

Dear Mrs Toole:

4-2-81

My many thanks for sharing these articles from The Times Magazine with me. I do agree with you that they are both quite respectful ~~articles~~ articles. I was especially moved by Mr Lind's comments that your son's work "captured N.O. as no book of fact ever could." From my first reading of Confederacy I have believed this to be so. It is also quite fitting that we ~~now~~ have (according to the article) a Kew of Brethuis. The joy of your son's work is contagious! And can you imagine Confederacy of Dunces translated into <sup>(over)</sup>

Dear Mrs Toole:

HAPPY
EASTER

Kim
