Dear Sir

Mr Hill is here & safely lodged at the Quinipiac. Mr Williams has gone direct to Hartford & expects to be back tomorrow early. There does not appear to be any movement here & Mr Hill thinks from the appearances & remarks of the landlocked folks that nothing is as yet doing.

I have not therefore thought it best to undertake to get out a writ here to night, but shall do so tomorrow if the writ from Hartford does not make its appearance.

If you wish to write here please direct your letters to Mrs G. Hooker Savings Bank. They will avoid suspicion & come safe.

In haste

Truly Yours
A. M. A.
