New Haven 9 Dec 1840
Dear Sir

Your favor of the 19th etc was duly read with the humane & liberal of the with which all were well pleased.
There is nothing new respecting our students, they continue to make good application to their studies improve much.

The Pills which you held for the Pills Society for them had I think better be sent up & I will deliver them as I think it best. Some of them cannot make any good use of them, but others can, & they are anxious to receive them. They serve as stimulants in their studies, & thus I hope will be daily a blessing to them.

Will the change of administration have any beneficial effect on the minds of the Court? Did you learn anything from your interview with Mr. Adams, as to his opinions, which has given you any new hopes, or fears, as to the final decision?

With much respect Yours
A. M. M. M. M.
