Dear Sir

I have to write you a letter because I have your very much indeed your friend & called my father because you are so kind to poor I will pay for your money for your your wife and children in addition number of these letters and papers the first of these are the papers and the rest are the papers people in your country think of it as these papers are the papers place and the papers this paper is the paper your children are all of them your wife and children
 I have to write you a letter because I have your
 very much indeed your friend & called my
