

SIX CONCERTS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE...

BY POPULAR REQUEST THE SERIES BEGINS WITH THE FAMOUS PUPPET SHOW OF

PETER AND THE WOLF BY PROKOFIEFF

This series of concerts is presented by

THE JUNIOR PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY OF NEW ORLEANS

Purpose

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans was organized to afford talented students of music and the dance an opportunity to perform in a professional atmosphere before representative audiences.

Auditions

Auditions are held twice each year, in May and December. At these auditions, qualified judges select students who will be given the opportunity to appear in planned recitals. Winners are selected on the basis of their age and proficiency, and not in competition with one another. All students appear anonymously, and the judges are changed for each audition.

Information concerning audition requirements may be obtained from the Auditions Chairman: Mrs. Ralph Friedel, 2518 Audubon St., Phone University 2547.
