Sept 22
Dear and much loved wife it is with the greatest pleasure that I take my pen this morning to let you know that I am enjoying first rate health and hope you are enjoying the same blessing I got out here Tuesday night all safe and sound we did not go up to the barricks till the next morning we fair good here we have bread the first rate and butter hark and coffe for breakfast bread potato beans for Lunner bread butter tea sumtimes pudding and molasses for supper we do not do much hear

we get up at five o'clock in the morning have breakfast at seven we drill at nine we drill two hours then dinner and then two hours in the afternoon supper at six go to bed at nine I have to go to the garden on Monday at about eight, we have to go on horse back and off, have dinner and like it very much. There is a good deal of men here now. I could not come home yesterday for I had not got my uniform we will have it in the
home Saturday I think.
There is a man named
I cannot write any more

we have the best company that ~~they~~ their is here they do not think
south two months so good Bye till I see you myself

Yours till Death

H Brown

I miss you I very much. Dearest I am I have been to the city twice
