Christmas Bells

Why do bells for Christmas Ring?

Why do little children sing?

Why are hearts so blithe and gay on
This great Festal Day?

A message sweet comes from each bell

A message sweet these voices tell

How long ago a babe was born on this happy Christmas morn.

Ring, ring - ring, ring, O, bells so clear.

Sing, sing - sing, sing, O, children dear.

Long, long ago one Christmas morn

The Saviour of the world was born.

CHRISTMAS CAROL

In a lowly manger on the fragrant hay,
Long ago a baby with His Mother lay;
And she smiling held Him cradled on Her arm,
Longing there to keep Him safe from every harm.

From the East the wise men journeyed from afar,
Led across the desert by a blazing Star.
Came unto the manger where the Baby lay,
Cradled with His Mother in the fragrant hay.

Kneel in adoration, offered gifts of gold;
Of their long, long journey and the Star they told.
While the simple shepherds came to kneel and pray
Near the Christ Child's manger that first Christmas Day.

CHRISTMAS WELCOME

At this blessed Christmas season
Of kindly deeds and tender heart,
We pause and pay our humble tribute
To a day set specially apart.

Our welcome has the glow of Christmas:
Bright and happy, filled with cheer
For the merry Yuletide
And the coming year.

Skating

hurry quick, the ice is thick, get ready in a trice;
All tramping go across the snow to skate upon the ice.
all our mates, on shining skates, skim quickly to and fro.
hurry quick, the ice is thick, and we must skating go.
two, skating we go; one two, shouting, "Oh, ho!"
hurrah for the ice and hurrah for the snow, and hurrah for the ice - oh, ho!

THERE'S A SONG IN THE AIR

There's a song in the air! There's a star in the sky!
There's a mother's deep prayer, and a baby's low cry!
And the star rains its fire while the beautiful sing;
For the manger of Bethlehem cradles a King!

CHRISTMAS JOYS

Holly wreaths are shining,
Christmas bells are chiming,
And carols floating on the air,
With a tra-la-la, and a tra-la-la
And Christmas kindness everywhere.
With a tra-la-la-la-la.

There's frolic and fun and Christmas mirth
And blazing logs upon the hearth.
With Christmas candles shining,
And a tra-la-la and a tra-la-la,
And Christmas bells a-chiming
With a tra-la-la-la-la.

CHRISTMAS CANDY

Christmas comes but once a year,
Bringing joy, good-will, and cheer.
Everyone will gather 'round
To see what Santa brought to town.
Fancy toys for one and all;
As the snow-flakes gently fall.
There's one thing that's dear to me,
Christmas candy on the tree.
✓ Christmas Candy, Christmas Candy
Hanging on the tree.
Fine and dandy Christmas Candy
Tastes so good to me.
Santa comes but once a year
To bring us lots of joy,
Loaded down with Christmas cheer
For every girl and boy.

Green Cathedral

Kit: I know a green cathedral, a shadowed forest shrine,

June: Where leaves in love join hands above, and arch your prayer and mine;

Kit: Within its cool depths sacred the pristly cedar sighs.

June: And the fir and pine lift arms divine unto the pure blue skies.

Jill: In my dear green cathedral there is a flowered seat

June: And choir loft in branched croft

Myra: Where song of bird hymns sweet:

Kit: And I like to dream at evening

June: When the stars its arches light

Jill: That my Lord and God tread its hallowed sod.

Kit & Myra: In the cool, calm peace of night.

June & Jill: That my Lord and God tread its
hallowed sod.

Kit: In the cool, calm peace of night.
