Judge Thompson's Decision.

My Editor,

I have a high reverence for the Bench. Still, once or twice in my life, as a juror, I have been so bold as to express a difference of opinion from learned jurists, and what may surprise you, subsequent developments have shown that the judge was wrong— and the juror right. I have been looking into the proceedings in the case of the African Circuit Court at Hartford in the case of the African Circuit Court at Hartford, the case of the African Circuit Court at Hartford,
