

Welcome to New Orleans

and the

The Court of Two Sisters

613 Rue Royal

'Charm Gates. Touch them, they will give you charm'... So reads the sign on our celebrated portals and we believe it!

Restaurant - Capot of New Orleans

The Court of Two Sisters

RESTAURANT

We hope that your visit will be filled with pleasantries and many memorable moments of which we'd like to be a part

We're quite unique as a City and more personally as a Restaurant. We are traditionally old New Orleans! Whether you are 'Day Doers' or 'Nite People' we'd like to extend our many moods to you. Quality, service and atmosphere are the integral essence of our hospitality.

You'll find us in the heart of the Vieux Carre...French Quarter...or more literally 'old square',-within walking distance to many of the Hotels and newly renovated Motels. Our facilities are such that we are able to accomodate you for your coming Convention in most ways!

Until we have the pleasure of serving you and joining in the proverbial cup of conviviality...

We remain

Sincerely yours,

Joe Fein
your host

Specialty of the House . . .

To acquaint you with 'La Belle Vie' . . . the Good Life, and more!
It is a way of life that has been forgotten in the bustle of today's everyday living.

Creole and Continental cuisine elegantly prepared, graciously served, coupled with the best of today's entertainment are here under one roof!

Ye Olde Court Tavern

Proof that man does not live 'by bread alone'!

Hot, healthy sandwiches served on N. O. French bread, or rye . . . with a Tankard of Ale, Beefeaters from the well for your double Martini . . . or any one of our imported premium brand liquors. Earthy wood accessorized with copper and pewter creates a warm spirited feeling.

After hours? Jazz, N. O. style of course!

The Tavern is available for private functions on Sunday by reservation.

Our Courtyard

Largest and most famous in the Vieux Carre houses the romantic aura that ranks New Orleans "America's Most Interesting City"!

N. O. drinks, Creole cuisine served out-of-doors.

We suggest our Plantation breakfast to start off your day . . . an unforgettable experience in Gastronomie!

AFTERNOON MINT JULEP • DINNER • COCKTAILS • CAFE BRULOT

The Grand Marquis Room

This will be your elegant moment in New Orleans!

Once the Parlor of the Marquis de Vandruetil, we have recreated this room for those who would like to bring back a little bit of yesterday . . . Burnished gold, crystal, high mirrors and a yen for the sophisticated! French, Creole and Continental fare are graciously served in keeping with the mood (atmosphere). Excellent for Ladies' Conventions . . . or a natural for any type private function, this room is located on our second floor.

GOURMET
DINNER

9 Course

Table d'Hote

by reservation only.

Our newest addition . . . the renovation of our Creole Patio Room, an informal indoors-outdoors room that has a little bit of everything!

We have taken you on a tour of Our World!

'Thank you,

And may the Charm of Happiness be bestowed upon you as pass thru this gate'

Inscription left by the Camor Sisters, original proprietors of The Court of Two Sisters.