New Bedford ^{st st} 1st 21 1841

I have long been desirous of contributing to the assistance of the Africans, connected with the Amistad; whose cruel treatment by those in authority I greatly deplore. And as it is the opinion of some that woman's province is not in the public walks of life, it suits my inclination in this, as in other instances, to omit my name; with a request that the enclosed Fifty dollars may be appropriated for the benefit of the poor sufferers.
