

Sept 12th 1839

For Mr Lewis Tappan on acct. of the Blacks in the Amistad - By one who attributes to Mr Tappan and his friends right intentions, but thinks him wrong, in his views of Christian obligation on the subject of Slavery; and in his plans for ameliorating the situation of the coloured population in this Country -

Faint handwritten notes, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper.
