

Dear Thelma,

This has been a fantastic year for Lucy and me, and you and your son are big parts of the reason. I was bowled over by The Confederacy of Dunces, and then meeting you put it all in loving perspective. You are a rare experience. Lucy and I will never forget our luncheon where we first met. We trust that there will be other ways to stay in touch in the future. Perhaps the outer circumference of your hurricane will blow in Philadelphia, but we will be in touch. Every best wish,
Sheldon & Lucy

Season's Greetings

LUCY AND SHELDON HACKNEY

Panel of a stained-glass window executed by Tiffany Glass Company of New York, 1894

Myra Clare Rogers Memorial Chapel, Newcomb College,
Tulane University

Originally located in the Newcomb Memorial Chapel, 1894-1954

