ONE will always stand out!

You don't have to learn to like them

THE brilliant, breathless "get-away" of a star back brings the crowd to its feet by a common impulse. Equally natural and spontaneous is the response of smokers to Chesterfield's satisfying goodness, its wholesome smoothness.

No one ever has to "acquire" a taste for Chesterfield.

Smokers take to its pleasing flavor instinctively.

... And here's why: Chesterfield takes the sure, undeviating course to the one goal that counts in a cigarette — fragrant mildness and a ripened richness, without a hint of harshness or irritation. In short

MILDER and BETTER TASTE

When Brains Count!

In designing a good motor oil and motor fuel, brains count—just as in football. "Standard" Engineers in the largest petroleum research laboratory in the industry often go into a "huddle". That's one of the reasons why more motorists in this territory use "Standard" than any other brand.

Southern Conference Play Today

Georgia's clash with the powerful New York University football machine at the Polo Grounds today occupies first interest in Dixie football while Alabama and Florida, meeting in a stadium dedication game at Gainesville is another contest of importance.

Much attention also centers here where Tulane's great Wave plays a greatly improved and potentially threatening Auburn team.

The Plainsmen are coached by Chet Wynne, former Notre Dame star and later head coach at Creighton. Wynne has been bringing the Auburn squad along rapidly and they will give a good account of themselves from now on.

Where Tulane Goes For Clothes

North Carolina and North Carolina State meet today at Chapel Hill in one of those dog-eat-dog affairs.

South Carolina plays Furman, a non-conference team. The game is at Greenville.

Clemson meets V. M. I., at Norfolk. Virginia plays V. P. I., at Blacksburg. Washington and Lee tackles Maryland at College Park.

Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt meet in a game of real interest at Atlanta.

Mississippi A. & M. plays Henderson-Brown at Starkville.

Sewanee and Chattanooga tie up at Chattanooga.

Tennessee plays Carson-Newman at Knoxville. Kentucky tangles with Duke at Durham. Louisiana State and Ole Miss. play at Baton Rouge.

ALMA MATER

Sing these words as Tulane's Alma Mater is played

I

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully!
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

II

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy Children look to thee for bread!
Thou leadeest them to dreams and actions
splendid!
The hunger of their soul is richly fed!

III

We praise thee for thy future, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory
gleameth far!
We ever shall be part of
thee, great Mother!
There thou wilt be where e'er thy children are!

CHORUS

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee!
Pledge we now our fealty
true
Where the trees are ever
greenest,
Where the skies are
purest blue!
Hear us now, O Tulane,
hear us!
As we proudly sing to
thee!
Take from us our hearts'
devotion!
Thine we are, and thine
shall be!

Those Georgia Bulldogs

The battle of the Georgia Bulldogs and the Green Wave of Tulane at the Stadium next Saturday afternoon will be the South's classic of the year regardless of what happens to either the Greenies or Bulldogs today.

If both should be fortunate enough to win today, they will go to the gridiron packing the Championship wallop of the Southern Conference championship in their taped hands and legs. A defeat by Georgia at New York University would have no bearing on the Bulldogs' race for the Dixie title. An upset at the hands of the Plainsmen, however, would remove Tulane.

If Tulane wins, however, today, the game next Saturday will in all probability go a long way toward deciding the Southern championship. It would mean that both Georgia and Tulane will go into the game as unbeaten Southern Conference teams. Georgia only has to win the remaining games on its schedule which includes Alabama to win the title while if Tulane beats Georgia and Georgia or someone else takes Alabama means the Green Wave beyond question is title holder for 1930.

Every football fan in the South will want to be in the stands next Saturday.

Did You Know?

The first intercollegiate game was played between Rutgers and Princeton in 1869.

The highest score made is 222 to 0, Georgia Tech vs. Cumberland University, in a 45-minute game, 1917.

The largest number of touchdowns in a single game is 32, Georgia Tech vs. Cumberland, 1917.

Sewanee played five games on five successive days, defeating Texas, Texas A. & M., Tulane, L. S. U., and Ole Miss, without being scored on, 1899.

Longest punt, 108 yards, by Douglas, of Tennessee, against Clemson in 1902.

Longest place kick, 65 yards, by J. T. Haxall of Princeton vs. Yale, 1882.

The most successful consecutive trials for goal, 16, by James Preas of Georgia Tech vs. Cumberland, 1917.

Most difficult angle of successful goal for point after touchdown, made by Orville Overall of California vs. Stanford, 1903. Made from 20 yard line within 1 yard of right side line, tying the score.

Did You Know?

Longest drop kick by P. J. O'Shea of Wisconsin vs. Northwestern, 1908, from 62-yard line. Wet ball and field. Mark Payne of Dakota Wesleyan and George Cipp of Notre Dame Fresh both made 63 yards, but O'Shea's performance deserves highest ranking.

Five field goals were made by B. W. Trafford of Harvard vs. Cornell in 1890. Charles Brickley of Harvard vs. Yale repeated the performance in 1913.

Longest run from scrimmage made by Willis Terry of Yale vs. Wesleyan, 115 yards.

Most touchdowns in one season made by Jim Thorpe of Carlisle Indians, 25 in 1912, scoring 198 points.

Grange made 4 touchdowns in 12 minutes, Illinois vs. Michigan in 1924.

That Vic Halligan was chosen all-American tackle by an eastern writer a year after he graduated from Nebraska. It seems that the stories of his ability were just beginning to filter thru to the east.
