

9/5/2007

Taqueros Coyoacan Mercado 9/8 &9/9

Chef and I would like to thank you for making our last month of business a good one. It was nice to see your familiar faces once again. We will be open this Saturday & Sunday from 10am-2pm selling what's left of Chef's secret ingredients.

Come and visit our mercado for spices, chiles, Mexican ingredients and products. We will also be selling left over beer and liquor inventory. Some of the products you'll find here are Mexican vanilla, chocolate from Monterrey, nopales, achiote, tamales de cochinita pibil!, and many more including Chef's own Adobo and Asada spice blends. You don't want to miss this. We'll have agua fresca, cold beer and tamales if you need one last fix. For those of you looking for memorabilia, we'll be selling our Coyoacan china, flatware, stemware, table cloths, napkins and other wares as well. See you this weekend!

Ingrid