

2 Teen-Age Pianists to Perform Here

Two teen-age pianists from Jennings will be featured as soloists in the final season concert of the Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans at 4 p. m. Saturday at Newcomb college's Dixon hall.

The piano solos will be offered by Marty Arnaudet and Sally Clary.

Vocalists Tommye Jane Cafield, Charlie Shull and Rodney Strucken also will perform in the young artists' concert.

A piano student for the past nine years and the holder of superior ratings in National Guild auditions and several music festivals, young Arnaudet will offer Beethoven's Sonata Opus 79, No. 25, and Rachmaninoff's Prelude Opus 23, No. 3 in D Minor.

Miss Clary will play Bach's Prelude in B flat major, No. 21; Beethoven's Sonata Opus 14,

MR. ARNAUDET

MISS CLARY

No. 2, and Rachmaninoff's Humoreske.

The high school girl pianist has studied piano for 11 years.
