

Announces the Steinway
CENTENARY

Throughout the world, artists and music lovers pay homage to STEINWAY in celebration of their 100th Anniversary.

WERLEIN'S invites you now to view and play the Centenary Steinway.

THE GREATEST OF THEM ALL

The
Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans

33rd PERFORMANCE

1953 Invitational Recital

DIXON HALL

NEWCOMB COLLEGE

Monday, October 26, 1953

8:15 p. m.

Gavotte in G MajorBach-Samuelson
Theme, from "Iphigenia"Gluck-Bowden
Ticklin' ToesF. B. Price

Brenda Guillory, Frances Shaw, Duo-Pianists

Chiribiribin — Trombone SoloA. Pestalozza
Andante — Baritone Horn SoloTchaikovsky
Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep — Sousaphone SoloJ. P. Knight

Russell Steele, Horn Soloist

Shirley Steele, Accompanist

Senata, Op. 49, No. 2 — First MovementBeethoven
Spanish Gypsy DanceMowrey

Carolyn Kirby, Pianist

The Nightengale and the RoseSaint-Saens
With Verdure Clad, from "The Creation"Haydn

Kay Long, Soprano

Barbara Lawrence, Accompanist

Waltz in C Sharp Minor, Op. 64, No. 2Chopin
Au Rouet — (At the Spinning Wheel), Op. 85Godard

Kendrick Smith, Pianist

Slavonic Dance No. 2 in E MinorDvorak-Kreiser
Banjo and FiddleWilliam Kroll

Mary Kay Schlichting, Violinist

Doris Kerr, Accompanist

Toccatà (1932)Khachaturian
Romance in E Flat MajorRachmaninoff

John Tobin, Pianist

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans is happy to participate in the world-wide Steinway Centennial Celebration being held during the 1953-54 musical season.

In dedicating this series of Young Artists and Junior Concerts to the Steinway Centennial Celebration, we take pleasure in honoring Steinway & Sons and their New Orleans representative, WERLEIN'S FOR MUSIC, for their positive contribution to American Cultural life and to music.