

In and About Town

By MAUDE O'BRYAN

Concert Set by Junior Philharmonic

The New Orleans Junior Philharmonic Society will present its first program of the season at 11 a. m. Saturday in Dixon hall on the Newcomb college campus.

It is the first of five such programs planned for the 1958-59 season by the group, and tickets for the program or the series will be available at the auditorium prior to the concert.

Concert Slated by Juniors

The New Orleans Junior Philharmonic Society will present the second concert of its season at 4 p. m. Wednesday in Dixon hall. Young musicians who will appear on the show will be Bonner Miller and Cecilia, both pianists from Jennings, La.; Lynda Buring, dancer; and Jane Goldberg, pianist. Special guests will be members of the brass section of the New Orleans Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra.

Junior Concerts at Dixon Hall

The first concert of the season for the Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans was held Saturday, Oct. 25 at 11 a. m. The second concert will take place Wednesday, Nov. 19 at 4 p. m. at Dixon Hall, on Newcomb campus. The Junior Philharmonic Society was organized to afford talented students of music and the chance an opportunity to perform in a professional atmosphere before representative audiences, also, to teach music appreciation to the nonperformer.

Admittance to the concerts is through membership fee of $2 with tax included. Subscriptions may be purchased at the door before the programs, from private music teachers or by calling the subscriptions chairman, Mrs. Ralph E. Friedel, 1803 Broadway, UN 6-0893, or at Werleins, 605 Canal st.

Annual auditions are held with qualified judges selecting winners to appear in the planned recitals. Information concerning audition requirements may be obtained from the auditions chairman, Mrs. Henry Mayer, No. 15 Nassau dr., Metairie, VE 5-8090.

—States-Item Photo.
DANCING PUPPETS practice under the guiding hands of MRS. FRANCISCA FRY, left, and MRS. METHE Eshelman for a musical presentation of Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" by the Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans. The show is part of the first in a series of concerts for children that will be presented at 11 a. m. Saturday at Newcomb college's Dixon hall.

OPERA BUFFET PRECEDES 'TURANDOT'

Mrs. Clifford King, Mrs. William A. Holton, Mrs. Arnold S. Kirchhoff and Mrs. Shelton P. Hubbard will be receiving at buffet supper in the Coker Room, Municipal Auditorium, Thursday, 6 p. m.

This opens "opera season" in New Orleans. Following Dutch Treat supper, lavish presentation of Puccini's "Turandot," starring Frances Yeend, gets underway. Miss Yeend is remembered here for sensational singing in "Elektra" several seasons ago.

JUNIOR PHILHARMONIC OPENS OCT. 25

Saturday, Oct. 25 at 11 a. m. Junior Philharmonic opens its season with youth recital at Dixon Hall, Newcomb College.

Mrs. Ralph E. Friedel, subscriptions chairman, and Werlein's, 605 Canal, can give details on ticket sales. Interested in auditioning? Mrs. Henry Mayer, Vernon 5-8090, is in charge of auditions of young artists.

Next Junior Philharmonic program will be Wednesday, November 19th, at 4 (four) P.M. Dixon Hall, Newcomb College. If you do not, as yet have your subscription, call Subscription Chairman, Mrs. R. Friedel at UN 6-0893. Parents and Music lovers of New Orleans, would you like to be a Patron of the Junior Philharmonic? This organization affords a wonderful opportunity to the youth of New Orleans. To our knowledge there is only one other city, with a program of this sort, and that is New York. Its purpose is to afford talented students of Music and the dance an opportunity to perform in a professional atmosphere before representative audiences, also to teach music appreciation to the non-performer. The subscription cost is extremely low. For more information contact Public Relations Director, Mrs. V. Winn, AU 1498.

L.A. REVIEWS SHOPPER