

Coffee by Philharmonic Society

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans entertained this morning at a coffee party for members of the board at the Oak Park home of Mrs. William Gallmann. Receiving with the president, Mrs. Thomas L. Hollis, were the other officers, Mmes. Irving Carr, William Gallmann, Don Alverson and Sal J. Graziano.

Alternating at the coffee services were the following members of the board: Mmes. J. N. Adams, Harry Cabral Jr., Robert T. Casey, William Dean, Louis Dutrey, Ralph E. Friedel, Alving C. Grevemberg, Daniel Hayes, Otis Luker Jr., Nolan Kammer, Henry J. Mayer, Ulisse Nolan, Lynwood O'Bannon, Claude J. Pumilia, Albert J. Ruhlman, Vernile Winn and Miss Minnette Starts.

STATES

OCTOBER 15, 1958

NEW ORLEANS STATES AND ITEM

STATES AND ITEM

OCTOBER 9, 1958

In and About Town

By MAUDE O'BRYAN

COFFEE PARTY OF JUNIOR PHILHARMONIC

Mrs. William Gallmann's home in Oak Park is setting for coffee party Monday for Junior Philharmonic Society and its friends.

Mrs. Thomas L. Hollis, president, heads the receiving line with Mmes. Irving Carr, Don Alverson, Sal Graziano and Gallmann, writes Mrs. Robert Cassey.

Right photo: equally ardent workers for the Junior Philharmonic-Symphony concert-series enjoy a coffee party, celebrating the group's tenth birthday. They include MMES. ALBERT J. RUHLMAN, seated, HENRY J. MAYER, left, and NOLAN C. KAMMER.