TULANE'S RECORD, HAIL!

The Green Wave of Tulane University pounding high along the nation's championship coast, enters today's game against the Sewanee Tigers with title hopes.

This Sewanee game means more than just another football contest. In this hour of football, the stadium turf will be marked for the last time by the worthy cleats of Bill Banker, Ike Armstrong, Charlie Rucker, Dick Baumbach, Jack Pizzano, Ford Seeuws, Lizzie Ford and John Whatley. It marks the end of the New Orleans playing career for these men.

So today keep an even closer eye on the wonderful ability of the Blond Blizzard, the elusiveness of the Green Ghost, the line pounding Seeuws and Pizzano, the line tearing Rucker and the speedy Whatley and fighting Ford.

Sewanee, always an able opponent for the Wave, will be out today in the hopes of making its entire season by an upset of Tulane. On the other hand, the men of Coach Bernie Bierman will be shooting for another target in their parade to a title. Already seven opponents have been crushed beneath the Olive surf and only the Tennessee Tigers and Louisiana Bengals remain in the path.

Banker is being hailed as an all-American today from coast to coast. Experts in every section will watch his activities today with an eye of placing him on their mythical all-star team. Likewise, Rucker, Armtsrong, Seeuws, Baumbach, Pizanno-—they are all in the spotlight as vital cogs of a superb machine.

The team that rolled over Texas A. & M., Mississippi A. & M., Georgia Tech, Georgia and Auburn must leave nothing to be done in the games against Sewanee and Louisiana State to claim the championship!

And that is plenty. The Louisiana Tigers and Sewanee Purple are natural fighting machines that give no quarter and ask none.

ON TO BATON ROUGE!

By sunset, if the weather man permits such a spectacle. New Orleans will be talking of the gridiron pilgrimage Thanksgiving Day to Baton Rouge.

That is the event next carded and when Tiger meets Tulane, the South stands by with interest. Some 24,000 are expected to be in the stands for the annual classic this year with thousands of that number going from New Orleans.

Many special trains already have been chartered and other thousands will go by automobile to the scene of the Turkey Day battle.

Coach Russ Cohen of the Louisiana State squad is pointing to Tulane. The Tigers have been getting in that frame of mind since the Arkansas game. A victory over the New Orleans team would make State men forget the season as a whole.

Bernie Bierman, head master of ceremonies at Tulane, is equally as determined to finish the season with a clean slate. And the one great hurdle is Louisiana State.

Both teams will be ready to shoot the works-and the works may mean anything. Whatever the circumstances demand. Desperate plays, long chances, fierce charging lines and brilliant offensive thrusts.

Don't fail to make your plans today, if not already made, to be in Baton Rouge Thanksgiving Day.

HATS OFF TO COACH BIERMAN

A quiet, unassuming football coach who has lahored long in the building of a great football machine at last has reaped victory.

Coach Bernie Bierman, the man behind the gun, has found his team clicking full force this season after long hours of planning plays, working out combinations of backs, building with his able assistants an adequate pass defense, talking situations over with his quarterbacks and a thousand things more that go hand in hand with finesse in football

Working with perhaps the smallest squad in the Southern Conference, 28 men in number, Coach Bierman has found highly capable men for every position and able substitutes to bolster the team when the going became roughest.

His system has been one of speed and clock-like precision, a game in which many men could handle the ball and do it well, a resourceful eleven with smart field generalship. The quick thinking when the quarterback deliberately permitted a safety in the Texas A. & M., game rather than kick a wet ball: the fine generalship in selecting plays against Georgia Tech, the precision in that march through Georgia, the time out against Auburn when the play was confused -all these and many others came from hours of talking "things" over with the quarterback.

Then, there is Ted Cox, Lester Lautensch!aeger-the demon scouts—who came back to the fold after scouting each opponent. knowing it seemed as much as the opposition did about their own plays. And the fine work of Lester in helping build a pass defense and the great line which Ted worked with and the fine condition of the men under the care of trainer Monk Simons. All these men played vital parts in the 1929 crusade.

BILLY BANKER

Captain Billy Banker, sometimes called The Bloud Blizzard, Iron Horse, Blond Viking and Big Bill, has made an astounding record as a demon halfback at Tulane University.

One of the most natural gridiron stars the South has ever seen. Banker has rounded the whole country to his cause with his brilliant ball carrying ability, fine defensive work, great blocking, passing and punting and fine leadership.

As captain of the team, he has brought forth the greatest of team work. Every man has fought to the last step for the Olive and Blue. And the Blond Blizzard has ever been in the midst of that fight.

Against Georgia, he was a prime factor in that glorious 80 yard march to a touchdown. He hit the line, drove off tackle, swept the ends—carrying the ball on almost every play until the goal line had been crossed and victory was perched on the banner Olive.

He helped besmirch the record of Georgia Tech in masterful style, he blocked for little lke on that famous run of the Green Ghost against Texas A. & M., he strode rampant over Auburn, he was dynamite to Mississippi A. & M., and poison to the others.

The record of Captain Bill and his mates will long live in the hearts of Tulanians. He has led his team to everlasting glory and the squad of 1929 will never be forgotten as long as football is revered as the greatest college sport.

TODAY'S PLAY IN SOUTHERN CONFERENCE

Tulane's Green Wave today will have the opportunity to splash into the lead of the nation's highest point scoring machines. Only the Sewanee Tigers can prevent that and it will be interesting to watch the efforts of the Wave to roll on.

Meanwhile, either Tennessee or Vanderbilt will be definitely removed from the title race at Knoxville. A tie score would take both teams out, leaving the Wave to itself as the leader.

While this contest holds greatest interest, other strong battles will be on during the afternoon in other sectors. Alabama is tackling Georgia Tech at Atlanta. Georgia is host to Auburn at Athens. V. M. I., plays Kentucky. Clemson and Florida tangle at Gainesville. Ole

The Spirit of the Game

—As an institution whose fortune is inseparably connected with that of New Orleans, the Public Service family is backing "The Green Wave" heart and soul.

—But aside from that, it's a man's game this football business. In rain, slush, cold; no matter what the odds or cost, the true football player fights on to win the game.

—Similarly, the Public Service game requires men. In storm, rain, cold; no matter what the odds or cost, street cars must move, electric lights must burn, gas must flow—at all times, in all weather. That's a man's game, too, and men who play it can understand the spirit of men who fight out on the grid.

THE SCORE BOARD

Watch It Carefully For Complete Information

Often only the officials and captains know what a certain penalty is for. We have sketched out the following to inform you. Each penalty is numbered below. When a penalty is inflicted the number of that penalty will be hung on the score board.

Please understand violations of rules are rarely intentional. They usually come from over-anxiousness, excitement and most often from the highly technical character of the present game.
