L 976.3
(758)
J99

I Love You, My New Orleans

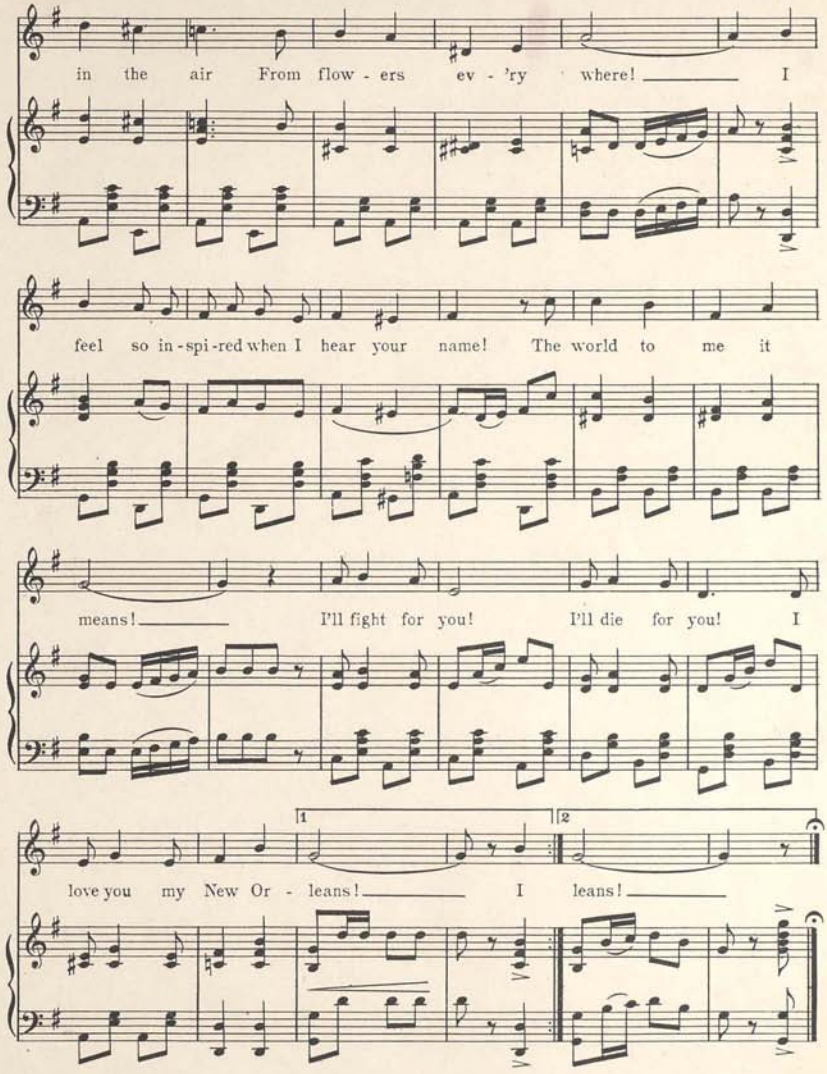

Words and Music by
N. J. CLESI

Rights for mechanical instruments reserved.
Copyright 1914 by N. J. Clesi, New Orleans, La.

They can - not stop us in our fight for fame!
These ver - y words you'll hear the peo - ple say,
You bet! We're go - ing some!
All thro' the com - ing years.
The Pa - na - ma Ca nal will pave the way
Our men are fa - mous for their spi - rit strong,
Gee Whiz! What bus - y scenes!
Our wo - men, love - ly queens,

Let's get to - geth - er, then, and shout Hoo - ray!
So all the world must join us in the song,
Let s boost for New Or - leans!
All Hail! to New Or - leans.
REFRAIN
I love you my New Or-leans, my dear old town, The grand - est
f-ff
and most fair, I love ev - 'ry breath of per - fume in the air From flow - ers ev - 'ry where! I feel so in-spi-red when I hear your name! The world to me it means! I'll fight for you! I'll die for you! I love you my New Or - leans! I leans!

1
2

TRY THESE OVER ON YOUR PIANO

Latest Song Hits

Won't You Please Say Yes?

The Great Thelma Waltz Song
"I WANT THE WORLD TO KNOW THAT I LOVE YOU"
For Sale at all music dealers

Copyright 1914 by N. J. Clesi, New Orleans, La.

"Thelma"

Song Ballad

Dainty!

Catchy!

I want the world to know that I love you or

(The Land of the Midnight Sun)

Copyright 1916 by N. J. Clesi

Complete copies for sale wherever music is sold