task because everyone who loves his novel will be anxious to know more about the author.

I told Wayne and Tony that you had stated that you would not settle for only "50%" of Tony. That it has to be "100%". Both of them enjoyed your statement, but I understand you will have to work out the details with Mary.

Dear Mrs Toole,

Thank you again for visiting and bringing all of us such great pleasure with your conversation and you playing the piano and singing on Christmas Day.

It is a Christmas which we shall all treasure.

We are so glad to hear that you will be writing a biography of your son's life. This is such an important
