WELCOME A. & M.

Jackson feels justly proud today in having as their visitors the Aggie football team and all Aggie supporters. We welcome you back to Jackson, and assure you that the Stadium which we are dedicating today was built with only one purpose and that to promote clean sports in a big way. Again Aggies, we say, Welcome.

GREETSING TO THE GREEN WAVE AND THEIR FRIENDS

All loyal Mississippians join in extending greetings and homage to our gridiron visitors of the day of dedicating the Municipal Football Stadium—to His Excellency Hugh ey P. Long, Governor of Louisiana, his staff, and the members of the Tulane University football team.

Tulane and Mississippi A. & M. are old and honorable rivals—fitting foemen for the dedication of the Municipal Football Stadium. We welcome the Tulane fans who have come up from New Orleans and other places in Louisiana to cheer their champions. They have a splendid team this year and Mississippi wishes them good luck against all other rivals.

We shall always be glad to see Louisiana fans in the Stadium. We shall spare nothing for their comfort. By their loyal support they will help their football team in its efforts to win, making them feel almost as much at home as though they were playing in Louisiana. Through all the years of wholesome football rivalry between Tulane and Mississippi A. & M. we hope these loyal supporters from Louisiana will continue to come to Mississippi with their team and their cheers.

The Louisiana State University plays here, Saturday, October 20, against Mississippi A. & M. We shall be happy to see all of today's visitors come for that game, and at the same time enjoy our State Fair.

Jackson is honored in having as their notable guests attending today's game, Hon. Huey P. Long, Governor of Louisiana; Hon. Theo. G. Bilbo, our own Governor; Mayor O'Keef, of New Orleans; Members of the State Legislature. We welcome you.

GENE CHADWICK

The ruling ineligible of Gene Chadwick, captain and star back of the Mississippi Aggies, has been a severe blow to the Aggies' prospects for the coming season. Chadwick, rated as one of the best passers and punters in the Conference, was an integral part of the Aggie offense and defense and the Aggie mentor will have a difficult problem to find someone to fill Chadwick's shoes.

It seems that Chadwick played for two minutes in a game against Florida about three years ago, and according to a Southern Conference ruling, participation in any varsity intercollegiate game, even if it's just for a few minutes, counts as a year of competition against the participant, and no player is allowed to compete for more than three years.

The action of the Aggie athletic authorities in this case is highly commendable, and it is characteristic of the sportsmanship which has always colored the interrelation of the institutions in the Southern Conference. However, it is much to the Aggies' advantage to rule Chadwick ineligible now, rather than to have to forfeit some important game later on in the season.

Besides being an individual star, Chadwick was a leader in whom his teammates had much confidence.

"Helping Build Mississippi"

If you think you're beaten you are,
If you think you dare not—You don't,
If you'd like to win but don't think you can,
It's almost a sin—You won't.

If you think you'll lose you're lost,
For out in the world we find,
Success begins with a fellow's will
It's all in the state of mind.

Full many a race is lost
Ere even a step is run,
Full many a coward fails,
Ere even his work is begun.

Think big and you deeds will grow,
Think small and you'll fall behind,
Think that you can and you will,
It's all in the state of mind.

Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But sooner or later the man who wins
Is the man who thinks he can.

TULANE

Tulane's Green Wave makes the trip from New Orleans today to add another contest to the keen rivalry which has existed with A. & M. since 1901.

Ever an important game, this contest always turns out to be one of the most bitterly fought of the season. Today's game should be harder fought as the final outcome has a distinct bearing upon the race for the Southern Conference honors.

The Tulane team this year boasts of having the greatest team in its history, with Capt. Rucker leading a powerful line, consisting of Elmer McCance, a former high school mate of Rucker's of Pine Bluff High School at tackle, Bodenger and Eskrigge at guards, Evens at center and Roberts and Holland at ends. Anderson, Blake, Mangum, Wall, Speirs and Rutaud are also first class men and are used regularly in the line. Ford and Luchsinger are steady ends and are called in often. The backs, headed by the "Blonde Flash" Bill Banker at half consist of Armstrong at quarter, Sceuws at the other half and Hopper at full, with Jastram, Young, Massey, Baumbach, Abernathy, J. Whatley, Yokum and H. Whatley, all good men, equal to the occasion.

Tulane's impressive victory over Louisiana Normal of 65-0 last Saturday, showed even the most skeptical that the Green Wave harkens back to that great team of 1924 and that's saying volumes.

PRINCIPAL CHANGES IN 1928 RULES

The rules governing incompleted backward passes have been so modified that only those passes which have been clearly thrown a distance of approximately two (2) yards through the air before striking the ground, are now dead at the point of recovery. Such passes are defined as protected backward passes.

2. Rule on muffed punt has been amended so that is no longer necessary to draw any distinction between a muffed punt and a fumble. After a ball has been kicked beyond the line of scrimmage it is to be considered a “kicked” ball until it is declared dead by the referee.

3. The traditional rules governing “on-side” and “off-side” still obtain, except that if such a kicked ball is legally recovered by a player of the kicker’s side, he may not advance it beyond the point of recovery.

4. On forward passes there can be no interference whatsoever by players of the passer’s side who have crossed the line of scrimmage.

ALABAMA NEXT

A week from today the faithful followers of the A. & M. team will gather with Tuscaluso fans at Starkville to witness the battle between Alabama and A. & M. The game this year will be A. & M's golden opportunity to wipe out the defeat of last year at the hands of the Crimson Tide.

The game last year was close and threw quite a scare into the ranks of the Alabama followers. They are coming to Aggietown with blood in their eyes determined to make it more decisive.

EVANS, Tulane
PAST GAMES.

The nineteenth clash between Tulane and Miss. A. & M. will feature the dedication exercises at the new Jackson Municipal Stadium today. A gala program being arranged for the event, with Governor Bilbo of Mississippi and Governor Huey Long of Louisiana as official representatives of their states.

Tulane and the Aggies met at Jackson in 1914, when the Aggies rolled over the Greenies by a 61 to 0 score. It is the only one of their series played in Jackson and is the most decisive victory ever recorded. The series record is 10 victories for Tulane, six for Miss. A. & M. and two tie games.

The series first started in 1901 and ran through 1904. Then came a lapse of three years. In 1908 the games were resumed and the teams met annually until 1914. It was not until 1920 that the teams met again and their series has continued uninterrupted except in 1923.

The Aggies have taken three of the last four games from the Greenbacks, including the last two. In 1926, with Bernie Bierman as coach, they humbled the Green by a 14 to 0 score and in 1927, when Bierman took over coaching at Tulane and John Hancock succeeded Bierman at A. & M., the Aggies trounced their former teacher by a 13 to 6 margin.

The Aggies suffered a severe blow recently when Captain Gene Chadwick was ruled ineligible, but Coach Hancock has gone on trying to find a worthy successor to the Maron star. He has been working Pappenheimer, last year's great running back, at quarter, with Allen, Carley and Bridges and using Captain Walon Pickens, 'Dutch' Stone and Dallas Vandezowa at the other backfield posts.

The line is expected to take care of itself. Though they will be outweighed by Tulane, the difference will be slight and Coach Hancock expects them to make up in speed what they lack in heft.

The Aggies are being especially trained to watch Bill Banker's Tulane's blond flash. The Maroons got a taste of Banker's ball carrying ability last year, when the Greenie star scored a touchdown on the first two plays of the game. He will be a marked man from the start.

HOW THE “GREEN WAVE” GOT ITS NAME

Perhaps you have wondered how Tulane’s teams got the name “Green Wave”.

The Jambalaya of 1921 officially gives Edward Earl Sparling (Arts and Science, 1921) credit for dubbing the varsity eleven with the rollicking “nom de grid.” His original song poem “The Rolling Green Wave” being responsible.

From the President of Tulane University

Tulane University congratulates the City of Jackson and its citizens upon the completion of its magnificent new stadium. It is a privilege to participate in the dedication of this stadium. We, of Tulane, hope that this will contribute towards making Jackson a great centre of sport activities commensurate with its influence as one of the great business, social and educational centres of the South.

A. B. DINWIDDIE, President
"Blondy Bill" Banker, the Wave's "Blonde Blizzard," was proclaimed an all-Southern halfback in his First year. Watch him, for he'll be all-American this year. Watch him step today; he'll be unstoppable, not only in this game but in those to come. Bill only has to be the Bill of last year, and he'll be enough; but he'll be greater than ever, mark our word. Jot him down now for all-American, for he'll be there.
"THE GAME"

Tulane's football team makes the trip from New Orleans today to add another contest to the keen and admirable rivalry which has existed with A. & M. since 1901.

They are coming with the memory of that fateful day four years ago when these same Mississippi Aggies, led by Capt. "Speck" Young, shattered Tulane's championship hopes by being the only opponent to defeat the Green Wave.

It seems ages since that memorable day but it still lingers in Tulane's memory—so they are coming today to not only avenge that defeat but the one they received last year at the hands of the boys from Starkville.

The game today will be one of color as it opens the new Jackson Municipal Stadium and the boys from Mississippi will do their utmost to pry open this great day with a victory on its own soil and send the Tulane team home a ripple instead of the wave.

TWO BIG FOOTBALL ATTRACTIONS FOR MISSISSIPPI STATE FAIR

On Friday, October 19, as a feature of the Mississippi State Fair, two old college rivals will clash in this stadium—Millsaps vs. Mississippi College. The next day, on the closing day of the fair, Mississippi A. & M. will play Louisiana State University on this field.

In addition, there will be many other amusements and recreational features of the State Fair, which will be held October 15 to 20. Ringling Bros.-Barnum-Bailey circus, the biggest on earth, will show at the fair on Tuesday, October 16. A one dollar ticket will admit both to the fair grounds and the circus. There also will be the world-famous Johnny Jones shows, the Winter Garden revue, many free acts and free fireworks at night.
