UNCLE PETE AND PUPPETS
... on Jr. Philharmonic program

Plan Music, Puppet Show

The Junior Philharmonic Society will open its tenth anniversary series with a varied program to be presented at 11 a. m. Nov. 9 in Dixon Hall on the Newcomb College campus.

The program will feature the Madcap Marionettes staged by Mrs. Francisca Fry and Mrs. Metha Eshlman, assisted by Pamela Fry.

UNCLE PETE will be out front with the puppets who will dance to the "Faust" ballet music, with the help of two live ballerinas—Jacqueline Fry and Gloria Meistovich.

Winners of the March, Junior Philharmonic auditions also will perform. They include pianist Melanie Mintz, 11; pianist Lois Halle, 12; dancer Barbara Lavigne, 12; and pianist Kathleen Blache, 8.

Four concerts will be offered in the series: Nov. 9, Dec. 7, Feb. 15 and April 18.

Subscription tickets for the series may be obtained at the door before the performance, from private music teachers, at 605 Canal or from subscription chairman, Mrs. Ralph Friedel, 1803 Broadway.

Junior Philharmonic Show

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans, initiating its 10th anniversary season, will present a program at 11 a. m. Saturday in Dixon hall. Featured will be the Madcap Marionettes, staged by Mrs. Francisca Fry and Mrs. Metha Eshlman; Uncle Pete and his Puppets; and winners of the Junior Philharmonic March auditions.

This will be the first of four concerts scheduled for the season, and tickets to the series and the first concert are on sale at Werlein's.
