

Junior Philharmonic Show

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans, initiating its 10th anniversary season, will present a program at 11 a. m. Saturday in Dixon hall. Featured will be the Madcap Marionettes, staged by Mrs. Franciosa Fry and Mrs. Metha Eshlman; Uncle Pete and his Puppets; and winners of the Junior Philharmonic March auditions.

This will be the first of four concerts scheduled for the season, and tickets to the series and the first concert are on sale at Werlein's.
