Hon. Lindy Boggs
It has been quite some time ago that I contacted you about a portentous matter of literary ownership and human justice: my son's "The Neon Bible".

You were warmly encouraging, and hope was revived. But, with no word from you, I am sadly disappointed. The Louisiana government officials must activate their consciencs.

Respectfully but adamantly,
Thelma D. Toole
