

Boston, Jan 5 1841-

Dear Sir-

I send you a corrected copy of my tract on Emancipation. Since I last wrote you, I have received a letter from Mr J M McKim, Philadelphia, expressing a desire to republish the pamphlet in Philadelphia - I told him that this would be very agreeable to me, as I wish the work diffused - but added that you propose an edition in N Y & advised him to confer with you on the subject - I shall be glad to have it republished ^{in New York & also} in Philadelphia; as it will appear ^{there} in a better form than in your prospectus, & as it may be read by many, when sent out ^{as} a distinct work, who might neg-

Let a number of your periodical. That on this point I shall defer to the judgment of those who understand such matters better than I do - I wish to be read as extensively & under as favourable circumstances as may be - & any mode of publication which shall be thought to promise this will be agreeable to me -

Very truly
