

AUGUST 3, 1980

WASHINGTON BEST SELLERSHardcover*FICTION*National

- | | | |
|-----------|---|----------|
| 1 | RAGE OF ANGELS , by Sidney Sheldon (Morrow, $12.95). In and out of court with a woman defense attorney. [7 weeks] | 1 |
| 2 | THE SPIKE , by Arnaud de Borchgrave and Robert Moss (Crown, $12.95). Spies and journalists mix and mingle in U.S. versus U.S.S.R. intelligence affairs. (10 weeks) | 4 |
| 3 | THE BOURNE IDENTITY , by Robert Ludlum (Marek, $12.95). A wanted assassin must contend with a strange and dangerous world after he is stricken with amnesia. [24 weeks] | 3 |
| 4 | INNOCENT BLOOD , by P.D. James (Scribner's, $10.95). A novel of crime and revenge with a profound psychological twist. [13 weeks] | 6 |
| 5 | RANDOM WINDS , by Belya Plain (Delacorte, $11.95). The life and times of three generations of family doctors. [12 weeks] | 2 |
| 6 | THE SECOND COMING , by Walker Percy (Farrar, Straus and Giroux, $12.95). Will Barrett, hero of "The Last Gentleman," confronts death-in-life and ends up falling in love. [6 weeks] | |
| 7 | A CONFEDERACY OF DUNCES , by John Kennedy Toole (Louisiana State University Press, $12.95). Chaos, lunacy and bad taste in New Orleans' French Quarter. [4 weeks] | |
| 8 | SOLO , by Jack Higgins (Stein and Day, $11.95). The suspenseful saga of a concert pianist turned Soviet assassin by the author of "The Eagle Has Landed." [1 week] | 9 |
| 9 | SINS OF THE FATHERS , by Susan Howatch (Simon and Schuster, $13.95). Bank bamboozling and other hanky-panky with the neurotic Van Zales of "The Rich Are Different." [3 weeks] | 5 |
| 10 | FALLING IN PLACE , by Ann Beattie (Random House, $11.95). Things fall apart in suburban Connecticut. [9 weeks] | |