

He's Muh Heartburn

He's a acid indigestion,
He's a horrid lung congestion,
He's a carry of the flu onst-called severe,
He's a rheumatoid arthritis,
He's a two-arm brucisitis,
Yet with all these melodies, I wish that he wazy mine.

He's a eye conjunctivitis,
He's a sneezy rhinitis,
His legs ain't straight - I think they called brandy legs.
His voice is kinda pip-squeak,
His hair ain't go no real peak,
But to me he's dynamite in kegs!

my Christmas Tree

verse

The image shows a handwritten musical score for the song "My Christmas Tree". The score is written on a piece of aged paper with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are written below the notes. The score includes a verse and a chorus. The lyrics are: "I've turned from my mind and eye with by you at no eye hold of the near same tall and you are". The score is written in a cursive, handwritten style.

my Worldview
Theme Song for the Movie of "Confederacy"

My worldview is the ocean's expanse;
My worldview is a planet afar;
My worldview is the river's depth;
My grasp is a shooting star;
My worldview is the firmament blue;
My worldview is Einstein profound;
My worldview is the orbital space;
In Shakespeare's plays I abound!

No trivial crass for me,
But Dante's "Divine Comedy",
And Milton's soaring "Paradise Lost",
Geoffrey Chaucer and Ben Jonson,
At any cost!

All minnesingers I embrace;
And lutes with their gifted troubadours;
Yea, Medieval Times were bright in the past;
And their spirit still endures!
