Dear Thelma,

Giuliano and I very much appreciated and enjoyed your succulent lunch as we sat in our booth at the Rivergate on Sunday. It was thoughtful of you in the extreme to have fixed it for us and we savoured every morsel.

The show turned out very well. We sold our Buck oil to a lawyer from Baton Rouge, nine early Louisiana maps to the New Orleans Historical Collection, and a number of other things.

I am only sorry that we did not have a chance to get together with you for another gala evening at a restaurant as we did the time before. Next time, I hope. Marcia was ill and did not come to New Orleans. Barbara sent you her love.

So do I!
