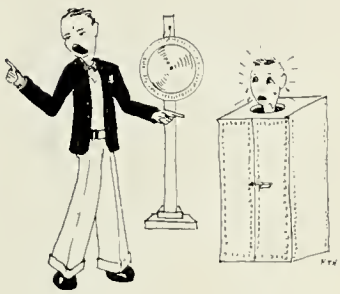
Case No. 7

KEEP SOBER: "What we need most, yer honner, is more moral support. We wuz good boys until Pappy Webb went out to California and got ruined. Then Granddaddy Armstrong has started staying out all night yodeling, and "Pee-Wee" came home the other night with a black eye, after being arrested in a street fight. We're getting bigger members, but we need better ones; but give us one more chance and we'll do our best to pull 'em in."



Case No. 8

Don't Toucha Drop: "On our word of honor, judge, we don't deserve this. It's true we have been disturbing the peace on every Sunday afternoon, but there is something in that tea we drink that gets our Irish up. So don't be too hard on us because one of our members hit the cop a murderous blow with his tennis racket and just because a couple of boys changed to other clubs."

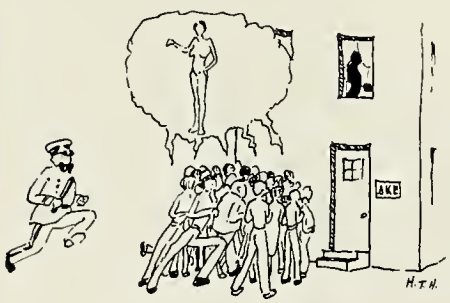


Case No. 9

Pretty Dumb Toasters: "Judge, this is a case of mistaken identity. That isn't an opium den in our house. It's just a Turkish bath for rushees. And don't accuse us all of gambling just because Evans and Fitzgerald ran a lottery once. Besides ain't it bad enough to have two guys like Eddie Gessner, "the Goose," and Johnny Glover, "the Gander," in the same social organization? Come on, judge, let us off."

Case No. 10

Sweet and Elevated: "Since our choice FLOWER went up in a CRAFT all by himself, we've been expecting him to land in a BUSCH any day, but LITTLE by little he and the rest of the boys are coming back to earth and we promise not to get any FOWLER, and that is not YOKUM. Besides, we only come to the city for classes, since we moved out in the suburbs of Broadway."



Case No. 11

Do Keep Elsewhere: "To tell the truth, judge, we just couldn't help ourselves. We went broke on the Big Meeting last Christmas and nearly had to sell the house. So we thought we'd save it by doing a little gambling. And honest we weren't trying to get away from the policeman when he tried to arrest us, but were rushing to satisfy a quotation by our Big Brutal Bashful Blonde Blizzard that there was an artist model in the house. So don't be too hard on us, judge."

Case No. 12

Beautiful Timid Papas: "Now, judge, we didn't mean any harm. You can see we're sweet boys because we still wear baby pink and baby blue and the big noise we were making was just the finish of our back-to-nature swimming party. Besides since all our football players are leaving we've got to do something to keep our mothers rushing for us."

Case No. 13

Zoom Bam Toot: "Well, your honor, it was this way: We had a couple of boys visiting us from out of town, a sort of convention, you know, and since we only had "Four Days to Live," we were making the best of it when little Charlie got a little too much, thought he was in school politicking and got mixed up with some other boys, also on a convention, but really, we had nothing to do with it."

Case No. 14

Darling Star Players: "We, your honor, absolutely deny that anything such as we are accused of could have occurred within the walls of our palatial and most highly respected domicile. What with a Phantom of the Opera keeping us in cold shivers all the time and a preacher to show us the straight and narrow path—what chance, I ask you, have we to do wrong?"

Case No. 15

Swell Punks: "Your honor, we're always WRIGHT except when we are wrong. Besides, the boys were a little noisy as they have no HOLMES this year, and while Sig was about to SLAUGHTER a piece on the piano, Suitcase Simpson thought he would give us a little tap dance and he hit his BUTARD on the floor and that was what really raised the rumpus."

Case No. 16

Some Are Mute: "Sure we're guilty, but what are you going to do about it? We have the power of the press behind us. We know all about sports and are on the "in" about everything in general—just ask our boys Sam and Cliff, but as for the rest of us—we're dumb."

Case No. 17

Kinda Noisy: "Your honor, all we can say is —we got a football player! Hooray! We got a football player! We got a foo....."

Case No. 18

Positively King Pins: "We were merely celebrating Paul's marriage, and we were all making a toast to the groom when one of our alumni came in and started singing soprano, and all the boys thinking it was Paul's wife ran to greet her, and in the rush spilled their soda water on the floor. And that is what you have evidence of, soda water, nothing hard."

Case No. 19

Spanish Inquisitors: "Si, senor, although ignorance of the law is no excuse, you might excuse us because of custom. Some of our boys did not know it was against the law to fence, and besides we never were so good as basketball players."

Case No. 20

Sure Plenty Echoes: "We admit there was a lot of noise. We are noted for that, but then we have a good excuse. Bruno was just training an understudy to take his place next year and had him running through yells with the rest of the members. It's sort of a tradition with us, disturbing the peace. First, we had Lawrence, then came Bruno, and now we just have to have somebody to succeed him, and, your honor, that was what all the racket was about. Besides a few of our members play music and were practicing up."

Case No. 21

Lowest Price: "That noise we made was only because we were practicing basketball. We can't play nothing else, and we lost our students since Craig left. Pat does nothing but Putt Putt and the rest of us sleep. Really, we ain't guilty."

Case No. 22

Angelic: "Why, oh why, dear judge, did your naughty policeman drag us here with the rest of this common herd. We are like Caesar's wife—above suspicion. If you don't think so, the Y. M. C. A. records will prove it. Besides, our boys are all hard-working men. They try to get ads and make wise cracks, but purely parlor jokes, we assure you."

GREEN WAVE RETURNS FROM GEORGIA

MASSEY AND OUR MASCOT
"Billie" Bierman

BANKER WELCOMED

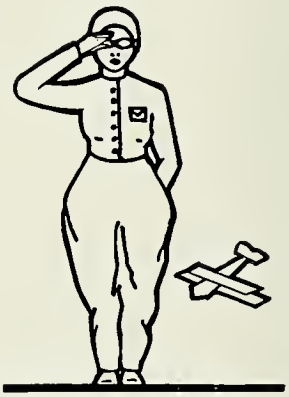
GERMAN AMBASSADOR AT TULANE

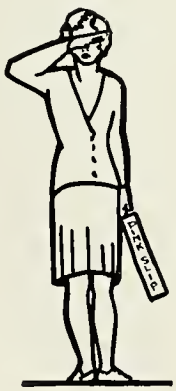
A Sales Talk

Salesman: "As Balfour's representative I feel it a privilege to be able to talk before this circle of the 'recommended' few of the Freshman Class. You see before you a collection of eleven pins, the virtues of which I shall endeavor to place before you. With the aid of my magic lantern and a few descriptive phrases I will give you an intimate glimpse into fraternity life. I feel sure that one of these pins will prove desirable to each of you."

PI BETA PHI

Follow this arrow, for it points straight to the beauty section. You needn't wear it when you have your large picture made. Everyone will know you are a Pi Phi any way. This year your chances which were always good were unanimous, having both editors of the JAMBALAYA. You must not mistake this arrow. It belongs to Venus and not Cupid, showing that the "mama" influence is still strong. You'll ride in aeroplanes and battleships. Wearers of this pin may be able to get their little sisters and daughters next year now that they can rush in such a large way.



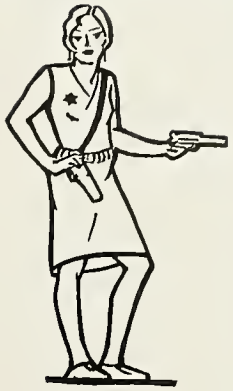


ALPHA OMICRON PI

This is a very simple pin, just three letters—any child could wear it. The wearers of this pin don't allow the departure of Nanette to crush them too completely, for some day, somewhere, they expect to find another even if it is at someone else's rushing party. They have the "Price" of office-holding to offer you. Tradition has it that the Alpha Omicron Pis have brilliant heads on their shoulders and the golden splendor of the present chapter's crowns of glory sustain this.

CHI OMEGA

This X and horseshoe pin has had a 'warm" time this year. If you join these Elks, you may be the one Freshman to be first temporary chairman. If you stay with them for four years you can be assured of a place on executive. You can always count on an annual—The Dansant—even if you don't get invited anywhere else. But remember, if you are interested in the opposite sex, the Chi Omegas are like the Northwest Mounted Police—"they always get a man."



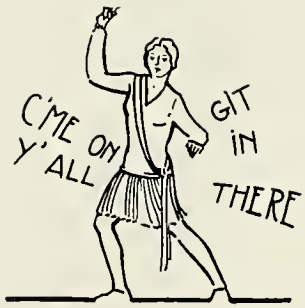
KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

This key will unlock the doors of New Orleans society to you. But to keep them open you will find it expedient to get down on your knees nightly and pray for another Kappa debutante year like the last one. To the members of this society beauty no longer counts —they have had their quota in the beauty section (besides this they have enough frills and ruffles represented) and now they are out for brains. If you accept this key you will immediately go into training for Phi Beta Kappa.

PHI MU

Consider this peculiarly shaped pin carefully. It has taken over the management of the J. L. House, but it doesn't seem able to manage its "campuses" so successfully. In spite of a late start this year they ran into a large school of fish and caught twenty-three for the "fry." Their numbers are large, but they do give some the "gait." (See the one called Tex.) It may be well to take this pin with the heart. It's always a good hand.

ALPHA DELTA PI



Here's the diamond-shaped pin with the democratic handclasp. If others have staged more successful campaigns for executive, the wearers of this pin are more original and form their own organizations with themselves as head. They despair not of publicity after the departure of the favored Freshman from Bayou Pom Pom, for grandstand notice is given to the Alpha Delta Pi pin, rivaled only by the auburn billows of the Rah Rah girl backing the Green Wave. Perseverance is their motto: If they can't make any headway with the Freshmen the first year they are not discouraged, for after all it's just first down and three to go.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

This kitish looking pin inspires its members to nonchalance. After an embarrassing rushing season they don't reach for a Murad, but just say "We have met our quota." This is the only true fraternal organization on the campus, the true haven for little sisters, but there is a limit for every family even though kites known no bounds. One of Newcomb's outstanding modistes who wears this pin imports her styles from Wisconsin instead of Paris and has a controlling interest in a "nightly fag vehicle" for dormitory students.

ALPHA EPSILON PHI

If you wear this pin, simple yet expensive, you can waive constitutions at will "as see-forth" and so-forth. One of their worthiest put the Debating Club on its feet so that she could run it. You may not have airships, but you can ride in Rolls Royces and 'tis said that La Salle coupes are in vogue and diamond wristwatches are being worn now at Newcomb. Dizzy and dazed from the persistent pursuits of eager Freshmen the Alpha Epsilon Phis changed overnight from a retail to a wholesale concern and open their "pearly gates" to 21. Hence, 'tis rumored that short talks by Margaret Sangster of "anti-population" fame are now in order on the subject of pledge control.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

A young national, it is true, but this shield covers a great deal of campaigning and if their politic smiles hold out perhaps Pepsodent will have a proposition to make. They haven't the luck of the Alpha Delta Pis. They form organizations, but fail to get the presidencies. Since the little lamb has left their fold your chances for morning, afternoon, night and late dates on the Easter house party are not so good, but if you are "misogamistically" inclined (look it up) this won't bother you.

BETA PHI ALPHA

This intriguing pin is representative of the advance from the simple pin and simple composition of the Apes to the more complicated Beta Phi Alphas, who have included in their history tamers of "Blonde Blizzards," rising aspirants of Phi Beta Kappa and candidates for the laurels of Sarah Bernhardt. But even if they have lost their old name they still keep up with their old habits, and with the aid of the Biology Department and a rose without thorns they have swung from branch to branch daring even to swerve from the monopoly on the Dramatic Club to other activities.

BETA SIGMA OMICRON

And this is another three-letter pin. Perhaps the letters D. A. B. would be more representative. Despite the storm and strife in their midst the majority won out. The minority walked out and Beta Sigma Omicron was established. Aside from furnishing music and amusement for the school they also have outstanding debaters and child prodigies. With their firm foothold on the minor offices some day they may progress to major ones too.

YOU CAN LEAD A MAN TO COLLEGE

BUT YOU CAN'T MAKE HIM THINK

Thinking young men, however, who have vision, and instinctively turn to the good things in life, realize the importance of correct clothes.

Godchaux's Clothes for College Men create an outward impression of a well-ordered straight-thinking young man within.

Godchaux's

HANDY DICTIONARY OF FOOTBALL

Alumnus—One who watches the football game while he consumes Scotch and makes bets on the Alma Mater.

Ball—An oval inflated pig's overcoat that is brutally kicked or fallen upon.

Cleats—A rather inducing shoe addition to which opposing players' faces are magneted.

Defense—Eleven men who are trying to make you lose the bet you made on your college team.

Down—Time to take another drink while the football players are thinking of another way to put out the 275-pound guard.

Eleven—Nickname for some football teams.

Forward Pass—A play which causes the spectators to rise and fall, just as the ball does.

Gridiron—A field on which the only person who is sure to get any pay every time is the referee.

Interference—When the bozo in front of you won't stay sit.

Officials of the Game—Hard-boiled nuts who are always penalizing the home team when every yard means something.

Referee—An official of the game who cannot be popular with all the people any of the time.

Scrimmage—When opposing teams try to play football between arguments.

Side Lines—Where coaches and staunch supporters sit and dare the referee to come when he pulls a raw one.

Tackling—A playful way players have of breaking the neck of the fellow who is carrying the ball.

Touchdown—The ability of one player to have ten men knock out eleven opposing men so that he can put the ball in a certain spot for the rooters and cheer leaders to go crazy about. Also another good excuse for one more drink.

Victory—An intangible thing which students use as an excuse to shout for a holiday next Monday, or why they haven't got their lessons prepared, or to celebrate in the popular fashion, anti-Volstead.

Tulane's Beau Brummels Capture S. I. C. Sartorial Championship

Coach Cody then sent in his latest find, Oxford, who worked up from the scrub squad of clothing dummies to the varsity. Oxford stamped all over the Tiger backfield wearing broad-toes. L. S. U. made another scratch play with Heavy Woolens getting right next to the skin. The Tulanians were now wearing racoon skin coats, enabling them to hide their bodies from exposure. So the Tigers sent in Wellgroomed wearing a similar outfit. The referee called a taxidermist to determine which coat had the better skins. It was a toss-up, but Tulane won by inches with its plaid lining.

Using the Prince of Wales formation, the Wave now flashed blue shirts against the Tigers and wore them down with a series of fancy vests. The Tigers called time out and tried on several camel's hair coats to no avail. As they lined up again it looked as if the Tulanians would score a touchdown. The L. S. U. men's trousers were baggy at the knee as they dug in for their last-stand defense.

The Tigers expected the Greenies to try a heavy chinchilla ulster through the line. But the Wave quarterback outguessed them by putting on two-pants suits and ploughing around end while Tuxbow was adjusting his tie. It was a touchdown, the Greenies having gained yard after yard, adding extra material all through the game. The Greenies also got the point after touchdown on a smoking jacket with silk-faced lapels. Shortly after the whistle blew and the game ended. The Tigers became enraged and tore off everything, exhibiting pink and blue negligees, but Coach Cody saved the day when he sent Kimonos out to cheer up the boys.

It was a great day for the Olive and Blue dressers. After the game Arrowshirt was still stiff, while Coatcuffs was muddy and Longpants baggy, but why worry? The boys brought home another championship, and nobody could tell them that clothes did not make the woman—they all had dates that night.
