

Jr. Philharmonic Society Holds 'Kickoff' Luncheon

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans entertained today at a "kickoff" luncheon at a Vieux Carre center.

Those there were Mesdames J. N. Adams, I. Carashick, I. Cohn, Jr., R. E. Friedel, L. Fruchter, William Gallmann.

Mesdames Alvin Grevemberg, Daniel Hayes, T. Hollis, Nolan Kammer, H. J. Mayer, Ulisse Nolan.

Mesdames L. O'Bannon, Claude J. Pumilia, Albert J. Ruhlman, Fred L. Winn and Miss Minette Starts.

The Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans will meet Tuesday at 11:30 a. m. for a "kickoff" luncheon at a Vieux Carre center.

Mrs. Alvin Grevemberg is president of the group.

Patio Party

Meeting for luncheon yesterday, members of the board of the Junior New Orleans Philharmonic - Symphony Society gathered in the patio of a Vieux Carre center.

They included Mmes. J. M. Adams, Irving Karashick, Isidore Cohn Jr., Ralph E. Friedel, Lewis Fruchter, William Gallman, Alvin C. Grevemberg, Daniel Hayes, Nolan C. Kammer, Ulisse Nolan, Henry Mayer, Claude Pumilia, Vernile Winn, Henry Cabral Jr. and Miss Minette Starts.

Patio Luncheon

An outdoor patio of a Vieux Carre restaurant will be the scene Tuesday during the mid-day hours of a luncheon party at which members of the board of the Junior New Orleans Philharmonic-Symphony Society will be the guests. Those attending will gather at 11 a. m.

At the board meeting of the Jr. Philharmonic Society of New Orleans Tuesday at Brennan's, Mrs. Alvin Grevemberg, the group's president, announced the various chairman for the season's activities.

Members of the executive committee include Mesdames Grevemberg, Isadore Cohn, F. L. Winn, William Gallmann, Ralph Friedel and Thomas Hollis.

Program chairman is Mrs. Hollis, while Mrs. Lynwood O'Bannon will head the donors committee.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. Henry Mayer, auditions; Mrs. Harry Cabral, Jr., membership subscription; Mrs. Hollis, nominations; Mrs. Friedel, scholarship; Mrs. Winn, publicity and public relations, and Mrs. J. N. Adams, historian.

tograph party.

JUNIOR PHILHARMONIC

Mrs. Alvin Grevemberg, president, Mrs. Harry Cabral Jr., ticket chairman, and Mrs. Vernile Winn, public relations director, announce that Junior Philharmonic Society's ticket campaign opens at 10:15 a. m. Wednesday, in the home of the president.

JUNIOR PHILHARMONIC MEETS JUNE 12

Mrs. Alvin Grevemberg, president of Junior Philharmonic Society, advertises final meeting and election of officers for next school year.

Mrs. Vernile Winn urges all members to attend this event at the Pontchartrain hotel, June 12, 12:30 p. m.

* * *

—Photo by The Times-Picayune.
CARTOONIST JOHN CHASE of the New Orleans States chooses a musical subject to entertain three of the youngsters who will appear with him on the Junior Philharmonic Society's first concert of the season at 11 a. m. Saturday at Dixon Hall. The children are (from left) pianist Charles Carrera, 8 years old, and dancers Lynda Fay Buring and Ethelyn Verlander, both aged 10. Season subscriptions may be obtained at 605 Canal, from private music and dance teachers, or from Mrs. Harry Cabral Jr., 6551 Louisville.