

Announces the Steinway
CENTENARY

Throughout the world, artists and music lovers pay homage to STEINWAY in celebration of their 100th Anniversary.

WERLEIN'S invites you now to view and play the Centenary Steinway.

THE GREATEST OF THEM ALL

The
Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans

35th PERFORMANCE

Junior Recital

DIXON HALL

NEWCOMB COLLEGE

Saturday, December 19, 1953

11:00 a. m.

Minuet in G MajorBeethoven
Prelude - Op. 28, No. 7Chopin
Prelude - Op. 28, No. 2Chopin

Glynis Tobin, Pianist

Hide and Seek - Op. 66, No. 6Ludvig Schytte
Variations on "Ah! Vous dirai-je, maman"Mozart
Gypsies - No. 3Stephen Heller

Madeleine Simmons, Pianist

A Love Letter }Robert Stoltz
Clarinet Solo
WaltzBrahms

The Wild Horseman }Schumann
First Grief } from "Scenes from Childhood"
Alto Saxophone Solo

Mary Ann Netto, Instrumentalist

Imogene Goldstone, Accompanist

Sonatina - Allegro con spiritoKuhlau
Papillons (Butterflies)Grieg
ScherzoWeybright

Betsy Shaw, Pianist

PrestoPescetti
Minuet in G MajorJ. S. Bach
Sonatina in F Major - First MovementBeethoven
Up Country DanceKasschau

Alfred Farrell, III, Pianist

Temple Incantation to Siva
Hindu Dance - Bharata Natya Style
Music - "Ile Ile"Ethnic Folkways Library
Colette Villere, Dancer

Minuet in G MajorJ. S. Bach
Allegro VivaceKuhlau
Winter SongBernice Bentley

Nancy Harkess, Pianist

SolfeggettoJ. S. Bach
Waltz in A MinorSchubert
Mazurka - Op. 68, No. 3Chopin
CoastingBurleigh

Frances Shaw, Pianist

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans is happy to participate in the world-wide Steinway Centennial Celebration being held during the 1953-54 musical season.

In dedicating this series of Young Artists and Junior Concerts to the Steinway Centennial Celebration, we take pleasure in honoring Steinway & Sons and their New Orleans representative, WERLEIN'S FOR MUSIC, for their positive contribution to American Cultural life and to music.