NOW!

After many months of exciting preparation, we are installed and ready to welcome you at 417 Royal Street. This historic building (you'll find it listed in the guide books as Patio Royal or the Paul Morphy house) has been thoroughly remodeled and decorated, and we have made it as pleasant and beautiful as we could. Our food and our staff are the same you have always known—please come and see us soon.

Brennan's IS IN ITS NEW HOME (which used to be Patio Royal) AT 417 ROYAL STREET

TRADITIONAL NEW ORLEANS BREAKFAST

To Brennan's chefs an egg is a thing to conjure with, coffee must be symphonic, and breakfast is not to be hurried through; at least not this kind of breakfast, done magnificently in the old plantation manner, and served at any hour.

LUNCHEON

To break a busy day with luncheon at Brennan's, looking out into a cool patio shaded by a great magnolia tree—this is part of the fun of being in New Orleans; and as all smart Orleanians know, the luncheon price list is full of happy surprises. For instance:

LUNCHTIME COCKTAILS

Martini or Old Fashioned, 25c

DINNER

The Friends of Brennan's have been so pleased with our specially priced early dinner menu that we have decided to keep on serving it, easy prices and all, right up to closing time. Along with, of course, the regular a la carte menu that is nationally famous.
