

Vox humana

Just to prove that we haven't forgotten you, here's the second issue of Vox Humana, brought to you with love from WTUL. And remember, Vox Humana is a bi-monthly publication (that's twice a month...not every other month), so keep your eye out for us in your mailbox and at your favorite businesses.

The delectables heard on the classic album hour can now be heard on the Monday Luncheon Special at noon. This coming Monday (4), Jefferson Airplane's Volunteers will be played in its entirety, the following Monday (11), the classic album from the Kinks—Lola vs. Powerman, and Monday (18), Randy Newman's first album.

Here are some of the things going on in the city this month:

at Old Man Rivers the Cramps play August 7th, Johnny Winter plays August 11th, Sea Level plays August 17th, and Jerry Lee Lewis will appear on August 29th; Tipitina's celebrates with a labor day party August 31st with Lil' Queenie and the Percolators. Things to look out for—Dr. John returns from his New York stint and Beverly Sills does her final performance of her career with the New Orleans Symphony in September. All this is subject to change and of course there is a lot more music coming our way that we haven't gotten the info on yet. To find out specifics, listen to 'TUL and call the clubs.

WTUL presents the Cartoons live from Tipitina's, August 6th, on the radio at 10pm. Also this month, the Jock of New Orleans will be playing a live Beach Boys tape, Monday August 11th, at 11pm. Aloha!

If you have a request, the number to call is 865-6210. Vox Humana is a bi-monthly feature from WTUL that tells what is going on in the city and on the airwaves. If you would like to be added to the mailing list, send your name to ours: WTUL-Vox Humana, Tulane University Center, New Orleans, LA 70118.
