

—Photo by The Times-Picayune.

AMONG THE VICTORS selected Saturday in the annual auditions of the Junior Philharmonic Society were (from left) Bonner Miller, piano soloist; David LeMire, piano soloist, and Linda Faye Buring, dance soloist.

15 WIN IN MUSIC, DANCE AUDITION

Will Appear in Junior
Philharmonic Recitals

Winners in the annual auditions of the Junior Philharmonic Society held at Newcomb college were announced Saturday afternoon.

These 15 winners, who included instrumentalists, vocalists, pianists and dancers in the junior, intermediate and young artist divisions, will appear in four recitals in the 1958-59 Junior Philharmonic season, sponsored by the Junior Philharmonic Society of New Orleans.

The 48 who competed in the auditions ranged in ages from seven to 25 and represented pupils of public, private and parochial schools. Alternates as well as winners were selected in each division.

Junior division winners are: Piano soloists, Bonner Miller, Kathyne Cunningham, David LeMire, Jane Goldberg and Claudia Harold; and dance soloist, Lynda Faye Buring.

Junior alternates are: dance duo, Connie Ann Otto and Andrew Nicolaides, and piano soloist, Heide Ingeborg Rice.

Intermediate division winners are: piano solists, Sally Clary and Marty Arnaudet; piano duo, Lois Halle and Billie Rumbelow; soprano, Maurice Mullin; and dance solo, Peggy Engert.

Intermediate alternates are: piano solo, Cecelia Arnaudet and Julie Schmidt.

Winners in the young artist